

The book cover features a detailed illustration in a painterly style. A woman with a shaved head, wearing sunglasses and a dark, patterned dress, is the central figure. She is holding a small, light-colored animal, possibly a cat or a dog, in her arms. A small bird is perched on her head. The background is a dense, textured composition of brown and tan tones, with some red and pink accents. The overall mood is artistic and somewhat somber.

Wangechi Mutu Wangechi Mutu, 2010 Black women ideas of beauty ideas of strength unapologetic A thumb pushes on teeth Jewelled eyes misplaced lips and masks of black glitter expose the complexity and falsity of the modern representational world Born in Nairobi living in New York Wangechi Mutu is known for her painting sculpture film and performance work in which she does anything but shy away from critiquing the modern gaze Rather she focuses squarely on calling a spade a spade the Orientalist way the West looks at the African American woman the exaltation of consumerism and the role of technology and its intersection with humanity in the modern age Mutu is neither neutral nor exploratory at times she offers the visual equivalent of an indictment Mutu's protagonists tribal and technological wonderfully proud yet ceaselessly oppressed both blossom and collapse Driven by contradiction they draw us in Published in 2010 to accompany Mutu's first major exhibition in North America This You Call Civilization features reproductions of her major works on paper large scale installations and stills from videos as well as essays by David Moos Jennifer Gonzales Michelle Jacques Odili Donald Odita Raphael Rubinstein Carol Thompson and Rinaldo Walcott Interleaved between the essays are excerpts from books selected by Mutu about brutal colonial repression the Harlem Renaissance and the Rwandan genocide

Undesirability and Her Sisters Tiffany E. Barber, 2025-05-20 How Black women's visual work functions in an era of new racial and gender meaning In the wake of contemporary art's post Black turn and the mainstreaming of intersectionality Undesirability and Her Sisters charts a new genealogy of Black women's art that exposes the unfinished project of racial and gender empowerment in the twenty first century Tiffany Barber argues that Black women's social positions at the intersection of race gender sexuality and class are inherently queer thus spurring unexpected aesthetic strategies that throw into high relief the ethical terrain of what it means to be Black and a woman now Undesirability and Her Sisters collates what Barber terms undesirable representations of Black female bodies in recent American sculpture collage photography and dance based performance art by Kara Walker Wangechi Mutu Xaviera Simmons and Narcissister These works not only engage the visual senses but also incorporate olfactory haptic and sonic experiences that challenge traditional interpretations of Blackness and womanhood in art history Black Studies feminist and gender studies dance and performance studies and queer studies Instead of transcendental beauty wholeness and individual and collective becoming the perverse Black female figures profiled here eschew sublimation and synthesis as necessary responses to racial and gender subjugation in the past present and future Through its unique groundbreaking analysis this book contributes to the ongoing discussions on the ethics of representation the capacity to speak and act for oneself to have significance and impact and ultimately to reject acknowledgment The Reckoning Eleanor Heartney, Helaine Posner, Nancy Princenthal, Sue Scott, 2014-05-12 The authors of After the Revolution return with an incisive study of the work of contemporary women artists In After the Revolution the authors concluded that The battles may not all have been won but barricades are gradually coming down and work proceeds on all fronts in glorious profusion Now with The Reckoning authors Heartney Posner Princenthal and Scott bring into focus the accomplishments of 24 acclaimed international women artists born since 1960 who have benefited from the groundbreaking efforts of their predecessors The book is organized in four thematic sections Bad Girls profiles artists whose work represents an assault on conventional notions of gender and racial difference History Lessons offers reflections on the self in the context of history and globalization Spellbound focuses on women s embrace of the irrational subjective and surreal while Domestic Disturbances takes on women s conflicted relationship to home family and security Written in lively prose and fully illustrated throughout this book gives an informed account of the wonderful diversity of recent contemporary art by women An indispensable contribution to the literature on contemporary art by women Whitney Chadwick author of Women Art and Society In the 2007 book After the Revolution Women Who Transformed Contemporary Art the authors set a new standard in documenting and evaluating the work of a dozen key women artists spanning generations between the 1960s to the 2000s The beat goes on with the appearance of The Reckoning written by the same authors in the same accessible scholarly style but reflecting important historical changes over the past decade and more In line with the increased presence of women in mainstream art the book includes twice as many artists as its predecessor And its global reach has expanded vastly stretching from Europe and the Americas to Africa and China Holland Cotter The New York Times

Concerning Consequences Kristine Stiles,2016-03-21 Kristine Stiles has played a vital role in establishing trauma studies within the humanities A formidable force in the art world Stiles examines the significance of traumatic experiences both in the individual lives and works of artists and in contemporary international cultures since World War II In Concerning Consequences she considers some of the most notorious art of the second half of the twentieth century by artists who use their bodies to address destruction and violence The essays in this book focus primarily on performance art and photography From war and environmental pollution to racism and sexual assault Stiles analyzes the consequences of trauma as seen in the works of artists like Marina Abramovic Pope L and Chris Burden Assembling rich intellectual explorations on everything from Paleolithic paintings to the Bible s patriarchal legacies to documentary images of nuclear explosions Concerning Consequences explores how art can provide a distinctive means of understanding trauma and promote individual and collective healing

The Afterlives of Frankenstein Robert I. Lublin,Elizabeth A. On the Sleeve of the Visual Alessandra Raengo, 2013 An investigation of race and the ontology of the visual Socially Just Pedagogies Rosi Braidotti, Vivienne Bozalek, Tamara Shefer, Michalinos Zembylas, 2018-06-14 This book addresses contemporary philosophical issues in higher education and how we can create socially just pedagogies and a socially just university Providing a forum for thinking through how critical posthumanism affect theory and feminist new materialisms provide a useful lens for higher education and shows how these standpoints can benefit methods and practices of learning and teaching Gross inequalities in higher education continue to affect pedagogical practices across geopolitical contexts and there is a need to consider new theories which call into question the commonplace humanist assumptions currently dominating the discourse around social justice in this context However scholarship on the affective turn critical posthumanism and new material feminisms opens both new possibilities and responsibilities for higher education pedagogies

The approaches of this book also provide imaginative ways of engaging with current dissatisfactions with higher education from the marketization of education to issues of racism discrimination and lack of diversity Of international relevance this collection particularly foreground southern contexts and case studies such as the student activism in South African universities that has sparked a global project of decolonization and social justice in educational institutions This book is an urgent call to reconceptualize rethink and reconfigure pedagogies in higher education and the implications for future citizenship and social participation Indigenous Creatures, Native Knowledges, and the Arts Wendy Woodward, Susan McHugh, 2017-10-17 This volume illuminates how creative representations remain sites of ongoing struggles to engage with animals in indigenous epistemologies Traditionally imagined in relation to spiritual realms and the occult animals have always been more than primitive symbols of human relations Whether as animist gods familiars conduits to ancestors totems talismans or co creators of multispecies cosmologies animals act as vital players in the lives of cultures From early days in colonial contact zones through contemporary expressions in art film and literature the volume s unique emphasis on Southern Africa and North America historical loci of the greatest ranges of species and linguistic diversity help to situate how indigenous knowledges of human animal relations are being adapted to modern conditions of life shared across species lines

Worlding PHILIPPE. DESCOLA, 2025-10-03 The Politics of Worlding presents Philippe Descola's Tanner Lectures on Human Values delivered in 2023 at the University of California Berkeley. It offers a highly readable précis of some of the central ideas that animate Descola's work and an excellent gateway into a new vision of anthropology developed by one of its most distinguished practitioners. The lectures draw heavily on Descola's research among Achuar peoples formerly known as Jivaro of the Upper Amazon and on his erudite knowledge of the comparative literature in anthropology. He presents evidence that people in different societies construe the relation between nature and culture in fundamentally different ways according to how they view human beings versus other than human beings. Modern Euro-American naturalism holds that the laws of nature are universal and apply continuously across life forms, whereas human mental processes, self-consciousness, and inner lives are unlike and hence discontinuous with the inner lives of non-human beings. Descola critiques this schema as anachronistic and destructive in the way it has led us to construct our world. He proposes alternative ways of thinking about worlding that might lead to less destructive outcomes and provides a four-part typology of alternative relationships between the human and non-human, employing fascinating examples from the field. The commentators, political theorist Adom Getachew, environmental historian Timothy J. LeCain, and comparative archaeologist David Wengrow, respond to the lectures and emphasize the importance of history, hybridity, and the need for new multidisciplinary approaches to which Descola responds in a final chapter. Intellectually compelling, politically critical, and forward-looking, and including an introduction by the volume editor William F. Hanks, The Politics of Worlding will be valuable for scholars and students alike interested in a concise presentation of the views of one of its most visionary theorists. Flash Art, 2008 Dress Codes Vince Aletti, 2009 The International Center of Photography exhibition Dress Codes: The Third ICP Triennial of Photography and Video is a global survey of contemporary photography and video art. The exhibition features over 100 recent works by 34 artists from 18 countries. The artists include Mickalene Thomas, Yto Barrada, Kimsooja, Thorsten Brinkmann, Cindy Sherman, Stan Douglas, and Lorna Simpson. Unpacking My Library Marcel Proust, 2017-01-01 A captivating tour of the bookshelves of ten leading artists exploring the intricate connections between reading, artistic practice, and identity. Taking its inspiration from Walter Benjamin's seminal 1931 essay The Unpacking My Library, the series charts a spirited exploration of the reading and book-collecting practices of today's leading thinkers. Artists and Their Books showcases the personal libraries of ten important contemporary artists based in the United States: Mark Dion, Theaster Gates, Wangechi Mutu, Ed Ruscha, and Carrie Mae Weems; Canada: Janet Cardiff and George Bures Miller; and the United Kingdom: Billy Childish, Tracey Emin, and Martin Parr. Through engaging interviews, the artists discuss the necessity of reading and the meaning of books in their lives and careers. This is a book about books, but it even more importantly highlights the role of literature in shaping an artist's self-presentation and persona. Photographs of each artist's bookshelves present an evocative glimpse of personal taste, of well-loved and rare volumes, and of the individual touches that make a bookshelf one's own. The interviews are accompanied by top ten reading lists assembled by each artist an introduction by Jo Steffens and Marcel Proust's seminal essay On Reading

Wangechi Mutu A Shady Promise: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Wangechi Mutu A Shady Promise : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Wangechi Mutu A Shady Promise : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
