The Road to Ethereal Gary Wayne, 2019-03-29 The journey has been exciting challenging and fun All the things we have at home we are doing without in this world No phones computers cars or even fast food places and for some reason we really don't miss those things I guess when you step back in time your feet tend to take the path of those around you So if no one is using a phone you don't miss it If others are not eating greasy overcooked hamburgers you don't yearn for those either Well just a moment now that I am thinking about it maybe a good old greasy burger with tomatoes onions and cheese would taste pretty good with a large order of fries and fry sauce I bet when I get home one of the first things I will do is go to downtown Walla Walla and find a fast food joint We have traveled a reasonable distance and have found our time in this world is entirely different than our world What seems like weeks over here in this world are only a few hours back home The three of us and our pets all seem to be gaining more strength and power And we can't forget about Vanessa and her sisters as they are also increasing their strengths and capabilities I keep wondering why as Vanessa if her sisters and parents are from this world or are they We have done some amazing things in the time we have been in Impereality but I get the feeling we are in for more attention grabbing times and exciting activities in this world As we all climb into the back of our wagon we know we have a good week of travel ahead of us We don't know what's out there in front of us However we do know we are here for an extraordinary purpose and that is to fulfill a prophecy that is centuries old We have powers and strengths that can protect and help those in this world So as we travel to the southern region to look for what is unknown I hope you can imagine all the things we see and do I hope you enjoy the ride
