Visual Protest, Viral Images, and Virtual Participation Nicole A. Schneider, 2025-06-30 This interdisciplinary study sees press photographs of the BLM Movement in the US as agents for Black liberation Close reading both the images and theoretical considerations on Blackness photography and the often intangible articulations of racism in today's society the book focuses on the work the photographs do for the movement as they politically garner attention and create discursive places historically unsettle seemingly fixed narratives about the African American past and virtually establish room for digital activist debate Based on Azoulay's event of photography and Rancière's politics of aesthetics it builds the theory of an attentive reading of photography and addresses the larger frameworks of photography as event in anti-racist considerations In their political aesthetic and performative dimensions these photographs negotiate the current matter of Black lives in the United States and articulate ontological dimensions of Blackness as political struggle and affirmative position They become mobile and material discursive places that lift the protested debates into wider fields of consideration and visibility complicating notions of society politics and interaction

Ambitious Like a Mother Lara Bazelon, 2022-04-19 In this captivating and radical look at work life balance Lara Bazelon reframes our understanding of working women and shows how prioritizing your career benefits mothers kids and society at large In this singular cultural moment mothers have unparalleled opportunities to succeed at work while continuing to face the same societal impediments that held back our mothers and grandmothers We still encounter entrenched gender bias in the workplace and are expected to shoulder the lion's share of labor and burdens at home while being made to feel as if we're never doing enough All the while we're told that the perfect work life balance is possible if only we try hard enough to achieve it It's time to change the conversation about work life and balance Work and life are inextricably intimately intertwined We need to celebrate what we do give our children even and especially in moments of imbalance rather than apologizing for what we don't In this way we can model for our children how we use our talents to help others and raise awareness about the issues closest to our hearts We can embrace the personal fulfillment and financial independence that pursuing meaningful work can bring as a way of showing our children how to live happy purpose driven lives Bazelon argues not only that we can but that we should Being ambitious at work and being a good mother to our children are not at odds these qualities mutually reinforce each other Backed up by research and filled with personal stories from Bazelon's life as well as that of her mother and the many other women she interviewed across the cultural and financial spectrum Ambitious Like a Mother is an anthem a beacon for all to recognize and celebrate the pioneering women who reject the false idols of the Selfless Mother and Work Life Balance and a call to embrace your own ambitions and model your

Our government so willing to break from norms and its own values with the CIA rendition program has spent a maddening amount of time trying to fit the victims of illegal interrogations into a court of law America's Trial captures these events from the vantage point of one of only two journalists in the world to live part time on the base over the past ten years In telling this story over fifty five reporting trips award winning journalist John Ryan takes readers into an ecosystem that so few get to see capturing the unique life experience of having one of the most notorious places on earth as a second home The historic legal effort is inseparable from the surreal context and the absurdities of hosting the biggest case in US history in what is effectively a small Caribbean beach town America's Trial serves as a necessary bookend to events that have defined much of the war on terror

British Columbia's Borders in Globalization Nicole Bates-Eamer, Helga Kristín Hallgrímsdóttir, 2021-11-24 This book is a case study collection examining the influences and functions of British Columbia s BC borders in the 21st century British Columbia s Borders in Globalization examines bordering processes and the causes and effects of borders in the Cascadian region from the perspective of BC The chapters cover diverse topics including historical border disputes and cannabis culture and identity the governance of transboundary water flows migration and preclearance policies for goods and people and the emerging issue of online communities The case studies provide examples that highlight the simultaneous but contradictory trends regarding borders in BC while boundaries and bordering processes at the external borders shift away from the territorial boundary lines self determination local politics and cultural identities re inscribe internal boundaries and borders that are both virtual and real Moreover economic protectionism racial discourses and xenophobic narratives driven by advances in technology reinforce the territorial dimensions of borders These case studies contribute to the literature challenging the notion that territorial borders are sufficient for understanding how borders function in BC and in a few instances they illustrate the nuanced ways in which borders or bordering processes are becoming detached from territory The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Borderlands Studies
