A West Point Yearling Paul Bernard Malone, 1907 During the period covered by this volume hazing had become a serious menace to the discipline of the Military Academy The efforts on the part of the authorities to suppress the vice met with but little co operation from the cadets who believed that no plebe could be inspired with the proper sense of instantaneous obedience except by the so called system of hazing which had been practiced for many years at the Academy So strong honest and deep seated was this belief that the cadet who opposed it was subject to suspicion as a sycophant and boot lick Among the opponents of the system however was Douglas Atwell president of the yearling class a recognized and stalwart leader among his comrades In these pages an effort is made to trace his struggle against the growing opposition of his class in a word to follow out the system of hazing to its logical consequences The early experiences of our hero had admirably fitted him for the crisis with which he soon found himself confronted As a poor country boy on a lonely farm he had acquired that hard horse sense which recognizes the fundamental and rejects convenient theory as a soldier in the U S Army in the Philippines he had trained his fearless nature to ignore consequences and as a plebe at West Point he had seen the folly of the system the injustice of the code and now with his whole heart he resolved to oppose many of his classmates
