George Galdorisi, Thomas Phillips

Winder Finder Haiphong:

From a Dark Sky Orr Kelly, 2014-06-24 A fascinating history of the most secretive and unsung branch of the US military's Special Forces from World War II through Desert Storm Very little is known about USAF Special Operations yet their exploits have been as daring and their achievements as remarkable as anything accomplished by their brother warriors Since World War II these ultra secretive air commandos have routinely performed the near impossible undertaking missions that typically carry them across enemy lines From secretly inserting covert operatives into North Korea and participating in clandestine CIA operations in Vietnam and Cambodia to providing air support for partisans in Nazi occupied France and rescuing dozens of downed fliers trapped deep in enemy territory these courageous airmen have done the jobs that no one else could do often in the most technologically advanced war machinery the Air Force has at its disposal Sometimes called ravens or carpetbaggers the air commandos have a history that has long been buried beneath layers of official cover stories rumors and deceptions until now An expert in military affairs Orr Kelly has already written what many believe to be the definitive history of the US Navy SEALs Brave Men Dark Waters Now he turns his attention to this unsung branch of the military's Special Forces relating a true story of courage skill and commitment that spans decades With uncompromising honesty he explores both the triumphs Project 9 in Burma and the disasters the failed rescue of hostages in Iran of these incomparable heroes of the sky who have never sought recognition or glory Leave No Man Behind George Galdorisi, Thomas Phillips, 2009-01-16 Beginning with the birth of combat aircraft in World War I and the early attempts to rescue warriors trapped behind enemy lines Leave No Man Behind chronicles in depth nearly one hundred years of combat search and rescue CSAR All major U S combat operations from World War II to the early years of the Iraq War are covered including previously classified missions and several Medal of Honor winning operations Authors George Galdorisi and Tom Phillips both veteran U S Navy helicopter pilots highlight individual acts of heroism while telling the big picture story of the creation and development of modern CSAR Although individual missions have their successes and failures CSAR as an institution would seem beyond reproach an obvious necessity The organizational history of CSAR however is not entirely positive The armed services particularly the U S Air Force and Navy have a tendency to cut CSAR at the end of a conflict leaving no infrastructure prepared for the next time that the brave men and women of our armed forces find themselves behind enemy lines The final chapter has not yet been written for U S combat search and rescue but in view of the life saving potential of these forces an open and forthright review of U S military CSAR plans and policies is long overdue Beyond the exciting stories of heroic victories and heartrending defeats Leave No Man Behind stimulates debate on this important subject The Third Tour Bob Stockton, 2017-03-13 Help me Marty Help me Radarman First Class Zack Martin's physical wounds that were inflicted when his ship was attacked by friendly aircraft while on patrol in Vietnam have healed His psychological wounds are another story Recently the flashback dreams about his friend Campbell's mortal wounding from that terrible morning have diminished but the panic attacks have not His fianc Camille is pressuring him to leave the Navy and seek help To add to his dilemma word has just recently been received that his new ship a destroyer is headed back to combat duty in Vietnam waters Martin is reluctant to throw away nearly ten years of his navy career He must soon decide whether to seek psychiatric help at the Navy Hospital and accept a medical discharge or suppress his fears and sail once again into harm s way In The Third Tour Bob Stockton draws on his personal experiences and more to deliver a fast paced action story of Navy combat both on the high seas and along the dangerous brown water rivers of Vietnam placing the reader directly in the line of enemy fire Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce, 1951 Salmonsens konversations Leksikon , 1920
