Theology The Lutheran Way Lutheran Quarterly Books:

Theology the Lutheran Way Oswald Bayer, 2007-09-14 Rather than asking if theology is theoretical or practical a question that reveals a fundamental lack of understanding about the nature of theology in general it is better to ask What exactly is theology It is this question that Oswald Bayer attempts to answer in Theology the Lutheran Way clearing up misconceptions about the essence of theology Along with Luther himself Bayer claims that theology rather than being something that we do is really what God does Based primarily on the third section of Bayer s original German work of the same title this book evaluates certain approaches to theology that have been influential from Schleiermacher s understanding of theology to debates with Kant Hegel and Bultmann It also includes a substantial section on Luther from the original in order to clarify the Lutheran tradition The Lutheran Quarterly ,1900 Fundamental Theology Matthew L. Becker, 2024-01-25

Encyclopedic in scope this book offers wide ranging coverage of the foundational teachings and practices within the mainstream of the classical Christian tradition It begins with their roots in the Scriptures and also branches out into Eastern and Western Christianity ancient medieval and modern to the present day Part I provides an overview of some of these routes then presents an historical survey of Christianity s major traditions Part II unpacks some of the character of that revelation focusing particularly on epistemological and procedural questions Finally Part III looks at Christian theology in a university setting the possibility and shape of theology as a university discipline its major subfields and its relations with humanities and the sciences respectively Fundamental Theology A Protestant Perspective 2nd edition includes a wide range of pedagogical features each chapter begins with an outline thesis statement highlighted in bold charts and graphs relevant headings and subheadings employed throughout the book keywords provides a survey of pertinent reference literature questions for review and discussion annotated suggestions for further reading Cross Narratives Neal J.

Anthony, 2010-06-01 Luther s radical interpretation of the two natures of Christ and specifically its expression through the ubiquitous presence of the humanity of Christ is a fundamental integral expression of that same theology This expression of Luther s theology of the cross Anthony asserts provides both a fuller elaboration and an important and creative corrective with reference to recent signal expressions of the theology of the cross As contemporary theologians of the cross have articulated most notably Douglas John Hall and the late Alan E Lewis the theology of the cross through a transformation of the divine attributes that honors the integrity of created beings is preeminently a theology of redemption from within within redemption In the process of outlining and analyzing these theologies of within redemption Anthony exposes an impasse created by these theologies regarding the relationship of within redemption to individual human narratives It is through Luther s radical interpretation of the two natures of Christ Anthony contends that complete within redemption can be expressed Anthony also evaluates the Christology of Karl Barth from the perspective of his findings Not only is Anthony s work an innovative and fresh application of Luther s Christology for contemporary discussions of the theology of the cross

but it places Luther's Christology at the cutting edge of contemporary discussions regarding the theology of the cross and its within redemption

The Genius of Luther's Theology Robert Kolb, Charles P. Arand, 2008-02-01 This volume offers a unique approach to the study of the great German reformer Martin Luther Robert Kolb and Charles Arand offer an introduction to two significant themes that form the heart of Luther's theology The first theme concerns what it means to be truly human For Luther passive righteousness described the believer's response to God's grace But there was also an active righteousness that defined the relationship of the believer to the world The second theme involves God's relation to his creation through his Word first creating and then redeeming the world Clergy and general readers will find here a helpful introduction to Luther's theology and its continuing importance for applying the good news of the gospel to the contemporary world

Homiletical Theology David Schnasa Jacobsen, 2015-02-13 Karl Barth famously argued that all theology is sermon preparation But what if all sermon preparation is actually theology This book pursues a thoroughgoing theological vision for the practice of preaching as a way of doing theology The idea is not just that homiletics is the realm of theological application That would leave preaching in the position of simply implementing a theology already arrived at Instead the vision in these pages is of a form of theology that begins with preaching itself its practice its theories and its contexts Homiletical theology is thus a unique way of doing theology even a constructive theological task in its own right Homiletician David Schnasa Jacobsen has assembled several of the leading lights of contemporary homiletics to help to see its task ever more deeply as theological yet in profoundly diverse ways Along the way readers will not only discover how homileticians do theology homiletically but will deepen the way in which they understand their own preaching as a theological task

Promising Faith for a Ruptured Age John T. Pless, Roland Ziegler, Joshua C. Miller, 2019-11-19 Combining his deep knowledge of Luther with a passion to speak the promising word of the gospel with clarity and integrity in our age Oswald Bayer has emerged as a leading Lutheran theologian The chapters in this Festschrift demonstrate the wide scope of Bayer's interest Martin Luther Johann Georg Hamann the doctrine of justification ethics hermeneutics theological method sacraments and the theology of lament These essays written by scholars from North America and Australia who have been influenced by Bayer's pioneering work demonstrate the resources that his work has for not only Reformation studies and systematic theology but also for preaching liturgical theology pastoral care and apologetics For those who are not yet acquainted with the contributions of this Tübingen theologian Promising Faith for a Ruptured Age An English Speaking Appreciation of Oswald Bayer will serve as a guide to and commentary on Bayer's multifaceted approach to theology Those familiar with Bayer's work as a systematic theologian and Luther scholar will discover new applications of fundamental themes for in interdisciplinary research ecumenical conversation and church life

Martin Luther Alberto Melloni, 2017-12-20 The three volumes present the current state of international research on Martin Luther's life and work and the Reformation's manifold influences on history churches politics culture philosophy arts and society up to the 21st century The work is initiated by the Fondazione per le scienze

religiose Giovanni XXIII Bologna in cooperation with the European network Refo500 This handbook is also available in German The Catholic Luther Philip D. W. Krey, Peter D. S. Krey, 2016 A collection of selected texts by Martin Luther including the classic The Magnificat Put into German and Explained that capture the essence of his Catholic devotion along with an extensive introduction The Work of Faith Justin Nickel, 2020-08-31 Many scholars assume that Luther advocates for a Christian life in which human beings are always passive recipients of God's grace as it is delivered in preaching and mere instruments through which God works to serve their neighbors The Work of Faith Divine Grace and Human Agency in Martin Luther's Preaching offers a different reading of Luther's views on human agency by drawing on a fresh source Luther's preaching Using Luther's sermons in the Church Postil as a primary source Justin Nickel argues that Martin Luther preached as though Christians have real if secondary agency in the lives they lead before God and neighbor As a result Nickel presents a Luther substantively concerned with how Christians lead their lives Hanging by a Promise Joshua C. Miller, 2015-02-13 Oswald Bayer is one of the most important contemporary interpreters of Martin Luther and confessional Lutheran theologians As a Luther scholar Bayer has identified the precise reformational turning point in Luther's life and theology which is also the central point for a truly Lutheran theology the promise of a forgiving and justifying God preached in Jesus Christ As a Lutheran theologian Bayer stresses that this promise of God is the ultimate subject matter of all theology and that all other theological topics have the justifying promise of God as their basis and boundary Hanging by a Promise investigates how Bayer addresses Luther's topic of the hidden God a God of wrath who accomplishes everything from the standpoint of the justifying promise of God Luther's doctrine of the hidden God has been taken up discussed and interpreted by many in the modern Protestant theological tradition Yet Bayer addresses it in a way in which others before him have not Going beyond interpretation and evaluation Bayer actually makes use of Luther's hidden God in his own theology For Bayer the hidden God is the counterpoint to God's gracious promise given in the preached Christ a counterpoint that brings serious tension into the very heart of theology Promissio Oswald Bayer, 2025 Bayer dates Luther's reformational breakthrough to the early spring of 1518 when he discovered the sacramentality of the word that the word is not simply informative but performative and constitutive of the sacraments The preached word is prior to faith creates faith and is the only source of certainty in the Christian life Flourishing in Tensions Michael Brautigam, 2022-09-09 Following Jesus Christ presents unique challenges to disciples today In our current climate of relativism materialism and consumerism Christians are increasingly perplexed as to who they are and what following after Christ means today Drawing on the Protestant tradition in particular Dietrich Bonhoeffer Martin Luther and Adolf Schlatter and findings from psychology this book offers a fresh integrative interpretation of Jesus's radical call into discipleship This call is interpreted through a christological lens as Jesus Christ in his role as Prophet calls us to self denial in his role as Priest invites us to cross bearing and as King demands us to follow him Jesus's call to discipleship challenges disciples to embrace various tensions by faith and to grow and even flourish in and through them By denying themselves they find their true self by taking up their cross they find real life and by following Christ they find the great friend and befriend the world as the community of disciples This book is for Christians who seek to mature in intentional self reflection and discover practical ways of living out Christ s radical call into discipleship today Faith Alone---The Doctrine of Justification Thomas R. Schreiner,2015-09-15 Renowned biblical scholar Thomas Schreiner looks at the historical and biblical roots of the doctrine of justification and offers an updated defense of this pillar of Reformed theology Reinvigorating one of the five great declarations of the Reformation sola fide Schreiner Summarizes the history of the doctrine looking at the early church and the writings of several of the Reformers Walks readers through an examination of the key biblical texts in the Old and New Testament that support the Reformed understanding of justification Discusses whether justification is transformative or forensic and introduces readers to some of the contemporary challenges to the Reformation teaching of sola fide with particular attention to the new perspective on Paul Five hundred years after the Reformation the doctrine of justification by faith alone still needs to be understood and proclaimed In Faith Alone you will learn how the rallying cry of sola fide is rooted in the Scriptures and how to understand this doctrine in a fresh way THE FIVE SOLAS Historians and theologians have long recognized that at the heart of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation were five declarations often referred to as the solas These five statements summarize much of what the Reformation was about and they distinguish Protestantism from other expressions of the Christian faith that they place ultimate and final authority in the Scriptures acknowledge the work of Christ alone as sufficient for redemption recognize that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone and seek to do all things for God s glory The Five Solas Series is more than a simple rehashing of these statements but instead expounds upon the biblical reasoning behind them leading to a more profound theological vision of our lives and callings as Christians and churches

The Self-Donation of God Jack D. Kilcrease,2013-03-20 In The Self Donation of God Jack Kilcrease argues that the speech act of promise is always an act of self donation A person who unilaterally promises to another is bound to take a particular series of actions to fulfill that promise Being that creation is grounded in God s promising speech the divine human relationship is fundamentally one of divine self donation and human receptivity Sin disrupts this relationship and therefore redemption is constituted by a reassertion of divine promise of salvation in the face of the condemnation of the law Gen 3 15 As a new and effective word of grace the promise of a savior begins the process of redemption within which God speaks forth a new narrative of creation In this new narrative God gives himself in an even deeper manner to humanity By donating himself through a promise first to the protological humanity and then to Israel he binds himself to them At the end of this history of self binding God in Christ enters into the condemnation of the law neutralizes it in the cross and brings about a new creation through his omnipotent word of promise actualized in the resurrection The Lutheran Quarterly ,1892

Pastor Craft John T Pless,John T. Pless,Jacob Corzine,2021-12-14 Pastoring God s people is not about managerial techniques or quick fix therapies Pastors are not life coaches or salesmen They are ambassadors of Christ Jesus called to speak not of their own wisdom but the wisdom of the cross Their craft is the art of knowing how to distinguish God s Law from His Gospel They preach the Law not in order to renovate broken lives but to reveal the rot that sin has caused so that God s other word the good news of the forgiveness of sins can ring true and clear restoring the joy of salvation to those caught in guilt and despair This book is aptly titled Pastor Craft as it takes us into the workshop of a teacher whose life has been devoted to teaching this craft to those calling it will be to preach this good Word in season and out of season Young pastors will find seasoned wisdom here for faithful ministry Veteran pastors might read the book as something as a refresher course in pastoral theology

A History of Lutheranism Eric W. Gritsch, In a clear nontechnical way this noted Reformation historian tells the story of how the nascent reforming and confessional movement sparked and led by Martin Luther survived its first battles with religious and political authorities to become institutionalized in its religious practices and teachings Gritsch then traces the emergence of genuine consensus at the end of the sixteenth century followed by the age of Lutheran Orthodoxy the great Pietist reaction Lutheranism's growing diversification during the Industrial Revolution its North American expansion and its increasingly global and ecumenical ventures in the last century

Luther and the Beloved Community Paul R. Hinlicky, 2010-05-17 Is Christian belief tenable today Is it possible to be a creedal Christian With the help of Martin Luther Paul Hinlicky here explores classical Christian beliefs regarding the person and work of Christ and human nature and destiny He also counters contemporary objections to creedal faith from the so called new perspective on Paul to Pope Benedict s rejection of the Augsburg Confession to the continuing challenge of Marx Luther and the Beloved Community does not present Luther s medieval thought as a possibility for today but does make him available for the future as a teacher of the faith and a help for tackling contemporary questions of Christian belief According to Hinlicky Luther is misused and misunderstood by those of his own tradition and needs to be understood not as hero of the faith but rather as the proponent of a beloved community that does not yet fully exist In performing this makeover Hinlicky reveals genuine new insights concealed within Luther s rhetoric

From Wittenberg to the World Charles Arand, Erik H. Herrmann, Daniel L. Mattson, Christopher B. Brown, Günter Frank, Bruce Gordon, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Tarald Rasmussen, Violet Soen, Zsombor Tóth, Günther Wassilowsky, Siegrid Westphal, 2018-05-14 The book honours the Rev Dr Robert A Kolb retired Director of the Institute for Mission Studies and Missions Professor in systematic theology at Concordia Seminary St Louis and perhaps the leading authority on the development of Wittenberg Theology in the English speaking world At the same time his teaching and writing which continues without flagging has emphasized the importance of translating and retranslating the historic Lutheran faith in terms that address contemporary issues and contemporary people In this volume colleagues and co workers address and push forward Kolb insights into the history of the Reformation era and on the impact of those Reformation issues and quarrels on the life of the church in the world today With contributions by Charles Arand L
