Driving After Class Rachel Heiman, 2015-01-16 A paradoxical situation emerged in the late 1990s the dramatic upscaling of the suburban American dream even as the possibilities for achieving and maintaining it diminished Driving After Class explores middle class anxieties and suburban life during those years Drawing on nineteen months of ethnographic research in a suburban New Jersey town as McMansions sprouted up next to subdivisions of moderately sized colonial style homes and infrastructural essentials like schools and roads became overburdened each chapter throws into relief subtle gradations within the middle class and among middle class sensibilities and brings to life the ways that people were reorienting themselves both consciously and unconsciously to the discursive and material displacement of postwar liberal approaches to middle class life in favor of newly dominant neoliberal logics The ethnographic moments illustrated in the book drawn from fieldwork in people's homes their town hall and their SUVs reveal the ways that efforts to appease feelings of insecurity whether through place making practices childrearing strategies or had to have purchases often made people and their neighbors feel and be less secure The economics and cultural politics of the constellation of these ways of being which I have termed rugged entitlement ended up steering many children youth and parents into ambivalence about the structuring and texture of their everyday lives it is exhausting work to be strategically and persistently driving after class But more often than not unable to imagine the possibility of crafting another way of life most curbed these unsettling doubts and resolutely fueled up for the ride Provided by publisher Teacher in Zimbabwe ,1993 Cry My Beloved Zimbabwe K. Nyamayaro Mufuka, 2002 As always K Nyamayaro Mufuka is a courageous writer In this book he asks the question do the kleptomaniac rulers of post independent Zimbabwe have a conscience Mufuka's merciless pen spares no one He does not spare even his own family Here is Zimbabwe's renowned author at his best This is a damaging satire on the politics of greed in Zimbabwe under the new postcolonial government of Mukuru Mukuru In 1980 when Zimbabwe achieved its independence it was regarded as a jewel in Africa Twenty years later a vicious one party dictatorship under the leadership of Mukuru Mukuru almost destroyed this dream In this collection of short stories the author takes the subject of conscience as his theme His main character Dr Bogozo is an extremely gifted man Bogozo a founding father of the Revolutionary Party is forced to watch as his dream of a prosperous and free Zimbabwe self aborts and turns into a nightmare His conscience troubles him as he is torn between his political party loyalty and his beloved country K Nyamayaro Mufuka is a gifted storyteller His characters come alive while the readers experience flashes of pain and sorrow A Zimbabwean reviewer once said this is not fiction We can figure out the people whom he is talking about Therefore readers are left with the feeling that the events narrated in these pages are not fictional

The Church at War Kilton Moyo,2014-03 The Church at War is an interesting book that seeks to inspire believers into practical works that can transform communities In this book the author is calling the Body of Christ back to its fighting faith and calling in order to manifest the love and the kingdom of God in the communities that are afflicted by so many issues The church seems to have gone to sleep and to be sidetracked by other doctrines that could be a deception and a way of making the whole church lukewarm and not effective The book reminds the church that the gospel of Jesus Christ is confrontational in its nature and focuses and requires a church that has a great appetite to engage therefore Kilton calls on the church to put on a warrior attitude and resist the schemes of the devil imposed on the communities in the nations
