To Keep The Waters Troubled The Life Of Ida B Wells:

To Keep the Waters Troubled Linda O. McMurry, Linda McMurry Edwards, 2000 Ida B Wells was a prominent African American famous for her crusade against lynching in the 1890s This biography of Wells tells the story of her battle for justice for African American men and women from its beginnings in Tennessee

To Keep the Waters Troubled Linda McMurry Edwards, 2000 In the generation that followed Frederick Douglass no African American was more prominent or more outspoken than Ida B Wells Her crusade against lynching in the 1890s made her famous or notorious across America and she was seriously considered as a rival to W E B Du Bois and Booker T Washington for race leadership This book is the first full biography of Wells a passionate crusader for black people and women and one who was sometimes torn by her conflicting loyalties to race

American Reformers, 1870-1920 Steven L. Piott, 2006-03-03 In this new engaging work historian Steven L Piott explores the fascinating and provocative lives of twelve influential American reformers of the Gilded Age Populist and Progressive eras From Ida B Wells to Louis Brandeis Jane Addams to Charles Macune Piott examines the diversity of ideas and approaches that characterized this dynamic period He links these men and women together in the greater context of the reform era and explores the social ideologies that united the reform spirit in America following Reconstruction Designed with students in mind American Reformers provides a thought provoking introduction to some of the most influential and forward thinking minds of the reform era

A History of African-American Leadership John White, Bruce J. Dierenfield, 2014-06-11 The story of black emancipation is one of the most dramatic themes of American history covering racism murder poverty and extreme heroism Figures such as Malcolm X and Martin Luther King are the demigods of the freedom movements both film and household figures This major text explores the African American experience of the twentieth century with particular reference to six outstanding race leaders Their philosophies and strategies for racial advancement are compared and set against the historical framework and constraints within which they functioned The book also examines the grass roots of black protest movements in America paying particular attention to the major civil rights organizations as well as black separatist groups such as the Nation of Islam

Better Day Coming Adam Fairclough, 2002-06-25 From the end of postwar Reconstruction in the South to an analysis of the rise and fall of Black Power acclaimed historian Adam Fairclough presents a straightforward synthesis of the century long struggle of black Americans to achieve civil rights and equality in the United States Beginning with Ida B Wells and the campaign against lynching in the 1890s Fairclough chronicles the tradition of protest that led to the formation of the NAACP Booker T Washington and the strategy of accommodation Marcus Garvey and the push for black nationalism through to Martin Luther King Jr and the Civil Rights Movement of the 1960s and beyond Throughout Fairclough presents a judicious interpretation of historical events that balances the achievements of the Civil Rights Movement against the persistence of racial and economic inequalities

The Allure of Blackness among Mixed-Race Americans, 1862-1916 Ingrid Dineen-Wimberly, 2019-10-01 In The Allure of Blackness among Mixed Race

Americans 1862 1916 Ingrid Dineen Wimberly examines generations of mixed race African Americans after the Civil War and into the Progressive Era skillfully tracking the rise of a leadership class in Black America made up largely of individuals who had complex racial ancestries many of whom therefore enjoyed racial options to identity as either Black or White Although these people might have chosen to pass as White to avoid the racial violence and exclusion associated with the dominant racial ideology of the time they instead chose to identify as Black Americans a decision that provided upward mobility in social political and economic terms Dineen Wimberly highlights African American economic and political leaders and educators such as P B S Pinchback Theophile T Allain Booker T Washington and Frederick Douglass as well as women such as Josephine B Willson Bruce and E Azalia Hackley who were prominent clubwomen lecturers educators and settlement house founders In their quest for leadership within the African American community these leaders drew on the concept of Blackness as a source of opportunities and power to transform their communities in the long struggle for Black equality The Allure of Blackness among Mixed Race Americans 1862 1916 confounds much of the conventional wisdom about racially complicated people and details the manner in which they chose their racial identity and ultimately overturns the passing trope that has dominated so much Americanist scholarship and social thought about the relationship between race and social and political transformation in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Untrammelled Thinking the Promise and Peril of the Second American Conference, 1920-1940 Lauren L. Kientz, 2010 Civic Passions Cecelia Tichi, 2009-10-01 A gripping and inspiring book Civic Passions examines innovative leadership in periods of crisis in American history Starting from the late nineteenth century when respected voices warned that America was on the brink of collapse Cecelia Tichi explores the wisdom of practical visionaries who were confronted with a series of social political and financial upheavals that in certain respects seem eerily similar to modern times The United States then as now was riddled with political corruption financial panics social disruption labor strife and bourgeois inertia Drawing on a wealth of evocative personal accounts biographies and archival material Tichi brings seven iconoclastic and often overlooked individuals from the Gilded Age back to life We meet physician Alice Hamilton theologian Walter Rauschenbusch jurist Louis D Brandeis consumer advocate Florence Kelley antilynching activist Ida B Wells Barnett economist John R Commons and child welfare advocate Julia Lathrop Bucking the status quo of the Gilded Age as well as middle class complacency these reformers tirelessly garnered popular support as they championed progressive solutions to seemingly intractable social problems Civic Passions is a provocative and powerfully written social history a collection of minibiographies and a user's manual on how a generation of social reformers can turn peril into progress with fresh workable ideas Together these narratives of advocacy provide a stunning precedent of progressive action and show how citizen activists can engage the problems of the age in imaginative ways While offering useful models to encourage the nation in a newly progressive direction Civic Passions reminds us that one determined individual can make a difference
