War Genocide And Justice Cambodian American Memory Work

Cathy J. Schlund-Vials

War Genocide And Justice Cambodian American Memory Work:

War, Genocide, and Justice Cathy J. Schlund-Vials, 2012 In the three years eight months and twenty days of the Khmer Rouge's deadly reign over Cambodia an estimated 1.7 million Cambodians perished as a result of forced labor execution starvation and disease Despite the passage of more than thirty years two regime shifts and a contested U N intervention only one former Khmer Rouge official has been successfully tried and sentenced for crimes against humanity in an international court of law to date It is against this background of war genocide and denied justice that Cathy J Schlund Vials explores the work of 1.5 generation Cambodian American artists and writers Drawing on what James Young labels memory work the collected articulation of large scale human loss War Genocide and Justice investigates the remembrance work of Cambodian American cultural producers through film memoir and music Schlund Vials includes interviews with artists such as Anida Yoeu Ali praCh Ly Sambath Hy and Socheata Poeuv Alongside the enduring legacy of the Killing Fields and post 9 11 deportations of Cambodian American youth artists potently reimagine alternative sites for memorialization reclamation and justice Traversing borders these artists generate forms of genocidal remembrance that combat amnesic politics and revise citizenship practices in the United States and Cambodia Engaged in politicized acts of resistance individually produced and communally consumed Cambodian American memory work represents a significant and previously unexamined site of Asian American critique

Masquerades of War Christine Sylvester, 2015-05-22 This collection explores the concepts and practices of masquerade as they apply to concepts and practices of war The contributors insist that masquerades are everyday aspects of the politics praxis and experiences of war while also discovering that finding masquerades and tracing how they work with war is hardly simple With a range of theories innovative methodologies and contextual binoculars masquerade emerges as a layered and complex phenomenon It can appear as state deception lie or camouflage as in the population centric American warfare in Iraq that was sold as good for the local people or the hidden violence Russian military forces used on each other and on local men in Chechnya Masquerade can also be part of a people's war logic as exemplified by the Maoist movement in India Yet masquerade can also be understood as a normal social mask that people don to foreground an identity or belief from one's cluttered repertoire in order to gain agency Elements of masquerade can appear in texts that proclaim seemingly unequivocal positions while simultaneously yet subtly suggesting opposing positions Masquerades of all kinds also seem ubiquitous in fieldwork research and in resistance movements in war zones Perhaps masquerade though is ultimately the denial of death lurking behind the clarion call of security a call that bolsters war by making militarized policing normal to secure populations from terrorists These interpretations and others comprise Masquerades of War This book will be of much interest to students of critical war studies critical security conflict studies and IR in general

Looking Back on the Vietnam War Brenda M. Boyle, Jeehyun Lim, 2016-06-17 More than forty years have passed since the official end of the Vietnam War yet the war's legacies endure Its history and iconography still provide fodder for film and fiction communities of war refugees have spawned a wide Vietnamese diaspora and the United States military remains embroiled in unwinnable wars with eerie echoes of Vietnam Looking Back on the Vietnam War brings together scholars from a broad variety of disciplines who offer fresh insights on the war's psychological economic artistic political and environmental impacts Each essay examines a different facet of the war from its representation in Marvel comic books to the experiences of Vietnamese soldiers exposed to Agent Orange By putting these pieces together the contributors assemble an expansive yet nuanced composite portrait of the war and its global legacies Though they come from diverse scholarly backgrounds ranging from anthropology to film studies the contributors are united in their commitment to original research Whether exploring rare archives or engaging in extensive interviews they voice perspectives that have been excluded from standard historical accounts Looking Back on the Vietnam War thus embarks on an interdisciplinary and international investigation to discover what we remember about the war how we remember it and why

A Race So Different Joshua Chambers-Letson, 2023-11-21 Winner of the 2014 Outstanding Book Award presented by the Association for

Theatre in Higher Education Taking a performance studies approach to understanding Asian American racial subjectivity Joshua Takano Chambers Letson argues that the law influences racial formation by compelling Asian Americans to embody and perform recognizable identities in both popular aesthetic forms such as theater opera or rock music and in the rituals of everyday life Tracing the production of Asian American selfhood from the era of Asian Exclusion through the Global War on Terror A Race So Different explores the legal paradox whereby U S law apprehends the Asian American body as simultaneously excluded from and included within the national body politic Bringing together broadly defined forms of performance from artistic works such as Madame Butterfly to the Supreme Court's oral arguments in the Cambodian American deportation cases of the twenty first century this book invites conversation about how Asian American performance uses the stage to document interrogate and complicate the processes of racialization in U S law Through his impressive use of a rich legal and cultural archive Chambers Letson articulates a robust understanding of the construction of social and racial realities in the contemporary United States

Southeast Asian Diaspora in the United States Jonathan H. X. Lee, 2014-10-16 Southeast Asian Diaspora in the United States Memories and Visions Yesterday Today and Tomorrow provides various exploratory interpretations on Southeast Asian American subjectivities communities histories creativities and cultural expressions as they are revealed informed or infused with visions dreams and or memories of self in relation to others places time and events historically significant or quotidian The interaction and interplay of visions memories and subjectivities is the focus of examination and interpretation either directly or tangentially Authors explore varieties of homes religiosities creativities cultural forms and productions and queer sexualities utilizing critical ethnic and Asian American studies discourses coupled with other interdisciplinary approaches to provide new and alternative visions on Cambodian Hmong Filipino Indonesian Lao Thai and Vietnamese American subjects and their communities that links Southeast Asia to America in vexing creative and purposeful ways

The Cinema of Rithy Panh

Leslie Barnes, Joseph Mai, 2021-07-16 Born in 1964 Cambodian filmmaker Rithy Panh grew up in the midst of the Khmer Rouge's genocidal reign of terror which claimed the lives of many of his relatives After escaping to France where he attended film school he returned to his homeland in the late 1980s and began work on the documentaries and fiction films that have made him Cambodia's most celebrated living director The fourteen essays in The Cinema of Rithy Panh explore the filmmaker's unique aesthetic sensibility examining the dynamic and sensuous images through which he suggests that everything has a soul They consider how Panh represents Cambodia's traumatic past combining forms of individual and collective remembrance and the implications of this past for Cambodia's transition into a global present Covering documentary and feature films including his literary adaptations of Marguerite Duras and Kenzaburo they examine how Panh's attention to local context leads to a deep understanding of such major themes in global cinema as justice imperialism diaspora gender and labor Offering fresh takes on masterworks like The Missing Picture and S 21 while also shining a light on the director's lesser known films The Cinema of Rithy Panh will give readers a new appreciation for the boundless creativity and ethical sensitivity of one of Southeast Asia's cinematic visionaries

American Literature in Transition, 1950-1960 Steven Belletto, 2017-12-28 American Literature in Transition 1950-1960 explores the under recognized complexity and variety of 1950s American literature by focalizing discussions through a series of keywords and formats that encourage readers to draw fresh connections among literary form and concepts institutions cultures and social phenomena important to the decade The first section draws attention to the relationship between literature and cultural phenomena that were new to the 1950s The second section demonstrates the range of subject positions important in the 1950s but still not visible in many accounts of the era The third section explores key literary schools or movements associated with the decade and explains how and why they developed at this particular cultural moment The final section focuses on specific forms or genres that grew to special prominence during the 1950s Taken together the chapters in the four sections not only encourage us to rethink familiar texts and figures in new lights but they also propose new archives for future study of the decade

Photography and Migration Tanya Sheehan, 2018-06-14 Written in the context of unprecedented dislocation and a global refugee crisis this edited volume thinks through photography's long and complex relationship to human migration While contemporary media images largely frame migration in terms of trauma victimhood and pity so much more can be said of photography's role in the movement of people around the world Cameras can document enable or control human movement across geographical cultural and political divides Their operators put faces on forced and voluntary migrations making visible hardships and suffering as well as opportunity and optimism Photographers include migrating subjects who take pictures for their own consumption not for international recognition And photographs themselves migrate with their makers subjects and viewers as the very concept of photography takes on new functions and meanings Photography and Migration places into conversation media images and other photographs that the contributors have witnessed collected or created through their diverse national regional and local contexts Developed across thirteen chapters this conversation encompasses images histories and testimonies offering analysis of new perspectives on photography and migration today The Cambridge Companion to Asian American Literature Crystal Parikh, Daniel Y. Kim, 2015-08-20 This Companion surveys Asian American literature from the nineteenth century to the present day Asian American Literature Jinqi Ling, 2022-10-20 This book introduces Asian American literary studies by engaging the conditions contingencies and immediate and long term effects of its major debates Two rationales inform Ling's presentation of the field in this way first is a felt need to provide recognizable contours and trajectories for the evolution of Asian American criticism as an ethnic specific minoritarian formation in the United States second is an imperative to historicize its practices including polemics controversies and ideological ruptures as an ongoing negotiation undertaken by Asian American critics for a more self conscious and more adequate representation of the field's interests These rationales are fully contextualized in the book's Introduction and Conclusion The main body of this study is organized non chronologically into 8 chapters with each designed to reflect how the field has been energized by its demographic transformation its growing intellectual heterogeneity its defining moments and its cross cutting relationship with the trends in other disciplines What has emerged and been given prominence to in the surveys and discussions of this book then constitute the essential criticism of Asian American literary studies a discourse almost 5 decades in the making when examined retrospectively The Sage Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies Yen Le Espiritu, 2025-09-01 Refugees and displacement are defining issues of the 21st century with over 70 million asylum seekers refugees and stateless individuals forced from their homes as of 2020 Every two seconds one person is forcibly displaced due to climate change global epidemics and ongoing conflicts The SAGE Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies edited by members of The Critical Refugee Studies Collective serves as a vital and comprehensive resource for understanding the historical political and cultural dimensions of displacement Featuring over 250 authoritative articles this landmark reference work is organized into three key themes law politics and policy humanitarianism and humanitarian organizations and media culture and storytelling Drawing from disciplines such as migration studies Indigenous studies critical race studies environmental studies sociology political science law anthropology and the arts this encyclopedia critically examines refugee issues in relation to imperialism racism patriarchy and militarism Beyond academic analysis The SAGE Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies centers refugee voices through narratives first person accounts and visual storytelling highlighting the lived experiences communities and creative expressions of displaced individuals This essential resource is invaluable for scholars educators policymakers community based organizations and refugees themselves

Disability Studies and the Environmental Humanities Sarah Jaquette Ray, Jay Sibara, 2017-06 Although scholars in the environmental humanities have been exploring the dichotomy between wild and built environments for several years few have focused on the field of disability studies a discipline that enlists the contingency between environments and bodies as a foundation of its scholarship On the other hand scholars in disability studies have demonstrated the ways in which the built environment privileges some bodies and minds over others yet they have rarely examined the ways in which toxic environments engender chronic illness and disability or how environmental illnesses disrupt dominant paradigms for scrutinizing disability Designed as a reader for undergraduate and graduate courses Disability Studies and the Environmental Humanities employs interdisciplinary perspectives to examine such issues as slow violence imperialism race toxicity eco sickness the body in environmental justice ableism and other topics With a historical scope spanning the seventeenth century to the present this collection not only presents the foundational documents informing this intersection of fields but also showcases the most current work making it an indispensable reference Asian America Cathy J.

Schlund-Vials,K. America Rising Diane Wong,Mark Tseng-Putterman,2025-09-16 A collection of movement flashpoints and insurgent visions for Asian American activism In the late 1960s Asian American political activism emerged to unite disparate Asian diasporic communities living in the United States behind a radical political identity shaped by the Black Power and anti imperialist movements of their times Today Asian Americans are more diverse and at times more politically divided than ever before In media and electoral politics Asian Americans are celebrated as the fastest growing racial demographic in the United States and claimed as evidence of racial progress Yet the rise of Asian America rarely centers the coordinated forms of grassroots political organizing that Asian Americans have used to shape their place in society In Asian America Rising Diane Wong and Mark Tseng Putterman bring together an interdisciplinary group of established and emerging scholars of Asian American activism and politics community organizers artists archivists and others to highlight the diversity of twenty first century Asian American political movements across a number of critical areas Based on deep collaborations between scholars and frontline organizers contributors like Diane Fujino Vichet Chhuon Lakshmi Sridaran and Kim Compoc examine different facets of the Asian American political experience including the impact of immigrant detention and deportation the emergence of conservative Chinese American opposition to affirmative action in higher education abolitionist perspectives on the Stop Asian Hate movement and transnational resistance to U S economic and military dominance in Hawai i the Philippines and Okinawa Ultimately Wong and Tseng Putterman show important shifts and emergent directions for Asian American politics in the twenty first century Focusing on grassroots mobilization and bold interventions beyond the formal political sphere they shine a light on the diversity and power of Asian American political activism cultural work community building mutual aid and multiracial issue based organizing

Racial Ambiguity in Asian American Culture Jennifer Ann Ho, 2015-05-12 The sheer diversity of the Asian American populace makes them an ambiguous racial category Indeed the 2010 U S Census lists twenty four Asian ethnic groups lumping together under one heading people with dramatically different historical backgrounds and cultures In Racial Ambiguity in Asian American Culture Jennifer Ann Ho shines a light on the hybrid and indeterminate aspects of race revealing ambiguity to be paramount to a more nuanced understanding both of race and of what it means to be Asian American Exploring a variety of subjects and cultural artifacts Ho reveals how Asian American subjects evince a deep racial ambiguity that unmoors the concept of race from any fixed or finite understanding For example the book examines the racial ambiguity of Japanese American nisei Yoshiko Nakamura deLeon who during World War II underwent an abrupt transition from being an enemy alien to an assimilating American via the Mixed Marriage Policy of 1942 It looks at the blogs of Korean Taiwanese and Vietnamese Americans who were adopted as children by white American families and have conflicted feelings about their honorary white status And it discusses Tiger Woods the most famous mixed race Asian American whose description of himself as Cablinasian reflecting his background as Black Asian Caucasian and Native American perfectly captures the ambiguity of racial classifications Race is an abstraction that we treat as concrete a construct that reflects only our desires fears and anxieties Jennifer Ho demonstrates in Racial Ambiguity in Asian American Culture that seeing race as ambiguous puts us one step closer to a potential antidote to racism
