Chris Hoke

Wanted A Spiritual Pursuit Through Jail Among Outlaws And Across Borders:

Wanted Chris Hoke,2015-02-03 Interweaving his own story with moving vignettes and gritty experiences in hidden places a jail chaplain and minister to Mexican gang and migrant worker communities chronicles his spiritual journey to the margins of society and reveals a subversive God who s on the loose beyond the walls of the church pursuing those who are unwanted by the world Wanted follows a restless young man from the sunny suburbs of his youth to the darker side of society in the rainy Northwest where he finds the direct spiritual experience he s been seeking while volunteering as a night shift chaplain at a men s correctional facility The jail becomes his portal to a mysterious world on the margins of society where a growing network of Mexican gang members soon dub him their pastor As he comes to terms with this uncomfortable title and embraces the role of a shepherd of black sheep his adventures truly begin Hoke shares comic heartbreaking and sublime tales of sacred moments in unlikely situations singing with an attempted suicide in the jail s isolation cell dodging immigration and airport security with migrant farm workers and fly fishing with tattooed gangsters Set against the misty Washington landscape this unconventional congregation at times mirrors the Skagit Valley s fleeting migratory swans and unseen salmon But Hoke takes us with him into riskier terrain as he gains and loses friends to the prison system and even faces his own despair as well as belovedness on the back of a motorcycle racing through Guatemalan slums In these stories of mystical portraiture like the old WANTED posters of outlaws Hoke bears witness to an elusive Presence that is still alive and defiant of official custody Such portraits offer a new vision of the forgotten souls who have been cast into society s dumpsters helping us see beneath even the hardest criminal a fragile desire to be wanted Wanted Chris Hoke,2013

The Abolition Lectionary Hannah Bowman,Wesley Spears-Newsome,Guillermo Arboleda,2025-07-23 The Biblical message of liberation to captives around the entire liturgical year What does the Bible say about prisons and justice The Abolition Lectionary is a devotional and preaching aid that presents the many resonances between Christian theology and prison abolition Following the three year cycle of the Revised Common Lectionary each essay addresses one text for each Sunday The variety of texts present a breadth of interpretive perspectives that show the connections between the biblical narrative of liberation and the modern day prison abolition movement The movement of the lectionary across the seasons of the church year grounds the promise of liberation in the everyday practices of Christian life The Abolition Lectionary grew out of a blog series of the same name on the website of Christians for the Abolition of Prisons that ran from 2020-2023 With contributors from many different Christian traditions it offers an ecumenical scriptural liturgical ethical radical and accessible entry point to learning about abolition For Christians interested in personal devotional reading or for preachers and clergy looking to bring urgent concerns about prisons policing and restorative and transformative justice into their lectionary preaching The Abolition Lectionary finds abolitionist perspectives across the scope of the biblical story Play Among Books Miro Roman,Alice_ch3n81,2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science
