Sweden before coming to the United States in 1941 In 1943 he completed The Society of Terror based on his experiences in Dachau and Buchenwald He embarked on a long career teaching sociology and statistics at universities in the United States and later in Vienna until his death in September 2001 After liberation the horrific images of the extermination camps abounded from Dachau Buchenwald and other places Neurath's chillingly factual discussion of his experience as an inmate and his astute observations of the conditions and the social structures in Dachau and Buchenwald captivate the reader not only because of their authenticity but also because of the work's proximity to the events and the absence of influence of later interpretations His account is unique also because of the exceptional links Neurath establishes between personal experience and theoretical reflection the persistent oscillation between the distanced and sober view of the scientist and that of the prisoner
