West of Here Jonathan Evison, 2012-01-31 At the foot of the Elwha River the muddy outpost of Port Bonita is about to boom fueled by a ragtag band of dizzyingly disparate men and women unified only in their visions of a more prosperous future A failed accountant by the name of Ethan Thornburgh has just arrived in Port Bonita to reclaim the woman he loves and start a family Ethan's obsession with a brighter future impels the damming of the mighty Elwha to harness its power and put Port Bonita on the map More than a century later his great great grandson a middle manager at a failing fish packing plant is destined to oversee the undoing of that vision as the great Thornburgh dam is marked for demolition having blocked the very lifeline that could have sustained the town West of Here is a grand and playful odyssey a multilayered saga of destiny and greed adventure and passion that chronicles the life of one small town turning America's history into myth and myth into a nation's shared experience

Gothic Appalachian Literature Sarah Robertson, 2024-10-01 Gothic Appalachian Literature examines the ways contemporary Appalachian authors utilize gothic tropes to explore the complex history and contemporary problems of the region particularly in terms of their representation of economic and environmental concerns It argues that across Appalachian fiction the plight of characters to save their homes land and way of life from the destructive forces of extractive industries brings sharply to bare the histories of colonization and slavery that problematize questions of belonging ownership and possession Robertson extensively considers contemporary manifestations of the gothic in Appalachian literature arguing that gothic tropes abound in fiction that focuses on the impacts of extractive industries that connect this micro region with other parts of the Global North and Global South where the devastating impacts of extractive industries are also experienced socially economically and environmentally Official Automobile Blue Book, 1921
