Female Beauty in Art Maria Ioannou, Maria Kyriakidou, 2014-10-21 In Female Beauty in Art a series of essays examine the presence and role of female beauty in art history and culture and consider the ways in which beauty can function as a discourse of female identity As a concept female beauty is unique in that it can contain compelling imbrications of gender ideologies images relations cultural constructions and modes of interaction between persons and the institutions that define their lives Thus female beauty can provide proliferating methods t Shakespeare's Political and Economic Language Vivian Thomas, 2015-03-26 Shakespeare's plays are pervaded by political and economic words and concepts not only in the histories and tragedies but also in the comedies and romances The lexicon of political and economic language in Shakespeare does not consist merely of arcane terms whose shifting meanings require exposition but includes an enormous number of relatively simple words which possess a structural significance in the configuration of meanings Often operating by such means as puns they open up a surprising number of possibilities The dictionary reveals the conceptual nucleus of each term and explores the contexts in which it is embedded The overlap between the political and economic dimensions of a word in Shakespeare's drama is particularly exciting as he is highly attuned to the interactions of these two spheres of human activity and their centrality in human affairs Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 Just A Theory M. Ben-Ari, 2005-04-08

Some people claim that evolution is just a theory Do you know what a scientific theory really is Just a theory is an overview of the modern concepts of science A clear understanding of the nature of science will enable you to distinguish science from pseudoscience which illegitimately wraps itself in the mantle of science and real social issues in science from the caricatures portrayed in postmodernist critiques Prof Ben Ari's style is light even humorous and easy to read bringing the latest concepts of science to the general reader Of particular interest is his analysis of the terminology of science fact law proof theory in relation to the colloquial meaning of these terms Between chapters are biographical vignettes of scientists both familiar and unfamiliar showing their common commitment to the enterprise of science together with a diversity of backgrounds and personalities This accessible informative and comprehensive work will give lay readers a good grasp of real science

Epitomes of Evil Hannele Klemettilä, 2006 Hangmen were familiar characters from urban reality to people living in France and the Burgundian Netherlands in the late Middle Ages These officers played an essential role in the new penal system However general attitudes towards public executioners were highly ambiguous often hostile and disparaging In past imagery various hangman figures real or fictitious were closely linked to ideas of otherness cruelty sin and evil They were identified with criminals marginal people and demons In the period of the late Middle Ages the hangman s representations were actively exploited shaped and modified for various reasons by different social and cultural groups in different products of culture religious as well as secular This study casts light on ways of perceiving the executioner in French and Burgundian culture and society from the fourteenth to the early sixteenth century The primary sources used in this work consist of wide and varied printed and non printed textual materials such as chronicles writings by legal experts and theologians drama and poetry Significant role is also given to the testimony offered by pictorial art both sacred and profane especially miniatures and panel paintings What Great Paintings Say : Volume 2 Rose-Marie Hagen, Rainer Hagen, 2005 Art in Story Marianne Saccardi, 2007 Art in Story focuses on art of the ancient world of the East and Africa of the Middle Ages and the Renaissance The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2003 Longman Anthology British Literature Volume 2 Addison-Wesley Longman, Incorporated, 1998-07 Artbibliographies Modern, 1995 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 Genocide Before the Holocaust Cathie Carmichael, 2009 This innovative and ambitious work is a systematic examination of the many instances of genocide that took place in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century centuries that were precursors to the Holocaust There is an appalling symmetry to the many instances of genocide that the late nineteenth and early twentieth century world witnessed In the wake of the break up of the old Hapsburg Ottoman and Romanov empires minority populations throughout those lands were persecuted expelled and eliminated The reason for the deplorable decimations of communities Jews in Imperial Russia and Ukraine Ottoman Assyrians Armenians and Muslims from the Caucasus and Balkans was Cathie Carmichael contends located in the very roots of the new nation states arising from the imperial rubble The question of who should be included in the nation and which groups were now to be deemed suspect or alien was one that preoccupied and divided Europe long before the Holocaust Examining all the major eliminations of communities in Europe up until 1941 Carmichael shows how
