The Cancer Problem Agnes Arnold-Forster, 2022-01-19 The Cancer Problem offers the first medical cultural and social history of cancer in nineteenth century Britain It begins by looking at a community of doctors and patients who lived and worked in the streets surrounding the Middlesex Hospital in London It follows in their footsteps as they walked the labyrinthine lanes and passages that branched off Tottenham Court Road then through seven chapters its focus expands to successively include the rivers lakes and forests of England the mountains poverty and hunger of the four nations of the British Isles the reluctant and resistant inhabitants of the British Empire and the networks of scientists and doctors spread across Europe and North America The Cancer Problem Malignancy in Nineteenth Century Britain argues that it was in the nineteenth century that cancer acquired the unique emotional symbolic and politicized status it maintains today Through an interrogation of the construction deployment and emotional consequences of the disease s incurability this book reframes our conceptualization of the relationship between medicine and modern life and reshapes our understanding of chronic and incurable maladies both past and present

The Living Signature: The Body's Power to Heal and the Question of Design Dr. Octavian Caius Obeada, 2025-06-26 In The Living Signature The Body s Power to Heal and the Question of Design science and spirit converge in a captivating exploration of the human body as more than mere biology Drawing from philosophy theology medicine and biology this book challenges the view that life is the product of blind chance From the cellular dance of regeneration to the breathtaking orchestration of body systems it reveals signs of purpose woven into the fabric of life itself For the scientist the skeptic and the seeker alike this is an invitation to see the body not just as alive but as alive with meaning I will praise thee for I am fearfully and wonderfully made wrote a grateful King David in Psalm 139 three thousand years ago He didn t know the half of it In this marvelous book Dr Octavian Caius Obeada focuses on the marvelous ability of life to regenerate and heal itself surveying what philosophers and theologians throughout the ages have surmised and detailing the intricate molecular mechanisms that have been discovered by scientists only in recent decades The result is a tour de force showcasing the intelligent design of life Michael J Behe PhD Professor of Biological Sciences at Lehigh University in Pennsylvania and a Senior Fellow at Discovery Institute's Center for Science and Culture and author of Darwin's Black Box The Living Signature by Dr Octavian Caius Obeada is a profound exploration of the human body's regenerative capacity framed as both a scientific marvel and a philosophical clue to purposeful design Drawing on decades of medical experience and insights from biology theology and systems thinking the book challenges reductionist views by asking whether healing is merely mechanical or a message of intention With compelling case studies and a multidisciplinary lens this work invites readers to see the human body not as an accident but as a living signature of meaning and design Adrian Anthony Dormans MD FAAFP From skin and bone to organs and DNA the regenerative capabilities of the human body are not only astonishing they hint at something deeper The Living Signature lays out thoughtful well researched reflections and challenges you to consider whether the complexity and order we see in ourselves could truly be the product of blind chance or the body itself is whispering something about its origin a message not of randomness but of meaning Costiuc Alexandru MD Specialist in Gastroenterology Regina Maria Romania Resident Physician in Family Medicine University of Oradea
