Thunder From The Sea:

Thunder from the Sea Joan Hiatt Harlow, 2004-05 Tom buried his face against the dog's wet fur. This was the beautiful Newfoundland dog he'd dreamed about and now that he was really here Tom didn't want to give him up. It's 1929 and thirteen-year-old Tom Campbell has always wanted a real family in a real house and a dog of his very own. Since he was three years old the only home Tom has known is the Mission orphanage on the Northern Peninsula of Newfoundland. Now he's being sent far away to live and work with fisherman Enoch Murray and his wife Fiona on Back o the Moon Island. So Tom is amazed when on his first time in the fishing boat and in the middle of a squall he rescues a Newfoundland dog who seems to have come out of nowhere. Tom names the dog Thunder. With no one to claim him the dog fast becomes Tom's loyal and constant companion. When an earthquake strikes the area Thunder proves himself invaluable to the family and the island, saving lives and warning of imminent danger and it seems that Tom and Thunder might both have a place with the Murray family. But then Fiona becomes pregnant with her first child and it looks like Thunder's owner might be found. Tom's wonderful new world is being turned upside down. Will the Murrays still want Tom? And will Tom be forced to give up his beloved Thunder? From the author of the best-selling and award-winning Star in the Storm comes this thrilling adventure tale about family loyalty and the special bond between a lonely young boy and a remarkable dog, a story that will leave readers cheering.

Child of the Sea Doina Cornell, 2012-09-27 A Child of the Sea is the true story of Jimmy Cornell's daughter sailing around the world on the family's small yacht from the age of 7 to 14 based on Doina's diaries, letters and memories. From 1975 to 1981 the Cornell family visited 54 countries sailed more than 68 000 miles and travelled about the same distance overland. The story is told from Doina's point of view although the main part of the book focuses on the family's three-year stay in the Pacific when she is aged between 10 and 13. Child of the Sea is unusual in that it gives a glimpse into a life that most young children couldn't imagine swimming, diving and playing the days away in deserted anchorages, visiting some of the most beautiful islands in the world, falling in love with the sea in all its ever-changing moods from balmy trade wind ocean passages to the treacherous breakers that crash onto tropical reefs and taking a full part in sailing and handling the yacht on passage The book also tells the story of a girl's coming of age in the South Pacific understanding different cultures and values and experiencing at first hand how people judge each other depending on the colour of their skin from the time on Easter Island when tourists mistake Doina for a Polynesian girl to her and her brother's hostile prejudiced reception back in an English school at the end of their journey What do children need to grow up happy and healthy Security with their family an element of risk freedom to explore the world openness to other peoples and cultures closeness with nature and the elements and an appreciation of the environment and our finite resources The sailing life offers all this and more and this book captures it all The Formation of Candomble Luis Nicolau Parés, 2013 Formation of Candomble Vodun History and Ritual in Brazil Maritime Classics
