

Log Prompts, Continued

Things Fall Apart* Log Prompts

Chapter(s) of Text	After You Read, Complete a Log in Your Journal in Response to the Following Prompt:
Chapters 1 & 2	To you, what makes a man “successful”? Give an example of a man you know or have heard of that you would consider a successful man, and explain what makes him a success. On the second page of the novel, we learn that the main character, Okonkwo, has “no patience with unsuccessful men” (4). Judging from these first two chapters, what does “success” mean for a man in Okonkwo’s culture? In other words, what are men in this culture expected to do (or be) in order to be considered successful? In your response, include at least one quote from the chapters that supports your ideas. What similarities and differences do you see between your own idea of a successful man and Okonkwo’s idea of a successful man?
Chapters 3 & 4	A proverb is a short, popular saying that expresses some sort of truth or belief; proverbs are often based on common sense. Examples of proverbs found in Mt. Si’s household growing up were “Honesty is the best policy” and “Practice makes perfect.” Find at least two examples of proverbs from chapters 3 and 4 of Things Fall Apart and write them down. Explain the meaning and significance of each proverb you choose (what is it saying about life? What does it suggest about what is valued in this culture?)
Chapters 5 & 6	Write down 5 to 7 interesting, meaningful questions for your discussion group that are based on chapters 5 & 6 (you may also include questions relating to earlier chapters). Make sure your questions are open-ended (meaning that they invite long responses, not yes-or-no answers), and make them interesting! Remember, this is your discussion, so it’s up to you to create questions that will get your group involved and engaged in analyzing the text. (An example of an engaging question from these chapters would be: Describe your reaction to Okonkwo’s beating of his second wife, Ekwefi (p. 38). If you were one of Okonkwo’s other wives, watching, do you think you would have suffered? Why or why not?)
Chapters 7 & 8	Pretend that you are Nwoye the night you find out what Okonkwo has done to Ikemefuna. Write a diary entry about what has happened from Nwoye’s perspective: How do you feel? What questions do you have about what happened? Does Ikemefuna’s death change the way you feel toward your father, or only confirms how you already felt? What other concerns do you have about your life or about your culture? Explain. Try to use what you know about Nwoye to help you decide what to write and how to say it.
