Teaching and Researching Speaking Rebecca Hughes, Beatrice Szczepek Reed, 2016-12-19 Teaching and Researching

Speaking provides an overview of the main approaches to researching spoken language and their practical application to teaching classroom materials and assessment. The history and current practices of teaching and researching speaking are presented through the lens of bigger theoretical issues about the object of study in linguistics, social attitudes to the spoken form and the relationships between spoken and written language. A unique feature of the book is the way it clearly explains the nature of speaking and how it is researched and puts it into the context of a readable and holistic overview of language theory. This new edition is fully updated and revised to reflect the latest developments on classroom materials and oral assessment as well as innovations in conversation analysis. The resources section is brought up to date with new media and currently available networks, online corpora and mobile applications. This is a key resource for applied linguistics students, English language teachers, teacher trainers and novice researchers.

Conversation Analytic Language Teacher

Education in Digital Spaces Ufuk Balaman, 2023-01-30. This book presents original research on language teacher education (LTE) activities in digital spaces, making use of a multimodal Conversation Analysis (CA) approach to examine multiple datasets and bring new insights into the theory, research and practice of second foreign language teacher education. The author conceptualizes a model of Conversation Analytic Language Teacher Education (CALTE) proposing a new knowledge base for LTE, identifying research-informed defining features, mapping the scope of an original praxis base and providing research evidence from the implementation of this approach in and for digital spaces. The result is an argument for wide implementation and on-going improvement of the CALTE approach, and the book will be of interest to language teacher education professionals, multimodal CA researchers and applied linguists.

Perspectives on Language as Action

Mari Haneda, Hossein Nassaji, 2019-02-22. This edited volume has been compiled in honour of Professor Merrill Swain, one of the most prominent scholars in the field of second language acquisition (SLA) and second language (L2) education. For over four decades, her work has contributed substantially to the knowledge base of the field of applied linguistics, and her ideas have had a significant influence in a range of subfields, including immersion education, mainstream SLA and sociocultural theory and SLA. The range of topics covered in the book reflects the breadth and depth of Swain's contributions, expertise and interests. The volume is divided into four parts: immersion education, languaging, sociocultural perspectives on L2 teaching and learning, and developments in language as social action.
