

JOHN 19:29

JEREMIAH J. JOHNSTON

"...that the Scripture might be fulfilled, He said, 'I'm thirsty.' "A jar full of sour wine was sitting there; so they fixed a sponge full of that wine on a hyssop and held it up to His mouth.

"When Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, 'It is finished!' Then bowing His head, He gave up His spirit."

Jesus' Side Pierced

"...Since it was the preparation day, the Jews did not want the bodies to remain on the cross on the Sabbath (that day Sabbath was a special day). They requested that Pilate have the bodies removed and that their bodies be buried."

"...But one of the soldiers placed his side with a spear, and a little blood and water came out. He who saw this has testified so that you also may believe. His testimony is true, and he knows he is telling the truth. For these things happened so that the Scripture would be fulfilled: Not one of His bones will be broken. Also, another Scripture says: 'They will look at the One they pierced.'"

Jesus' Burial

"...Jews—asked Pilate that he might remove Jesus' body. Pilate gave him permission, so he came and took His body away. Nicodemus (who had previously come to Him at night) also came, bringing a mixture of about 75 pounds of myrrh and aloes. Then they took Jesus' body and wrapped it in linen cloths with the aromatic spices, according to the burial custom of the Jews. There was a garden in the place where He was crucified. A new tomb was in the garden; no one had yet been placed in it. They placed Jesus there because of the Jewish preparation and since the tomb was nearby.

The Empty Tomb

20 On the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark. She said to the guards, 'The Lord has risen. They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put Him!'

"At that, Peter and the other disciple went out, heading for the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and got to the tomb first. Steeping down, he saw the linen cloths lying there, yet he did not go in. Then, following him, Simon Peter came also. He entered the tomb and saw the linen cloths lying there. The wrapping that had been on His head was not lying with the linen cloths but was folded up in a separate place by itself. The other disciple who had come with him also came and saw the same things. He must rise from the dead. Then the disciples went home again.

PUBLISHERS WEEKLY Body of Proof Jeremiah J. Johnston, 2023-03-14. He is risen indeed. Here are the best reasons why it's true. Culture is doing its best to convince the world there is nothing special about Jesus. And many Christians never get beyond a Sunday school understanding of their own faith. As a result, Christianity's most important historical fact, the resurrection, is often the most misunderstood, relegated to Easter and funeral services, creating a powerless Christianity. In Body of Proof, acclaimed apologist and scholar Dr. Jeremiah Johnston sets out to show why Jesus' victory over death is central to a believer's faith. Straightforward, accessible, and practical, this book examines the latest archaeological and textual findings, presents seven tangible, fresh reasons to believe Jesus really rose from the dead, explains why it matters today as the foundation of our hope in the face of suffering and grief. When you fully understand the implications of the resurrection, you will begin to understand the power of Christ in you. This changes everything. A creative masterpiece of persuasive evidence for the pivotal event of human history. LEE STROBEL, New York Times bestselling author.

Christians have Crisis? UNDERSTANDING CRISIS AND THE AFTERMATH Judith Isaacs-Herrig, M.Ed. QIDP, 2018-07-29. Of course Christians have crisis. As human beings, we are surrounded by temptation; we all make mistakes, and we all suffer with trials in our lives. Unfortunately, there are well-intended Christians who attempt to minister to those suffering or in crisis without realizing how their words of wisdom could actually be counterproductive and potentially harmful. This book is a resource for ministry leaders, parents, teachers, and caregivers regarding mental illness, chronic pain, abortion, abuse, and addictions. It also covers marital and family issues. There are facts included throughout the book to reveal the prevalence of each topic, and listed resources to increase knowledge in those areas. Scripture is included throughout the book to provide solid Christian counsel through each topic. If someone came up to you today to reveal they are considering suicide or that they are addicted to porn or prescribed drugs, would you know what to say to them? What if someone wants to talk to you because they believe their spouse is having an affair or a mother believes her child is being molested or bullied or their adult child is being abused by their spouse? Would you know how to advise them? Are your words subjective? Are they productive? Are your words factual and scriptural As a church we need to teach that Christ is a loving and forgiving God We need to have compassion for the misunderstood As a church we need to be knowledgeable of current fads common problems in societies and families so we know how to respond to crises appropriately As a church we need to encourage a safe environment for those in need We need to minister to people with open minds and open hearts And we need to know when it is time to reach out for professional help Unimaginable Jeremiah J.
