Time In History Views Of Time From Prehistory To The Present Day:

Time in History G. J. Whitrow, 1989 In this intriguing book G J Whitrow traces the evolution of our general awareness of time and its significance from the dawn of history to the present day His absorbing study ranges from Ancient Egypt and Persia Greece and Israel to the Islamic world India and China and Europe and America showing the different ways time has been perceived by various civilizations From Eternity to Time Aino Mäkikalli, 2007 This study examines different conceptions of time in Daniel Defoe s 1660 1731 novels The temporal aspects of the novels are surveyed taking into account the historical situation of the novel as a genre and contemporary conceptions of time The modernisation process of the Western world serves as a wider context of the study as present research indicates that Defoe s novels exemplify a multilayered shift from pre modern Western conceptions of time to those of the modern age The author also explores gendered time and economic and cultural values of time in Defoe s novels The book contributes a fresh analysis of Defoe s novels and demonstrates the crucial relation between historical cultural conceptions of time and the historically changing genre of the novel Thomas Jefferson, Time, and History Hannah Spahn, 2011 Beginning with the famous opening to the Declaration of Independence When in the course of human events almost all of Thomas Jefferson s writings include creative stylistically and philosophically complex references to time and history Although best known for his forward looking statements envisioning future progress Jefferson was in fact deeply concerned with the problem of coming to terms with the impending loss or fragmentation of the past As Hannah Spahn shows in Thomas Jefferson Time and History his efforts to promote an exceptionalist interpretation of the United States as the first nation to escape from the crimes and calamities of European history were complicated both by his doubts about the outcome of the American experiment and by his skepticism about the methods and morals of eighteenth century philosophical history Spahn approaches the conundrum of Jefferson s Janus faced equally forward and backward oriented thought by discussing it less as a matter of personal contradiction and paradox than as the expression of a late Newtonian Enlightenment in a period between ancient and modern modes of explaining change in time She follows Jefferson in his creation of an influential narrative of American and global history over the course of half a century opening avenues into a temporal and historical imagination that was different from ours and offering new assessments of the solutions Jefferson and his generation found or failed to find to central moral and political problems like slavery Mystery Of Time, The: Asymmetry Of Time And Irreversibility In The Natural Processes Alexander Leonidovich Kuzemsky, 2022-10-14 The book focuses on the study of the temporal behavior of complex many particle systems The phenomenon of time and its role in the temporal evolution of complex systems is a remaining mystery The book presents the necessity of the interdisciplinary point of view regarding on the phenomenon of time The aim of the present study is to summarize and formulate in a concise but clear form the trends and approaches to the concept of time from a broad interdisciplinary perspective exposing tersely the complementary approaches and theories of time in the context of thermodynamics statistical physics cosmology theory of information biology and biophysics including the problem of time and aging Various approaches to the problem show that time is an extraordinarily interdisciplinary and multifaceted underlying notion which plays an extremely important role in various natural complex processes Culture and Spirituality in Medieval Europe Giles Constable, 2024-10-28 The studies in the present selection of Giles Constable's work concentrate on culture and spirituality in the 11th and 12th centuries though they also touch on the early and late Middle Ages The cultural articles are concerned respectively with perceptions of time and the past forgery seen as a reflection of social and religious concerns entry to religious life preaching and letters and letter writing The articles on spirituality deal with the themes of suffering and attitudes towards the self especially the growing concentration on the individual in the religious life of the 12th century
