This Incomplete One Words Occasioned By The Death Of A Young Person:

This Incomplete One Michael D. Bush,2006-05-03 A collection of sermons in which preachers deal with the deaths of children and young adults this volume includes the words of Craig Barnes Karl Barth David L Bartlett Ronald P Byars John Claypool William Sloan Coffin Stephen T Davis J Howard Edington Jonathan Edwards Laura Mendenhall and more Ministry and Pastoral Resources A Liturgy of Grief Leslie C. Allen,2011-09-01 In Lamentations we read of the unbearable grief experienced by a group of believers Leslie Allen suggests the book can be read as the script of a liturgy performed to help the people of God come to terms with the fall of Jerusalem and the national catastrophe it entailed It reveals God s sometimes hidden support for those who grieve and for their caregivers In this unique commentary on Lamentations respected Old Testament scholar and volunteer hospital chaplain Leslie Allen appropriates this oft neglected book of the Bible to deal with a universal issue Incorporating stories of pastoral encounters with hospital patients Allen integrates Scripture and pastoral care to present a biblical model for helping those coping with grief The book includes a foreword by Nicholas Wolterstorff author of Lament for a Son Jesus Wept: The Significance of Jesus' Laments in the New Testament Rebekah Eklund,2015-02-26 Lament does not seem to be a pervasive feature of the New Testament particularly when viewed in relation to the Old Testament A careful investigation of the New Testament however reveals that it thoroughly incorporates the pattern of Old Testament lament into its proclamation of the gospel especially in the person of Jesus Christ as he both prays and embodies lament As an act that fundamentally calls upon God to be faithful to God s promises to Israel and to the church lament in the New Testament becomes a prayer of longing for God s kingdom which has been inaugurated in the ministry and resurrection of Jesus fully to come With Joyful Acceptance, Maybe Molly Field James,2013-02-06 In a world where advertisements lead us to hope for a life free from suffering facing the reality of suffering can be a particular challenge Yet the reality of suffering is one that we all face in the course of our lives While Christianity often has the reputation of a tradition that promotes the idea that all suffering is good for you and makes you a better person there is in fact much more variety and nuance to the tradition While there are those who advocate a wholesale acceptance there are others who question the source of suffering and call for it to be fought against This book delves into the world of five theologians Gregory the Great Julian of Norwich Jeremy Taylor C S Lewis and Ivone Gebara to understand their perspectives and draw on their approaches as a way of understanding what Christian responses to suffering look like This book constructs a contemporary theology that affirms the importance of the call to combat unjust suffering through acts of love and mercy while also affirming that acceptance of the reality of endemic suffering found in all five theologians can provide us with opportunities to grow spiritually live more faithfully and to experience the blessings in the midst of suffering that are a foretaste of heavenly bliss Finding a Sacred Oasis in Grief Steven Jeffers,Harold Ivan Smith,2018-10-08 This work includes a foreword by John D Morgan Professor Emeritus of Philosophy Coordinator for Kings College Center for Education about Death and Bereavement Ontario Canada This practical resource guides the reader through all aspects of the grieving process and offers thought provoking and inspirational advice on support With exercises tips and contacts for further assistance Finding a Sacred Oasis in Grief provides a comprehensive understanding of this potentially difficult and complex topic It examines different types of grief and various approaches along with reference guides to particular religions and their traditions adopting a comprehensive multi faith approach Pastoral care providers and religious leaders will find the unique hands on approach invaluable as will members of support organisations and volunteer carers It is also ideal for seminary and ministry students counsellors therapists and other care professionals Gives caregivers the tools to help dying and grieving persons face the best and worst that life has to offer It is the worst because death means the end of the attachments that make life worthwhile It is the best because it shows us what is truly meaningful and important in life Mortality is a great gift if we have the knowledge and the courtesy to face it John D Morgan in the Foreword

Walk in Light and Love Donald L. Alexander, 2011-11 John's First Epistle focuses on believers living in a time of serious challenge to their faith A central theme resides in the admonition for believers to realize the significance of harmonizing their beliefs with their conduct Hence the title of the book Walk in Light and Love When united together belief and lifestyle present powerful witness to the truth of the gospel that is not present in a single side The point is that theological beliefs become compelling when expressed in loving ways especially to those who may radically disagree with us Thus the admonition Walk in light and love There is no rift between the enkindled heart and the enlightened mind Light without love can be as forbiddingly cold as an iceberg in moonlight Love without light on the other hand can be as flamingly destructive as a forest fire in the dry season Love as unregulated impulse is dangerous Love giving itself to hard thinking and sensitive discrimination is a delight to God and a priceless benediction to the Church and society Paul S Rees

How Odd of God William H. Willimon, 2015-10-09 Election is a strange word when used in theology It brings to mind old debates about what God might or might not have done before the foundation of the world But viewed apart from that historical baggage the word election is about a central gospel idea that in Jesus not only does God choose to be God for us but chooses us to be for God The calling of the disciples in the gospels is a story of election of how God chooses to transform the world by choosing us to be messengers and agents of that transformation So it is says William Willimon that election becomes not just the content of our preaching but the means as well God chooses preachers How unlikely how odd is it that God should entrust the proclamation of the gospel to well us This unpredictable electing God reaches out to save the world and then leaves it in the hands of preachers to get the word out Through us through our stammering tongues and faltering hearts the preached word becomes the Word of God If you wonder why you drag yourself into the pulpit every Sunday if you worry that your sermons aren't reaching past the front pew then read this book and be encouraged God chooses God chooses preachers God chooses you

The Power of One Anette Ejsing, 2011-01-01 We do not like to talk about loneliness We like even less to talk about the fact that the experience that faith does not automatically heal it This is a problem but what if it does not have to be that way What if we can tap into loneliness as a source of personal empowerment In The Power of One Anette Ejsing makes exactly this case Relying on personal stories she first shows why romantic spiritual and social loneliness are particularly difficult to understand in the context of Christian faith She then reflects theologically on these three kinds of loneliness and describes it as a mystery that faith both does and does not heal them In response to this mystery she suggests thinking about loneliness as a privilege Arguing from the perspective of a theology of suffering she encourages each of us to tell our stories of loneliness from the perspective of the end God has in mind for us This means accepting and embracing loneliness as a means through which God raises us up and strengthens us to persevere in joy and faith Learning to do this is a privilege that gives us the opportunity to experience loneliness as a source of personal empowerment Darkness Is My Only Companion Kathryn

Greene-McCreight,2015-07-14 Where is God in the suffering of a mentally ill person What happens to the soul when the mind is ill How are Christians to respond to mental illness In this brave and compassionate book theologian and priest Kathryn Greene McCreight confronts these difficult questions raised by her own mental illness bipolar disorder With brutal honesty she tackles often avoided topics such as suicide mental hospitals and electroconvulsive therapy Greene McCreight offers the reader everything from poignant and raw glimpses into the mind of a mentally ill person to practical and forthright advice for their friends family and clergy The first edition has been recognized as one of the finest books on the subject This thoroughly revised edition incorporates updated research and adds anecdotal and pastoral commentary It also includes a new afterword by the author refreshed resources and questions for group discussion The Goodness of Judgment Jeff

McSwain,2024-11-12 In this volume McSwain continues to deploy Karl Barth Julian of Norwich Athanasius James Cone and dozens of others to buttress his claim about human duplicity and the Easter asymmetry which allows us to properly interpret our lives by the gospel Specifically the focus is on Christ s cross which provides the radical discontinuity judgment needed to preserve the continuity of God s good creation In resurrection light we see the inner connection of re creation to creation an atonement that disentangles good from evil righteousness from sin and life from death Even though the perfect clarity of this liberating separation is reserved for judgment day this same judgment of grace frees us to live now as eschatological activists in the Liberator s way of justice and peace In view of the cross the Spirit empowers us to live in the hidden truth of who Christ is and who we have always been in Christ as God s beloved in the Trinitarian communion McSwain s cosmic vision pictures all people sharing in Christ s sufferings and also in his glory Thus the reconciled human community genuinely participates as one in Christ s victory over sin death and the devil Suicide and the God of Grace Mark

Koonz,2025-08-19 Suicide is a painfully intrusive reality around the world touching many Christian families as well These theological reflections are designed to assist pastors facing one of the hardest funerals imaginable as well as inform other readers family and spiritual care givers who live in the aftermath of tragedy Biblical passages and the history of Christian thought are scanned with some surprising results There is a persistent openness to God's grace embracing death by suicide redeeming the last moment of life From Aquinas to Luther to Barth influential theologians refused to call suicide an unforgivable sin though they always discouraged it There is a surprising congruence between ancient and modern Protestant and Roman Catholic in some of these approaches Without attempting to speak God's final word on any victim of suicide the editor finds a middle way between outright condemnation and universalism Contributors offer actual sermons used for suicide funerals This book invites all who wrestle with suicide's spiritual questions to engage with a tradition more compassionate and nuanced than many might expect

Birth (Pastoring for Life: Theological Wisdom for Ministering Well) James C. Howell, 2020-04-21 This volume explores the connections between our own birth the experience of having children and the new birth of the Christian life Seasoned pastor James Howell offers theological perspectives on a variety of themes associated with birth such as who we are in light of having once lived in utero why people might have children infertility adoption baptism and how to make sense of it all in light of God coming to us first in Mary's womb and then as an infant The book includes paintings photos and drawings About the Series Pastors are called to help people navigate the profound mysteries of being human from birth to death and everything in between This series edited by leading pastoral theologian Jason Byassee provides pastors and pastors in training with rich theological reflection on the various seasons that make up a human life helping them minister with greater wisdom and joy

Unspeakable Sarah Travis, 2021-06-09 Unspeakable probes the relationship between trauma theory and Christian theology in order to support preachers in the task of crafting sermons that adequately respond to trauma in the pews and the world at large How might sermons contribute to resiliency and the repairing of wounds caused by traumatic experiences This book seeks to provide a theological lens for preachers who wonder how their beautiful words can address suffering amid traumatic wounding Preaching is a healing discourse that proclaims gospel or good news Gospel is a complicated reality especially in the face of trauma Drawing on various theologies and insights from trauma theory Unspeakable challenges the notion of a triumphant gospel seeking an in between perspective that honors both resurrection and the trauma that remains despite our desire to get to the good news It builds on images of the preacher as witness and midwife in order to develop homiletical practices that acknowledge the limitations of language and imagination experienced by traumatized individuals

What Shall We Say? Thomas G. Long, 2014-03-11 Tsunamis earthquakes famines diseases wars these and other devastating forces lead Christians to ask painful questions Is God all powerful Is God good How can God allow so much innocent human suffering These questions taken together have been called the theodicy problem and in this book Thomas Long explores what preachers can and should say in response he offers biblically based approaches to preaching on theodicy guided by Jesus' parable of the wheat and the tares and the greatest theodicy text in Scripture The book of Job from book jacket

Blessed Endurance John R. Wimmer,2018-01-01 Where is God when we are hurting or in despair How can we find hope even when we feel hopeless Pain struggle and despair are part of life and they test our character as God s people John Wimmer approaches these challenges to our faith realistically and thoughtfully He does not offer easy answers or platitudes like Everything happens for a reason We can t always understand or control many things that happen to us but we can choose how we respond to our circumstances Wimmer encourages us to view times of difficulty as opportunities for spiritual and personal growth Rather than diminishing our faith pain and despair can lead us to greater trust in God To endure through such times is a blessing This inspiring book offers practical help for moving from pain and despair to hope Wimmer reminds us that with hope we also have faith not the false belief that our lives will be pain free but the assurance that God will be with us through our most challenging times and lead us to deeper levels of spiritual growth and wisdom
