Tolerance and Peace Human Values Intercultural Interreligious dialogue Human Fraternity document Introducing Archaeology, Second Edition Robert J. Muckle, 2014-07-25 Introducing Archaeology offers a lively alternative to many other texts While covering traditional elements of archaeology including methods and prehistory the book also integrates the key principles of curriculum reform for the twenty first century as outlined by the Society for American Archaeology The second edition highlights recent developments in the field and includes a new chapter on archaeology beyond mainstream academia It also integrates more examples from popular culture including mummies tattoos pirates and global warming What results is a surprisingly fresh and contemporary take on archaeology one that situates the discipline within but also beyond the academy Introducing Archaeology is accompanied by a free website with chapter by chapter resources for students including study questions Visit www.introducingarchaeology.com Instructor ancillaries for Introducing Archaeology include an instructor's manual PowerPoint slides and a testbank Introducing Archaeology, Third Edition Robert J. Muckle, Stacey L. Camp, 2020-11-03 Situating archaeology in academic social and political contexts the third edition emphasizes the ethics and the scholarship of women and includes considerable focus on the archaeology of recent and contemporary times

Challenging Authorities Arne S. Steinforth, Sabine Klocke-Daffa, 2021-09-20 When the notion of alternative facts and the alleged dawning of a postfactual world entered public discourse social anthropologists found themselves in unexpectedly familiar territory In their empirical experience fact knowledge accepted as true derives its salience from social mechanisms of legitimization thereby demonstrating a deep interconnection with power and authority In this perspective fact is a continually contested and volatile social category Due to the specific histories of their colonial and post independence experience African societies offer a particularly broad array of insights into social processes of juxtaposition opposition and even outright competition between different postulated authorities The contributions to the present volume explore the variety of ways in which authority is contested in Southern and Eastern Africa investigating localized discourses on which institution what kind of knowledge or whose expertise is accepted as authoritative thus highlighting the specificities and pluralities in modern societies This edited volume engages with larger theoretical questions regarding power and authority in the context of post colonial states neo traditional authority claiming space conflict and in justice and contestations of knowledge It offers in depth critical analyses of ethnographic data that put contemporary African phenomena on equal footing with current controversies in North America Europe and other global settings

Disruptive Voices and the Singularity of Histories Regna Darnell, Frederic W. Gleach, 2019-11-01 Histories of Anthropology Annual presents diverse perspectives on the discipline's history within a global context with a goal of increasing awareness and use of historical approaches in teaching learning and conducting anthropology The series includes critical comparative analytical and narrative studies involving all aspects and subfields of anthropology Volume 13 Disruptive Voices and the Singularity of Histories explores the interplay of identities and scholarship through the history of anthropology with a special section examining fieldwork predecessors and indigenous communities in Native North America Individual contributions explore the complexity of women's history indigenous history national traditions and oral histories to juxtapose what we understand of the past with its present continuities These contributions include Sharon Lindenburger's examination of Franz Boas and his navigation with Jewish identity Kathy M Closkey's documentation of Navajo weavers and their struggles with cultural identities and economic resources and demands and Mindy Morgan's use of the text of Ruth Underhill's Oodham study to capture the voices of three generations of women ethnographers Because this work bridges anthropology and history a richer and more varied view of the past emerges through the meticulous narratives of anthropologists and their unique fieldwork ultimately providing competing points of access to social dynamics This volume examines events at both macro and micro levels documenting the impact large scale historical events have had on particular individuals and challenging the uniqueness of a single interpretation of the same facts
