Meikle, 2016-01-20 This illustrated history of the colorized linen postcards of the 1930s and 40s is an incredible tour A veritable treasure trove of American culture Crave Online From the Great Depression through the early postwar years any postcard sent in America was more than likely a linen card Colorized in vivid often exaggerated hues and printed on card stock embossed with a linen like texture linen postcards celebrated the American scene with views of majestic landscapes modern cityscapes roadside attractions and other notable features These colorful images portrayed the United States as shimmering with promise quite unlike the black and white worlds of documentary photography or Life magazine Linen postcards were enormously popular with close to a billion printed and sold Postcard America offers the first comprehensive study of these cards and their cultural significance Drawing on the production files of Curt Teich Co of Chicago the originator of linen postcards Jeffrey L Meikle reveals how photographic views were transformed into colorized postcard images often by means of manipulation adding and deleting details or collaging bits and pieces from several photos He presents two extensive portfolios of postcards landscapes and cityscapes that comprise a representative iconography of linen postcard views For each image Meikle explains the postcard s subject describes aspects of its production and places it in social and cultural contexts In the concluding chapter he shifts from historical interpretation to a contemporary viewpoint considering nostalgia as a motive for collectors and others who are fascinated today by these striking images

The photobook world Paul Ernest Michael Edwards,2023-02-28 This volume sets out to challenge and ultimately broaden the category of the photobook It critiques the popular art market definition of the photobook as simply a photographer s book proposing instead to show how books and photos come together as collective cultural productions Focusing on North American British and French photobooks from 1920 to the present the chapters revisit canonical works by Claudia Andujar and George Love Mohamed Bourouissa Walker Evans Susan Meiselas and Roland Penrose while also delving into institutional digital and unrealised projects illegal practices DIY communities and the poetic impulse They throw new light on the way that gendered racial or colonial assumptions are resisted Taken as a whole the volume provides a better understanding of how the meaning of a photobook is collectively produced both inside and outside the art market
