Girlfriends, Ghosts, and Other Stories Robert Walser, 2016-09-13 Girlfriends Ghosts and Other Stories brings together eighty-one brief texts spanning Robert Walser's career from pieces conceived amid his early triumphs to later works written at a psychiatric clinic in Bern Many were published in the feuilleton sections of newspapers during Walser's life others were jotted down on slips of paper and all but forgotten They are strung together like consciousness idiosyncratic and vulnerable genuine in their irony wistful in their humor Some dwell on childish or transient topics carousels the latest hairstyles an ekphrasis of the illustrations in a picture book others on the grand themes of nature art and love But they remain conversational almost lighter than air Every emotion ventured takes on the weight of a sincerity that is imperiled as soon as it comes into contact with the outside world which retains all of the novelty it had in childhood and all of the danger

Ghosts Edith Wharton, 2021-10-26 An elegantly hair raising collection of Edith Wharton's ghost stories selected and with a preface written by the author herself No history of the American uncanny tale would be complete without mention of Edith Wharton yet many of Wharton's most dedicated admirers are unaware that she was a master of the form In fact one of Wharton's final literary acts was assembling Ghosts a personal selection of her most chilling stories written between 1902 and 1937 In The Lady's Maid's Bell the earliest tale included here a servant's dedication to her mistress continues from beyond the grave and in All Souls the last story Wharton wrote an elderly woman treads the permeable line between life and the hereafter In all her writing Wharton's great gift was to mercilessly illuminate the motives of men and women and her ghost stories never stray far from the preoccupations of the living using the supernatural to investigate such worldly matters as violence within marriage the horrors of aging the rot at the root of new fortunes the darkness that stares back from the abyss of one's own soul These are stories to send a cold shiver down one's spine not to terrify and as Wharton explains in her preface her goal in writing them was to counter the hard grind of modern speeding up by preserving that ineffable space of silence and continuity which is not merely the prerogative of humanity but in the fun of the shudder its delight Contents All Souls The Eyes Afterward The Lady's Maid's Bell Kerfol The Triumph of Night Miss Mary Pask Bewitched Mr Jones

Pomegranate Seed A Bottle of Perrier The Glory of the Empire Jean D'Ormesson, 2016-05-03 The Glory of the Empire is the rich and absorbing history of an extraordinary empire at one point a rival to Rome Rulers such as Basil the Great of Onessa who founded the Empire but whose treacherous ways made him a byword for infamy and the romantic Alexis the bastard who dallied in the fleshpots of Egypt studied Taoism and Buddhism returned to save the Empire from civil war and then retired to learn to die come alive in The Glory of the Empire along with generals politicians prophets scoundrels and others Jean d Ormesson also goes into the daily life of the Empire its popular customs and its contribution to the arts and the sciences which as he demonstrates exercised an influence on the world as a whole from the East to the West and whose repercussions are still felt today But it is all fiction a thought experiment worthy of Jorge Luis Borges and in the end The Glory of the Empire emerges as a great shimmering mirage filling us with wonder even as it makes us wonder at the fugitive nature of power and the meaning of history itself

Margery Kempe Robert Gluck, 2020-03-10 Lust religious zeal and heartache come together in this provocative novel about two infatuations one between a man and his young lover in the late 20th century and another between a 15th century maiden and Jesus Christ First published in 1994 Robert Gluck's Margery Kempe is one of the most provocative poignant and inventive American novels of the last quarter century The book tells two stories of romantic obsession One based on the first autobiography in English the medieval Book of Margery Kempe is about a fifteenth century woman from East Anglia a visionary a troublemaker a pilgrim to the Holy Land and an aspiring saint and her love affair with Jesus It is complicated The other is about the author's own love for an alluring and elusive young American L It is complicated Between these two Margery Kempe the novel emerges as an unprecedented exploration of desire devotion abjection and sexual obsession in the form of a novel like no other novel Robert Gluck's masterpiece bears comparison with the finest work of such writers as Kathy Acker and Chris Kraus This edition includes an essay by Gluck about the creation of the book titled My Margery Margery's Bob Other Worlds Teffi, 2021-04-20 Stories about the occult folk religions superstition and spiritual customs in Russia by one of the most essential twentieth century writers of short fiction and essays Though best known for her comic and satirical sketches of pre Revolutionary Russia Teffi was a writer of great range and human sympathy The stories on otherworldly themes in this collection are some of her finest and most profound displaying the acute psychological sensitivity beneath her characteristic wit and surface brilliance Other Worlds presents stories from across the whole of Teffi's long career from her early days as a literary celebrity in Moscow to her post Revolutionary years as an migrant in Paris In the early story A Quiet Backwater a laundress gives a long disquisition on the name days of the flora and fauna and on the Feast of the Holy Ghost a day on which no one dares disturb the earth The story Wild Evening is about the fear of the unknown The Kind That Walk a penetrating study of antisemitism and of xenophobia and Baba Yaga about the archetypal Russian witch and her longing for wildness and freedom Teffi traces the persistent influence of the ancient Slavic gods in superstitions and customs and the deep connection of the supernatural to everyday life in the provinces In Volya the autobiographical final story the power and pain of Baba Yaga is Teffi's own

The Fire Within Pierre Drieu La Rochelle, 2023-12-05 Adapted to film by both Louis Malle and Joachim Trier this heart rending and tenderly wrought novel narrates the decline of an artist and heroin addict in 1920s Paris Pierre Drieu la Rochelle might be said to be both the Hemingway and the Fitzgerald of twentieth century French literature a battle scarred veteran of the First World War whose work chronicles the trials and tribulations of a lost generation a man about town a heartbreaker with a broken heart a literary stylist whose work is as tough as it is lyrical and polished Politically compromised as Drieu came to be by his affiliation with the fascist right and collaboration under Nazi occupation Drieu committed suicide at the end of the war his novels remain vivid reflections of a broken spiritual and political world of the interwar years and as works of art and to this day they are widely read and greatly admired in France The Fire Within which has been successfully adapted to the screen by Louis Malle and more recently Joachim Trier is the lacerating tale of Alain Leroy a war veteran and beautiful young man of whom the world is expected but who has taken refuge from the world in drugs After being institutionalized Alain emerges to try to put his life together again but in spite of the attentions of friends and lovers he struggles to find his way Nada Jean-Patrick Manchette, 2019-08-27 This tour de force political thriller told in Manchette's signature noir style follows a group of far left extremists in the throes of post 1968 disillusionment The thrill of 1968 is long over and the heavy fog of the 1970s has settled in In Paris however the Nada gang or groupuscule still retains a militant attachment to its revolutionary dreams Bringing together an anarchist orphaned by the Spanish Civil War a Communist veteran of the French resistance a frustrated high school teacher of philosophy a timid office worker a terminal alcoholic and one uncompromising young woman with a house in the country Nada sets out to kidnap the American ambassador and issue a call to arms What could possibly go wrong
