Walking Between The Worlds:

Walking Between the Worlds Gregg Braden, 1997 This book explores the 7 Essene Mirrors of Relationship and how it relates to our daily lives

Daily Fare Kathleen Aguero, 1993 Daily Fare presents seventeen artfully crafted essays in which writers representing a broad spectrum of the American experience ponder the meaning of living in a nation of diverse and competing cultures Consistently thought provoking and often intensely personal these pieces confront such themes as the question of identity the individual's relation to culture problems of communication and the need to strike a balance between preserving traditions and merging them Memories both tender and painful fill these pages Toi Derricotte recalling her experiences as the only black person at an artist colony often found her sense of isolation almost unbearable No one can help Only I myself But how can I let go My face is a mask like Uncle Tom's my heart twisted in rage and fear In The Death of Fred Astaire Leslie Lawrence reflects on the difficult decisions that led to her becoming a lesbian mother and the mix of emotions apprehension maternal longing and finally joyous fulfillment that accompanied her choices In Kubota Garrett Hongo describes how his grandfather enjoined him to learn and to give witness to the injustices committed against Japanese Americans by their own government during World War II Hongo accepts this responsibility as a ritual payment the young owe their elders who have survived Several bilingual essayists contemplate their relationship to the English language a language that can empower its users or deny them access to the dominant culture For Judith Ortiz Cofer reading books from the public library as a child gave her a sense of freedom as well as her first intimations of the writing career she would later pursue Alberto Alvaro Rios however reminds us that learning English in the first grade also meant being punished for using Spanish Spanish was bad Okay We then must be bad kids Still other essays explore what it means to confront the confusions of a plural family heritage or to be a black artist from a Catholic background when so much of black culture is tied to the Protestant tradition Despite the current interest in multiculturalism Kathleen Aguero observes the notion of culture in the United States today is too often synonymous with predominantly white male heterosexual upper class Eurocentric interests In bringing together writers from beyond this tradition Daily Fare provides a valuable perspective on our current moment in history As Jack Agueros summing up both the dilemma and the pleasure of our society's diversity writes It's hard and wasteful to be purely ethnic in America definitely wasteful to be totally assimilated

Consciousness Susan Greenwood,Erik D. Goodwyn,2015-08-20 How does a mind think magically The research documented in this book is one answer that allows the disciplines of anthropology and neurobiology to come together to reveal a largely hidden dynamic of magic Magic gets to the very heart of some theoretical and methodological difficulties encountered in the social and natural sciences especially to do with issues of rationality This book examines magic head on not through its instrumental aspects but as an orientation of consciousness Magical consciousness is affective associative and synchronistic shaped through individual experience within a particular environment This work focuses on an in depth case study using the anthropologist s own experience gained through years of anthropological fieldwork with British practitioners of magic As an ethnographic view it is an intimate study of the way in which the cognitive architecture of a mind engages the emotions and imagination in a pattern of meanings related to childhood experiences spiritual communications and the environment Although the detail of the involvement in magical consciousness presented here is necessarily specific the central tenets of modus operandi is common to magical thought in general and can be applied to cross cultural analyses to increase

alone there are already more than 900 programs that offer therapeutic or educational programming provided in partnership with horses Leif Hallberg has extensively researched the field of Equine Facilitated Mental Health and Educational Services and this book reveals the many ways horses can help humans Become familiar with Key definitions Historical information about working with horses in therapeutic and educational settings Ethical considerations Practical applications Learn more about the healing power of horses and their rich history of working together with humans in Walking the Way of the Horse For additional information about this book and Leif Hallberg visit www.walkingthewayofthehorse.com Red Gold Bridge Patrice Sarath, 2019-10-24 In the heart of the gordath danger is waiting A year ago Lynn Romano and Kate Mossland stumbled through the gordath a portal between our world and the war torn society called Aeritan Now a powerful Aeritan general has crossed through to Earth and his obsession with Kate could tear both worlds apart Homo Luminous Kiara Windrider, 2023-08-19 This book Homo Luminous is a companion to Gaia Luminous While Gaia Luminous provides a road map to understanding and creating the New Earth Homo Luminous is an eminently practical guide for building the energy structures within our bodies to manifest our latent multi dimensional destiny as divine humans There are several sources of insight woven together here We begin with the shamanic traditions which are about learning to see differently and specifically the Q'ero Inka tradition which offers uniquely simple and powerful practices for opening doorways between the worlds There are practices from the Ilahinoor tradition birthed in Turkey designed to open doorways between various structures of the mind and to anchor galactic frequencies of light into the cells of our physical bodies The Advaita traditions of India offer a glimpse into who we are not simply as a philosophy to nourish the mind but also as a way of empowering ourselves as creators of destiny We are both divine and human creator and creation and the distinction between them melts away as we understand these truths Integral Yoga the supramental vision of Sri Aurobindo and the Mother allows us to envision and manifest an entirely new species of humanity no longer bounded by separation and duality but genetically programmed to live in states of cosmic awareness and unity And finally there are insights from neuroscience evolutionary biology astrophysics plasma cosmology and systems theory which provide clues for what collective human evolution might look like
