Zero Theology John Tucker,2019-07-02 In ZeroTheology John Tucker argues that not only can one be a Christian without holding any traditional beliefs but that one can only be a Christian by getting out of religious belief altogether Utilizing the philosophy of Ludwig Wittgenstein John offers a way of escaping the belief disbelief trap that explains why believers and unbelievers cannot understand each other and why neither understands the alternative religious path that the author promotes Tucker addresses many of today s most pressing religious questions and introduces his own Why do evangelicals believe that homosexual fidelity is more harmful to marriage than heterosexual infidelity Why are believers so bothered by science and so impressed by miracles What if Sin and Grace are synonyms What if Jesus is sinless in an ironic way What is the difference between making judgments and passing judgment Why does the literal versus metaphorical debate completely miss the point of religious language Using Catch 22s ZeroTheology offers a new way of looking at Christian religious life that emphasizes the non reasonable transcendent choice over the perfectly reasonable choice of belief or unbelief

Materials, Methods, and Masterpieces of Medieval Art Janetta Rebold Benton,2009-08-27 A comprehensive and informed analysis explores the startlingly diverse and sophisticated fine arts in the Middle Ages Materials Methods and Masterpieces of Medieval Art provides a comprehensive and detailed analysis of the work done by artists in western Europe during the Middle Ages Art historian Janetta Rebold Benton uses examples such as the Book of Kells Bury Saint Edmunds Cross and the Bayeux Tapestry and the work of artists such as Jan van Eyck and Giotto to explore the various media available to medieval artists and the ways in which those media were used to create a stunning array of masterworks Although the visual arts of the Middle Ages were extremely colorful today much of that color has diminished or disappeared the pigments and threads faded the gold abraded the silver tarnished Materials Methods and Masterpieces of Medieval Art allows these works to sparkle once more

The Window at St. Catherine's John F. Dobbertin Jr.,John Dobbertin Jr.,2005-08 If the fates had been just a shade different we might all be flying to and from

Cullerton International instead of O Hare International This is the incredible story of Bill Cullerton a leading United States Army Air Force ace in World War Two Few could have survived the harrowing ordeal he experienced Here is a tale of salmon fishing war survival and friendship This is the true story of The Window at St Catherine s The Waffen SS officer takes Bill s gun jams it against his right side just under his rib cage For you the war is over the Waffen SS officer says He pulls the trigger The window at St Catherine s is really a grabber hanging on every word is a cliché so I won t use it but it is a good read solidly and well told William A Rooney co author The Enola Gay and the Smithsonian Institution

The Life, Art and Religious Iconography of David Wright Peter French,2016-01-14 This book showcases the contribution Australian contemporary glass artist David Wright has made to Australian art and international glassmaking From 1970 until 2014 David Wright produced hundreds of high quality art glass windows for Australian public private and sacred spaces including significant national churches chapels and synagogues yet little scholarly research on the artist and his place in Australian art history exists Including the first catalogue raisonné ever produced on the artist combined with a close examination of his opus his influences manufacturing methods and personal history this book demonstrates for the first time the extraordinary contribution David Wright made to Australian art and contemporary glassmaking

Transparency Daniel Jutte,2023-03-28 A wide ranging illustrated history of transparency as told through the evolution of the glass window Transparency is a mantra of our day It is key to the Western understanding of a liberal society We expect transparency from for instance political institutions corporations and the media But how did it become such a powerful and global idea From ancient glass to Apple s corporate headquarters this book is the first to probe how Western people have experienced conceptualized and evaluated transparency Daniel Jutte argues that the experience of transparency has been inextricably linked to one element of Western architecture the glass window Windows are meant to be unnoticed Yet a historical perspective reveals the role that glass has played in shaping how we see and interpret the world A seemingly pure material glass has been endowed throughout history with political social and cultural meaning in manifold and sometimes conflicting ways At the same time Jutte raises questions about the future of vitreous transparency its costs in terms of visual privacy but also its ecological price tag in an age of accelerating climate change

Red Spike Bucklow,2016-06-15 Blood rust lava wine the flush of passion and the glow of approaching night no color arrests our attention more than the color red Today it is the flag of danger and seduction of spirit and revolution but throughout nearly all of human history it has held a special place in our aesthetics In this book Spike Bucklow brings us into the heart of this fiery hue to better understand the unique powers it has had over us Bucklow takes us from a thirty four thousand year old shaman burial dress to the iPhone screen exploring the myriad of purposes we have put red to as well as the materials from which we have looked to harvest it And we have looked for it everywhere from insects to tree resin to tar to excitable gasses Bucklow also details how our pursuit of the color drove medieval alchemy and modern chemistry alike and he shows us red s many symbolic uses its association with earth blood and fire its coloring of caves and the throne rooms of goddesses as well as national flags fire trucks power grids and stoplights The result is a material and cultural history that makes one see this color afresh beating with vibrancy a crucial part of the human visual world National Glass Budget,1913

Three Brothers Steven Propp,2007-11-30 Matthew Mark and Luke O Sullivan are triplets whose pious Catholic mother passed away during childbirth but whose family sees to it that they are firmly raised in the faith Upon graduating from high school all three of them have a vocation to the priesthood It s an exciting time The Vatican Council has concluded the Mass is now said in English and Catholic priests are going to jail for protesting the Vietnam War but the Papal encyclical Humanae Vitae has caused division in the Church as well Always mindful of their father s counsel that Brothers come first the three of them attend college and then seminary during a time of unprecedented change in the Catholic Church The Mass ritual itself is changed the Roe v Wade decision legalizes abortion and the Charismatic Renewal sweeps the world while Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre is disciplined for stubbornly opposing the significant changes taking place Yet after ordination the pace of change only increases Pope John Paul II is elected but there are increasingly bitter divisions in the Church over ecumenism feminism and the ordination of women clerical celibacy and the place of gays and lesbians in the Church Amidst a society torn by protests about nuclear arms abortion and the AIDS crisis the three brothers challenge each other in basketball as they challenge each other s arguments over birth control the death of Terri Schiavo and The Passion of the Christ but especially over the clergy sexual abuse scandal and what it means for the priesthood Then Benedict XVI is elected Pope further threatening the ability of dissenting Catholic theologians to freely express their views In reading this thought provoking book you may discover that the most pressing issues affecting the Catholic Church are really the same issues that affect us all
