Tribes David Lammy,2020-03-05 A superb book about the tribalism gripping British politics Tribes is measured searching pitilessly self scrutinising and would probably amaze anyone who knows its author only from his Twitter persona Decca Aitkenhead Sunday Times David was the first black Briton to study at Harvard Law School and practised as a barrister before entering politics He has served as the Member of Parliament for Tottenham since 2000 Today David is one of Parliament's most prominent and successful campaigners for social justice. He led the campaign for Windrush British citizens to be granted British citizenship and has been at the forefront of the fight for justice for the families affected by the Grenfell Tower fire. In 2007 inspired by the bicentenary of the Abolition of the Slave Trade Act and looking to explore his own African roots, David Lammy took a DNA test. Ostensibly he was a middle-aged husband, father, MP for Tottenham and a die-hard Spurs fan. But his nucleic acids revealed that he was 25% Tuareg tribe, Niger; 25% Temne tribe, Sierra Leone; 25% Bantu tribe, South Africa; with 5% traces of Celtic Scotland and a mishmash of other unidentified groups. Both memoir and call to arms, Tribes explores both the benign and malign effects of our need to belong. How this need, genetically programmed and socially acquired, can manifest itself in positive ways collaboratively achieving great things that individuals alone cannot. And yet how in recent years globalisation and digitisation have led to new, more pernicious kinds of tribalism. This book is a fascinating and perceptive analysis of not only the way the world works but also the way we really are. Handbook on Critical Geographies of Migration Katharyne Mitchell, Reece Jones, Jennifer L. Fluri, 2019. Border walls, shipwrecks in the Mediterranean, separated families at the border, island detention camps: migration is at the centre of contemporary political and academic debates. This ground-breaking Handbook offers an exciting and original analysis of critical research on themes such as these, drawing on cutting-edge theories from an interdisciplinary and international group of leading scholars. With a focus on spatial analysis and geographical context, this volume highlights a range of theoretical, methodological and regional approaches to migration research while remaining attuned to the underlying politics that bring critical scholars together.

Aid State Jake Johnston, 2024-01-30. Haiti's state is near collapse; armed groups have overrun the country; many government officials have fled after the 2021 assassination of President Moïse, and not a single elected leader holds office. Refugees desperately set out on boats to reach the US and Latin America, and the economy reels from the after-effects of disasters, both man-made and natural, that destroyed much of Haiti's infrastructure and institutions. How did a nation founded on liberation, a people that successfully revolted against their colonizers and enslavers, come to such a precipice? In Aid State, Jake Johnston, a researcher and writer at the Center for Economic and Policy Research in Washington DC, reveals how long-standing US and European capitalist goals ensnared and re-enslaved Haiti under the guise of helping it. To the global West, Haiti has always been a place where labor is cheap, politicians are compliant, and profits are to be made. Over the course of nearly 100 years, the US has sought to control Haiti and its people with occupying police, military, and euphemistically called peacekeeping forces, as well as hand-picked leaders meant to quell uprisings and protect corporate interests. Earthquakes and hurricanes only further devastated a state already decimated by the aid industrial complex. Based on years of on-the-ground reporting in Haiti and interviews with politicians in the US and Haiti, independent aid contractors, UN officials, and Haitians who struggle for their lives, homes, and families, Aid State is a conscience-searing book of witness. Village Gone Viral Marit Tolo Østebø, 2021-02-16. In 2001, Ethiopian Television aired a documentary about a small rural village called Awra Amba.

where women ploughed men worked in the kitchen and so called harmful traditional practices did not exist The documentary radically challenged prevailing images of Ethiopia as a gender conservative and aid dependent place and Awra Amba became a symbol of gender equality and sustainable development in Ethiopia and beyond Village Gone Viral uses the example of Awra Amba to consider the widespread circulation and use of modeling practices in an increasingly transnational and digital policy world With a particular focus on traveling models policy models that become viral through various vectors ranging from NGOs and multilateral organizations to the Internet Marit Tolo steb critically examines the hidden dimensions of models and model making While a policy model may be presented as a best practice one that can be scaled up and successfully applied to other places the local impacts of the model paradigm are far more ambivalent potentially increasing social inequalities reinforcing social stratification and concealing injustice With this book steb ultimately calls for a reflexive critical anthropology of the production circulation and use of models as instruments for social change Walter Kaufmann

Stanley Corngold, 2018-12-11 The first complete account of the ideas and writings of a major figure in twentieth century intellectual life Walter Kaufmann 1921 1980 was a charismatic philosopher critic translator and poet who fled Nazi Germany at the age of eighteen emigrating alone to the United States He was astonishingly prolific until his untimely death at age fifty nine writing some dozen major books all marked by breathtaking erudition and a provocative essayistic style He single handedly rehabilitated Nietzsche s reputation after World War II and was enormously influential in introducing postwar American readers to existentialism Until now no book has examined his intellectual legacy Stanley Corngold provides the first in depth study of Kaufmann s thought covering all his major works He shows how Kaufmann speaks to many issues that concern us today such as the good of philosophy the effects of religion the persistence of tragedy and the crisis of the humanities in an age of technology Few scholars in modern times can match Kaufmann s range of interests from philosophy and literature to intellectual history and comparative religion from psychology and photography to art and architecture Corngold provides a heartfelt portrait of a man who to an extraordinary extent transfigured his personal experience in the pages of his books This original study both appreciative and critical is the definitive intellectual life of one of the twentieth century s most engaging yet neglected thinkers It will introduce Kaufmann to a new generation of readers and serves as a fitting tribute to a scholar s incomparable libido sciendi or lust for knowledge Not the Type Camilla Thurlow, 2020-08-20

You can reinvent yourself you can change you can grow you can regress you can be any number of things at any particular time Please give yourself permission to do that and be equally as open minded to others who choose to do the same Because perhaps with just a little more compassion and acceptance we won t need to fit in to feel that we belong Camilla Thurlow came second on Love Island in 2017 More recently she impressed viewers in Celebrity SAS Who Dares Wins But that s not the most interesting part Camilla can do something that none of her fellow contestants can do find neutralise and destroy the landmines that threaten the lives and livelihoods of so many people in the world s former war zones and which make their land too dangerous to be worked This is at once a memoir of an extraordinary life and a script for living one's life to the full Camilla Thurlow is a highly independent woman whose thoughts and experience will resonate with anyone seeking meaning in a world where women are too often discounted or who frequently feel alienated amid the frenzy of contemporary life This is a book about courage not just the courage to go out and deal with a lethal threat in some of the world's most dangerous and inhospitable places but the courage to confront one's own fears and anxieties and to be oneself in what too often seems an inhospitable world Not the Type will inspire a whole generation to dare the seemingly impossible Although often an engaging reflection on life landmines and Love Island this is also a book about learning to confront one's own anxieties in a world dominated by celebrity culture and social media and on being a woman in what is still too often a man's world
