The Zuma Years South Africa's Changing Face Of Power:

The Zuma Years Richard Calland, 2013-08-16 The face of power in South Africa is rapidly changing for better and for worse The years since Thabo Mbeki was swept aside by Jacob Zuma's coalition of the wounded have been especially tumultuous with the rise and fall of populist politicians such as Julius Malema the terrible events at Marikana and the embarrassing GuptaGate scandal What lies behind these developments How does the Zuma presidency exercise its power Who makes our foreign policy What goes on in cabinet meetings What is the state of play in the Alliance is the SACP really more powerful than before And as the landscape shifts what are the opposition's prospects In The Zuma Years Richard Calland attempts to answer these questions and more by holding up a mirror to the new establishment by exploring how people such as Malema Chief Justice Mogoeng Mogoeng and DA parliamentary leader Lindiwe Mazibuko have risen so fast by examining key drivers of transformation in South Africa such as the professions and the universities and by training a spotlight on the toxic mix of money and politics The Zuma Years is a fly on the wall insider's approach to the people who control the power that affects us all It takes you along the corridors of government and corporate power mixing solid research with vivid anecdote and interviews with key players The result is an accessible yet authoritative account of who runs South Africa and how today

The Zuma Years Richard Calland, 2013 An insightful and entertaining analysis of the changing face of political power in Jacob Zuma's South Africa An accessible yet authoritative account of who runs South Africa and how today

The South African State Transformed? Louis A. Picard, Thomas M. Mogale, Caitlin C. Corrigan, 2024-09-10 This book examines the nature of the 1994 political transition in South Africa and its impact on post-apartheid South Africa Specifically it examines the failures of liberalism within the context of the transitional process that led to the institution if not the practice of a non-racial state in 1994 The term liberal is an eclectic term defining a several of views political and economic We use the term here within context but essentially define it as a commitment to open views the willingness to consider change and to value basic human rights The nature of institutional change in South Africa as it moved towards a democratic state would influence whether South Africa would succeed as a newly industrializing pluralist democratic country or collapse into yet another African failed state As South Africa moves toward its fourth decade of majority rule the view towards the future is much less promising than it was in 1994

The African Renaissance and the Afro-Arab Spring Charles Villa-Vicencio, Erik Doxtader, Ebrahim Moosa, 2015-04-22 The African Renaissance and the Afro-Arab Spring addresses the often unspoken connection between the powerful call for a political cultural renaissance that emerged with the end of South African apartheid and the popular revolts of 2011 that dramatically remade the landscape in Egypt Libya and Tunisia Looking between southern and northern Africa the transcontinental line from Cape to Cairo that for so long supported colonialism its chapters explore the deep roots of these two decisive events and demonstrate how they are linked by shared opposition to legacies of political economic and cultural subjugation As they work from African Islamic and

Western perspectives the book's contributors shed important light on a continent's difficult history and undertake a critical conversation about whether and how the desire for radical change holds the possibility of a new beginning for Africa a beginning that may well reshape the contours of global affairs

Constitutional Change and Constitutionalism in Africa, 2025-05-16 The new generation of African constitutions crafted in the 1990s marked the beginning of a trend that promised a radical transformation of the continent's governance landscape This movement aimed to eliminate the risks of coups and political instability that had plagued Africa since the 1960s by embedding democracy and constitutionalism However the wave of constitutional reforms post 1990s seems to have sparked a contagious fever of making unmaking and remaking constitutions The nature and frequency of these changes threaten to undermine the progress made in entrenching a culture of constitutionalism good governance and respect for the rule of law It is therefore no surprise that there is almost universal agreement that Africa is now facing a profound crisis of democracy and constitutionalism

Constitutional Change and Constitutionalism in Africa examines the nature and extent of these changes which have been occurring more frequently and sometimes more arbitrarily than anticipated Among the main questions investigated are the constitution making process and the roles of various internal actors such as the legislature executive and judiciary as well as external actors like the African Union and Regional Economic Communities in the different processes of constitutional change Ultimately the discussions aim to explore how the processes of constitutional change whether inevitable and unavoidable or contrived can be conducted in a manner that does not undermine or threaten the efforts to entrench democracy constitutionalism good governance and respect for the rule of law on the African continent

Right to Development and Illicit Financial Flows from Africa Serges Djoyou Kamga, Gerard Emmanuel Kamdem Kamga, Arnold Kwesiga, 2024-02-15 Gerard Emmanuel Kamdem Kamga Serges Djoyou Kamga and Arnold Kwesiga explore a relatively new phenomenon namely referred to as illicit financial flows that aim to impoverish the African continent and prevent its economic development There is a direct relationship between illicit financial flows and failed initiatives to realize the right to development on the continent For instance in 2016 Africa received 41 billion towards public development while 50 billion left the continent through illicit financial flows The gap between recent economic achievements on the continent and its state of generalized underdevelopment coupled with rampant poverty corruption prolonged economic crisis and political instabilities signals an issue with resource allocations The systematic theft of resources by multinational corporations and criminal networks is a hard blow to the idea of people driven development in line with the Pan African vision of an integrated prosperous and peaceful Africa proclaimed by Agenda 2063

Right to Development and Illicit Financial Flows from Africa Dynamics Perspectives and Prospects provides insights into the dynamics and perspectives on illicit financial flows and its dire impacts on the right to development and development initiatives across the continent
