survival and resistance during and after prison Drawing on a feminist phenomenological framework informed by a serious engagement with scholars such as Maurice Merleau Ponty Simone de Beauvoir Erwin Goffman Michel Foucault Sandra Lee Bartky and Tori Moi Embodying Punishment revisits and expands the literature on the pains of imprisonment and offers an interdisciplinary examination of the embodiment and identities of prisoners and former prisoners pressing the need for a body aware approach to criminology and penology The book develops this argument through a qualitative study with prisoners and former prisoners discussing themes such as the perception of the prison through time space smells and sounds the change of prisoner bodies the presentation of self in and after prison including the centrality of appearance and prison dress in the management of prisoner and ex prisoner identities and a range of coping strategies adopted during and after imprisonment including prison food drug misuse and a case study on women s self injuring practices Embodying Punishment brings to the fore and critically analyses longstanding and urgent problems surrounding women s multifaceted oppression through imprisonment including matters of discriminatory and gendered treatment as well as issues around penal harm and argues for an experientially grounded critique of punishment

Living Grieving Karen V. Johnson, 2021-07-20 Shamanic energy teacher Karen Johnson writes with both hope and compassion in a book described by bestselling author and noted shamanic teacher Alberto Villoldo as The owner s manual for embracing grief with courage and transforming it into wisdom to discover the ultimate and lasting gift of joy Karen Johnson s fast paced professional life came to an abrupt halt when she lost her twenty seven year old son to a heroin overdose Rather than grieve in a way that made people around her comfortable she did the unexpected She retired sold her house and all her household goods and went on a two and a half year journey that took her all over the world finding a spiritual practice along the way Karen didn t think she could ever find her way out of despair but she found a process that worked a sacred journey and map that she wants to share with others so they can heal too This book is structured around practices that are part of the Four Winds Medicine Wheel as developed by Alberto Villoldo Ph D Karen blends her personal story and meaningful experiences with each direction of the Medicine Wheel offering exercises related to each of the four practices Writes Karen I want you to know something really important You may be feeling stuck in your grief and wondering why you can t seem to get over it I felt the same way until I realized we do not get over grief It s not like catching the u we aren t sick There is no cure and we can t medicate it away Grief is a state of being that carries energy that you can tap into to create a new life Just as we use the energy of other newly acquired states of being like marriage or parenthood to transform our lives we can likewise use the energy of grieving to transform
