Wildflower Spirit Journey Through Central Australia:

Wildflower Spirit Journey Omanisa Ross, 2014-03-11 Six months after her grandmother passes away Omanisa Ross travels through remote Central Australia searching for flowers she remembers photographing with her grandmother as a child As she bonds with her grandmother's spirit Omanisa's passion for wildflower photography reignites and the flowers reach deep into her soul to unravel past wounds Wildflower Spirit Journey Through Central Australia is the diary of Omanisa's trek through country memory and spirit written as an ode to her pioneering grandmother Dr Anne Urban OAM Anne provided medical care to remote communities while working in Central Australia from 1966 to 1980 After retiring from medicine Anne immersed herself in wildflower photography and wrote a plant identification book called Wildflowers and Plants of Inland Australia first published in 1990 Anne actively cultivated Omanisa's love for nature inspired and nurtured her career as a naturopath and gave shape to her spiritual values by role modelling high standards of unconditional love and service to others The writing of Wildflower Spirit Journey is Omanisa's way of saying thank you whilst staying true to her own unique relationship with nature and medicine Using her skills as a herbalist psychic and healer Omanisa explores the spirit medicine of twenty six Central Australian wildflowers beautifully depicted in full colour photography guiding the reader through the process of making their own healing connection with the wildflower spirits of Australia's heartland A

Panoramic Journey Through Australia Peter Lik, 1996 Panoramic format of photographs allows for a wider field of view as seen by the human eye Developing Magical Consciousness Susan Greenwood, 2019-09-30 Offering a new template for future exploration Susan Greenwood examines and develops the notion that the experience of magic is a panhuman orientation of consciousness a form of knowledge largely marginalized in Western societies In this volume she aims to form a bridge of communication between indigenous magical or shamanic worldviews and rationalized Western cultures She outlines an alternative mythological framework for the latter to help develop a magical perception as well as giving practical case studies derived from her own research The form of magic discussed here is not fantastic or virtual but ecological and sensory Magical knowledge infiltrates the body in its deepest levels of the subconscious and unconscious as well as conscious awareness it is felt and understood through the connection with an inspired world that includes the consciousness of other beings including those of plant animal and the physical environment This is anthropology from the heart rather than the head and it engages with the messy area of emotions an embodiment of the senses and struggles to find a common language of listening to one another across a void of differences The aim is to provide a non reductive structure for the creative interplay of both magical and analytical modes of thought Passion is a motivator for change and a change in attitude to magic as an integrative force of human understanding is the main thread of this work Dry Times Mark Stafford Smith, Julian

Cribb, 2009 With knowledge from our deserts Australians can reshape the human story Dry Times Blueprint for a Red Land provides new insights into how our desert environments and institutions work and how this affects the people living in them
