Life-span Development Leonie Sugarman,2004-03-01 This thorough revision of the highly successful first edition of Life Span Development offers the reader a wide ranging and thought provoking account of human development throughout the lifespan The lifespan approach emphasises that development does not stop when we cease to be adolescents but goes on throughout adulthood and into old age In initial chapters Leonie Sugarman outlines the issues surrounding the notion of development and how it can be studied including reviews of the work of key theorists Erikson Levinson and Gould She goes on to consider the different ways in which the life course can be construed as a series of age related stages as a cumulative sequence as a series of developmental tasks as a series of key life events and transitions or as a narrative construction which creates a sense of dynamic continuity A final chapter looks at how people cope the resources that are available and the theoretical and practical issues regarding interventions to assist them in the process New to this edition is increased coverage of the topical issue of successful ageing and a new chapter on the increasingly popular narrative approach to lifespan development This edition is also more student friendly with exercises in self reflection that encourage the reader to look at the development of their own lives or those of their current or future clients Boxed material highlighting major theories and clarifying concepts is also included This book will be invaluable for students of developmental and occupational psychology and professionals in the fields of health management education and social work

A Place to Call Home Dr. Tom Obondo Okoyo,2015-11-20 A

Place to Call Home is a story of refugees no community wanted to see anywhere close to them as if they were good for nothing. It is an epic portrayal of a painful dilemma of thousands of homeless internally displaced persons (IDPs) who were victims of the highly contested and disputed presidential election. The novel is a true tear jerking reflection of a botched election in December 2007 and January 2008 which culminated into a post-election violence that brutally killed almost a thousand innocent people. Some were burned alive inside a church, God's territory as they called, where they had taken safe haven. About seven hundred thousand people were forcibly removed from their homes; some took refuge at police stations while others fled to neighboring countries to remain alive. Business premises, vehicles, and other properties worth billions of shillings were destroyed, and domestic animals were stolen. This spate of violence happened at a time when thousands of ethnic militias heavily armed with homemade crude weapons were chanting war slogans and singing traditional war songs everywhere in the country. Loyal to their respective presidential candidates, the militias roamed the streets of towns and villages making every journey perilous. Enemies who got caught were beheaded, and their heads were paraded or displayed on the main highways. Women were seized and gang raped by the militias and got infected with the deadly HIV/AIDS virus. Amazingly, communities turned their backs against the combined IDPs who were looking for a permanent settlement, calling them foreigners, invaders, or land grabbers in their own country. Breathing under such horrifying circumstances, all IDPs drawn from various tribes resolved to live together in peace and harmony and to prove to the world that they could live with people from other communities without any problem in spite of their language and cultural barriers. The idea of living together was instilled in the IDPs by VP Nyandegero who emerged as the leading light in their plight and the quest for what they could call home. VP Nyandegero won a special place in fellow IDPs' hearts and made them believe that life was worth fighting for. For seven years, these IDPs have been living in squalid conditions or in makeshift camps waiting to be settled as promised by the ruling elite. The IDPs lived in rough and ready dwellings with no food, water, toilet facilities, social amenities, or sanitation at all. They were living in a world of their own, no laws, rules, or culture to observe. The fate of these IDPs is reminiscent of the Jews when they lived in Europe and were rejected by people in all countries after World War II and consequently had no place to call their home. After seven years in isolated makeshift camps, the IDPs were offered land to settle on by the Biblical Good Samaritans to prove that tribal groups, once sworn enemies, could live together peacefully and harmoniously. And now these IDPs would like to build the country's first utopia the same way the Israelis have transformed the desert land of Israel into another biblical Promised Land of Canaan, the land of milk and honey. This unfortunate event was disseminated throughout the world by the mass media.
