alternative readings of a traditional Balinese ritual postcolonial Anglophone theatre in Singapore and performance art in Asian America Tracing the transnational formation of the native boy as racial fetish object across the last century Lim follows this figure as he is passed from the hands of the colonial empire to the postcolonial nation state to neoliberal globalization Read through such figurations the traffic in native boys among white men serves as an allegory of an infantilized and emasculated Asia subordinate before colonial whiteness and modernity Pushing further Lim addresses the critical paradox of this entrenched relationship that resides even within queer theory itself by formulating critical interventions around Asian performance
