ministry to accomplish His work in His Church; Theophostic Prayer Ministry is but one of many. However, I am saying that apart from the Spirit of Christ accomplishing His experiential work in me, no effort, work, or discipline on my part will ever accomplish the renewing and spiritual maturing that God intends. Christian growth and maturity is not a “you and me, God” endeavor but my being submitted to a “work of God in me.” Spiritual performance is not spiritual maturity.

Theophostic Prayer Ministry is simply a systematized model or avenue by which we can move to a place where God can accomplish what only He can accomplish. We must never lose sight of the reality that “it is God who is at work in you, both to will and to work for His good pleasure” (Phil. 2:13).

Pursuing Peace Fernando Garzon, 2008-04. Thousands of Christians all over the world are reporting transformational experiences through Theophostic Prayer Ministry. Their testimonies are powerful yet controversy remains for some. Skeptics say testimonials are limited and empirical proof is needed. This gives rise for quality research. The case studies in this book provide a good start and help to determine if more costly and rigorous studies are merited. This book is written without a lot of scientific jargon to appeal to both professional and lay person alike. The researchers tell the stories of some of the clients in the study along with providing charts, graphs, and detailed reports from their test findings. Finally, a summary of all the results from the sixteen clients that completed this study is closely examined. The positive outcomes represent a first small step in evaluating Theophostic Prayer. Even though more research studies need to be completed, the findings from this study are very encouraging. They provide a clear idea of the type of studies that need to follow this case study work in order to more fully assess this approach. In the final chapter, Ed Smith, the founder of Theophostic Prayer, answers many frequently asked questions about Theophostic Prayer. Dr. Fernando Garzon is an Associate Professor in the Center for Counseling and Family Studies at Liberty University. He has a Psy.D. in Clinical Psychology from Fuller Theological Seminary and a B.A. in Biology from Wake Forest University. His interest areas include spiritual interventions in psychotherapy and Christian counselor education. Liberty University does not officially endorse Theophostic Prayer Ministry but rather supports the theological and scientific examination of this and other Christian intervention strategies.

Mysticism HC Kurt Jurgensmeier,2012-08-22 Does God speak to us apart from Scripture The belief that God provides us with extra biblical revelation for extra biblical decision making what we term as mega mysticism is incredibly popular Hence there are a multitude of books explaining how to hear from God Once again we go to Scripture to answer vital questions regarding how God communicates with us today and come to the following conclusions The idea that God grants extra biblical amoral revelation directly to our minds is not supported in Scripture God does not have a private personal will for our lives that we must discern outside of Scripture The translation of paraklete in the Gospel of John as Counselor is incorrect The wisdom we are to ask for in James 1 is entirely moral in nature as described in James 3 It does not include answers to all the questions that mega mystics claim God wants to answer Mega mysticism is leading many Christians astray in dangerous ways American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Dissertation Abstracts International ,2008 The Theophostic Prayer Ministry (TPM) Jacobus Jooste Crous,2009 Theophostic Prayer Ministry Edward M.
