Steps for Effective Writing Catherine I. Williams, 2008-06-01 The Link between Effective Writing and Vocation A vocation is a calling It is profound it is exciting and it is dynamic It gives freedom and it is fun Dr Williams as an educator shows her freedom She is not a slave to a book or to a syllabus She is disciplined organized and free to truly teach Has there been a time when you would sit down to write a letter and you felt discouraged You just couldn't express yourself Did you need to write a report or a memo and find yourself erasing it scratching things out or hitting the delete button over and over Many of us suffer this writing dilemma because we have had a bad education schools were not up to par Supervisors may have been too critical busy and demanding or burdened by their own responsibilities and lack of encouragement which lead to our own writing hesitancy fear and even skittishness Then there's another story I'm too busy There is denial of writing competence and resistance to change In this new book Steps for Effective Writing Dr Catherine Williams encourages you to write effectively She helps you to get your ideas from head to paper She believes that life is a series of steps and in Steps for Effective Writing you will learn how to write clearly concisely and correctly Your writings will be coherent and complete You will learn what mapping does and how outlining shapes your written work There are other valuable tips tricks and tools in this book The thing that I like about Steps for Effective Writing is that it inspires you to believe in yourself and in your work This is because Dr Cathy as she is affectionately called is a child of the King and her book is a mandated product of her relationship with Him Therefore her life as a vocation is dynamic exciting passionate and disciplined She and her students have fun while learning and you too will experience Steps for Effective Writing in a similar way While doing so you will become an effective writer in this teachable moment Raymond Kammerer Her student instructors and workbooks make basic assumptions about writing that you need to have a good grasp of grammar to read widely and to write objectively before you can tell a story. These assumptions are wrong. They invoke fear in would-be writers who are afraid of being judged and criticized for what they say and how they say it. Bernard Selling, author of Writing from Within and a writing instructor for over 30 years, helps people get over their initial fear of writing with this new Writing from Within Workbook. By writing personal stories, people can usually get past their misconceptions about how someone should write and learn how to write in a way that feels natural and comfortable to them. His comprehensive Workbook takes people through the writing process step by step, including lessons on how to add narrative, inner thoughts and feelings, dialogue, character sketches, and climaxes. Once people are familiar with the basics of writing, they can extend their writing skills into other genres without fear. Selling introduces steps that allow readers to broaden their writing into screenplays, essays, fiction, and journals. He explains that the fundamentals of writing are the same despite the different forms. With the ease and skill of an experienced writing teacher, he helps writers transform their work into whichever form they desire. Draft samples will show writers how their stories will grow using the Writing from Within method. He comments on each draft, thus demonstrating how to evaluate a piece of writing. These personal notes also help keep readers on track and their goals in perspective. Selling also includes a full chapter of excerpts from past students' stories to show the potential of his method. The completion of this workbook will build a love of writing and self-expression in students, create an understanding of what makes a story effective, enable students to apply the principles of storytelling to writing analytical essays, usher students into the world of the examined life. All of the techniques that Selling presents are just as relevant to the non-fiction writer as to the fiction writer, and all writers, new and old, will write with more skill. Beyond that, storytelling skills can lead students in two important directions: awareness of the self in their own stories, character, and awareness of relationships between and among other people. Writers will understand themselves and their characters better; they will find their voices, and Selling will help them along the way to doing so.

Writing from Within Workbook Bernard Selling, 2013 Many writing
