Third Sex Third Gender Beyond Sexual Dimorphism In Culture And History:

Third Sex, Third Gender Gilbert Herdt, 2020-10-27 Most modern discussions of the relationship of biological sex to gender presuppose that there are two genders male and female founded on the two biological sexes But not all cultures share this essentialist assumption and even Western societies have not always embraced it Bringing together historical and anthropological studies Third Sex Third Gender challenges the usual emphasis on sexual dimorphism and reproduction providing a unique perspective on the various forms of socialization of people who are neither male nor female The existence of a third sex or gender enables us to understand how Byzantine palace eunuchs and Indian hijras met the criteria of special social roles that necessitated practices such as self castration and how intimate and forbidden desires were expressed among the Dutch Sodomites in the early modern period the Sapphists of eighteenth century England or the so called hermaphrodite homosexuals of nineteenth century Europe and America By contextualizing these practices and by allowing these bodies meanings and desires to emerge Third Sex Third Gender provides a new way to think about sex and gender systems that is crucial to contemporary debates within the social sciences THIRD SEX, THIRD GENDER. GILBERT. HERDT, 2000

DeFranza, 2015-05-08 Charts a faithful theological middle course through complex sexual issues How different are men and women When does it matter to us or to God Are male and female the only two options In Sex Difference in Christian Theology Megan DeFranza explores such questions in light of the Bible theology and science Many Christians entrenched in culture wars over sexual ethics are either ignorant of the existence of intersex persons or avoid the inherent challenge they bring to the assumption that everybody is born after the pattern of either Adam or Eve DeFranza argues from a conservative theological standpoint that all people are made in the image of God
