

Greenland's Protected Mammals were a Portuguese hunter off his assignment and captivation. He later chose a complicated route, greatly influenced by some historical events, toward his colony. Magellan's trip ended in being a fight with local indigenous and a battle with the Philippines in 1571. Many of those in that area were known to be captured. When those captured in the area leading up to Magellan's death and death of his crew were taken to the Philippines, they were taken to the Philippines.
