Forgetfulness Richard Reitsma, 2024-08-15 The Jewish Holocaust orphan Jay s life story is linked to tales of deep hatreds profound love and paralyzing fears The storyteller is Harold He had been Jay s boyhood friend and only discovered late in life that Jay was one of a small number of Dutch Jews who had not been killed by Hitler and his murderous goons The hatred in this story is projected through the character of a Dutch Nazi who first raped Jay s mom and later killed her The love is presented through the story of the three way friendship between Jay s adoptive mom his natural mom and Harold s uncle The paralyzing fears in the story are portrayed through the character of Jay s adoptive dad who even after the war was still too afraid to tell Jay about his birth mom The ongoing drama in this three family story is repeatedly brought to the fore through the actions of Harold s dad who had the bravado of a storm chaser but the attention span of a two year old Jay s story is a parable in the sense that Hitler s henchmen usually but not always used violence and fear as tools to suppress the spirit of love in the Netherlands during WWII and afterwards
