Wilma Jean The Worry Machine:

Wilma Jean the Worry Machine Julia Cook, 2012-01-15 My stomach feels like it's tied up in a knot My knees lock up and my face feels hot You know what I mean I'm Wilma Jean The Worry Machine Anxiety is a subjective sense of worry apprehension and or fear It is considered to be the number one health problem in America Although quite common anxiety disorders in children are often misdiagnosed and overlooked Everyone feels fear worry and apprehension from time to time but when these feelings prevent a person from doing what he/she wants and/or needs to do anxiety becomes a disability This fun and humorous book addresses the problem of anxiety in a way that relates to children of all ages It offers creative strategies for parents and teachers to use that can lessen the severity of anxiety The goal of the book is to give children the tools needed to feel more in control of their anxiety For those worries that are not in anyone's control i.e. the weather a worry that is introduced A fun read for Wilmas of all ages Includes a note to parents and educators with tips on dealing with an anxious child

15-Minute Focus: Anxiety: Worry, Stress, and Fear Leigh Bagwell, 2020-10-01 In 15 Minute Focus Anxiety Worry Stress and Fear Dr Leigh Bagwell gives counselors and educators a step by step primer on how to support students who struggle with anxiety Anxiety can cause students to feel isolated and overwhelmed preventing them from learning and engaging in the classroom Rather than tell our students not to worry our job as educators should be to recognize when our students are struggling with anxiety and get them the support they need In this book Bagwell explains the physiological progression from a trigger to a full blown anxiety attack and provides a variety of prevention and intervention strategies for school counselors educators and administrators What you'll get Understanding of anxiety and clarification of anxiety vs misbehavior Breakdown of various anxiety disorders and how they present Helpful tips for parents who have anxious children Curated list of resources including organizations curriculum books and more When students experience anxiety they need help navigating through it This guide will teach school counselors educators and administrators how to become powerful advocates for their students so they can thrive in the classroom and in life

Schoolwide Collaboration for Transformative Social Emotional Learning Kristy Hill, Abbie Harriman, Amy Grosso, 2021-08-05 Schools and libraries can make a difference by teaching kids how to identify and cope with emotions how to communicate with confidence and empathy and how to persevere even when things are difficult The authors of this helpful text define transformative social emotional learning and its impact on students and schools They present current brain research to support social emotional programming in a whole school program with collaborative lesson ideas adaptable to all age levels for the use of counselors librarians administrators classroom teachers and all special area teachers All lessons provide lists of extended student and faculty readings Illustrating and highlighting how social emotional programming helps foster and transform the culture of a school to one of belonging and acceptance the authors also provide necessary application lessons for all educators in all areas of a school including ideas for such common areas as playgrounds cafeterias classrooms and libraries and even ideas for implementation by school administrators Research cited predicts desired outcomes including a culture of belonging increased student engagement and achievement and a more compassionate school staff Ideas and activities provided for professional development for educators benefit students and staff alike Climate Change and Youth Linda Goldman,2022-05-10 Climate Change and Youth is a pioneering book that opens the door to understanding the profound impact climate change has on the mental health of today s young people Chapters provide age appropriate language for a meaningful dialogue and resources for acknowledging children s voices separating fact from fiction about environmental issues encouraging participation in activism creating tools to reduce stress and highlighting inspirational role models and organizations for action The book includes firsthand examples research children s work interviews and terminology It also shares age appropriate resources and websites relating to climate change and challenges Filling a large void in the literature on this topic this essential resource offers techniques and tools that professionals and caring adults can use to address the stresses associated with climate change and offer strategies for hope resilience and action Belonging Sian Phillips,Deni Melim,Daniel A. Hughes,2020-08-15 The call for trauma informed education is growing as the profound impact trauma has for the children s ability to learn in traditional classrooms is recognized For children who have experienced abuse and neglect their behavior is often highly reactive aggressive withdrawn or unmotivated They struggle to learn to make positive relationships or be influenced positively by teachers and school staff Students become more and more at risk for mental health difficulties Teachers become more and more frustrated and discouraged as they attempt to teach this vulnerable group of students Even though it is relationships that have hurt students with developmental trauma it is known that they must find safe relationships to learn and heal Forming those relationships with children who have been hurt and no longer trust adults is not easy This book focuses on three important and comprehensive areas of theory and research that provide a theoretical clinical and integrated intervention model for developing the relationships and felt sense of safety children with developmental trauma need Using what is known from attachment theory intersubjectivity theory and interpersonal neurobiology the reader is helped to understand why children behave in the challenging ways they do This book offers successes and ongoing challenges as a means to continue the conversation about how best to support some of our most at risk youth What Do I Say About That? Julia Cook,Anita DuFalla,2015-08-01 Why can t he see what he did to me to our family This book takes a unique look at the internal struggles with which a child of an incarcerated parent is faced My dad says that drugs and alcohol made him choose to do the wrong things But he could have said no to the drugs and the booze then my life wouldn t be what it seems Why didn t he love us enough to say no Aren t we worth it to him He had a choice us or drugs He chose to let the drugs win What Do I Say About That creatively explores and validates the roller coaster journey of emotions that children of incarcerated parents endure It also gives insight to the process of healing and coping Building Blocks for Social-Emotional Learning Tracy A.
