and Dissent within Education Nuraan Davids, Yusef Waghid, 2017-07-31 This book explores how the concept of tolerance might be understood cultivated and enacted in and through educational encounters It argues that by opening up educational encounters to allow for dissent that is disagreement criticism and open dialogue our everyday social life experiences and relationships would flourish and potentially allow for a more peaceful and harmonious co existence alongside those with whom we disagree Dissent does not mean that anything goes what is needed is considerate and responsible recognition of distinct and diverse perspectives Tolerance is sometimes regarded as a simple and uncritical celebration of difference and sometimes dismissed as a necessary and resentful acceptance of others Here the authors make a compelling case for conditional tolerance which requires us to continuously reflect on the limits of what we are willing to tolerate The book will be an indispensable resource for researchers and students working in the areas of education philosophy and sociology particularly those with an interest in educational freedom democracy and social justice The Oxford Handbook of

How Interculturally Competent am I? An Introductory Thesis Writing Course for International Students Yau Tsai, 2014-07-08 This textbook aims to help students to develop thesis writing skills through experiential learning by conducting a research project based on a diary study and reporting on it in a mini thesis It was developed for the benefit of international students who in their penultimate year of undergraduate study are planning to write a graduation thesis in English related to intercultural communication in their final year with little or no prior knowledge of the subject or of thesis writing itself The overarching structure of the book provides a clear overview of the main parts of a thesis and how they fit together It presents wide ranging activities designed to help students to critically analyse and evaluate the academic literature with a specific research question in mind and provides a basic introduction to qualitative research methodology placing a special focus upon the use of diary studies in research Thirteen units guide students through the process of analyzing and evaluating competing models of intercultural competence before using them as frameworks to structure self reflection in a small scale study Along the way students write a series of structured diary entries in response to different kinds of intercultural experience that ultimately allows them to draw conclusions about not only their current level of intercultural competence within the terms they choose to define it but also about the standards they tend to apply in practice To promote extensive reading the textbook may be used in conjunction with its optional accompanying handbook from which many reading passages are drawn Tsai Y and Houghton S Becoming Intercultural Inside and Outside the Classroom Newcastle upon Tyne Cambridge Scholars Publishing 2010 French Educational Ideals of Today Ferdinand Edouard Buisson, Frederic Ernest Farrington, 1919 Nationalism and Education Since 1789 Edward Hartman Reisner, 1922 The Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1916 The Journal of the National Education Association National Education Association of the United States, 1916 Diversity and Citizenship Education James A.
