Wasted Lives Modernity And Its Outcasts:

Wasted Lives Zygmunt Bauman, 2013-04-26 The production of human waste or more precisely wasted lives the superfluous populations of migrants refugees and other outcasts is an inevitable outcome of modernization It is an unavoidable side effect of economic progress and the quest for order which is characteristic of modernity As long as large parts of the world remained wholly or partly unaffected by modernization they were treated by modernizing societies as lands that were able to absorb the excess of population in the developed countries Global solutions were sought and temporarily found to locally produced overpopulation problems But as modernization has reached the furthest lands of the planet redundant population is produced everywhere and all localities have to bear the consequences of modernity's global triumph They are now confronted with the need to seek in vain it seems local solutions to globally produced problems The global spread of the modernity has given rise to growing quantities of human beings who are deprived of adequate means of survival but the planet is fast running out of places to put them Hence the new anxieties about immigrants and asylum seekers and the growing role played by diffuse security fears on the contemporary political agenda With characteristic brilliance this new book by Zygmunt Bauman unravels the impact of this transformation on our contemporary culture and politics and shows that the problem of coping with human waste provides a key for understanding some otherwise baffling features of our shared life from the strategies of global domination to the most intimate aspects of human relationships

Wasted Lives Modernity and Its Outcasts, 2004 Zygmunt Bauman Textbook Tony Blackshaw, 2005 This timely book provides the definitive concise introduction to Zygmunt Bauman A well written text it assumes no prior knowledge of his work and will appeal to those wishing to explore the ideas of one of the world's most wide ranging thinkers Wasted Lives Julie Boden, 2003-01-01 The Sociology of Zygmunt Bauman Michael Hviid Jacobsen, 2016-03-03 Zygmunt Bauman is one of the most inspirational and controversial thinkers on the scene of contemporary sociology For several decades he has provided compelling analyses and diagnoses of a vast variety of aspects of modern and liquid modern living This book considers the theoretical significance of his contribution to sociology but also discusses and adopts a critical stance towards his work The Sociology of Zygmunt Bauman introduces and critically appraises some of the most significant as well as some of the lesser known of Bauman's contributions to contemporary sociology An international team of scholars delineates and discusses how Bauman's treatment of these themes challenges conventional wisdom in sociology thereby revising and revitalizing sociological theory As a special feature the book concludes with Bauman's intriguing reflections and contemplations on his own life and intellectual trajectory published here for the first time in English In this postscript aptly entitled Pro Domo Sua About Myself he describes the pushes and pulls that throughout the years have shaped his thinking

Humanities and Option for the Poor Clemens Sedmak, 2005 The concept of a preferential option for the poor calls for a special attention to the weakest members of a particular society Such an option is a challenge for the ethics of science as well How can we pursue an option for the poor in the humanities Can we do that without generating ideologies This volume gives an account of these questions Representatives of sociology religious studies law economics theology history and philosophy try to answer this question It is manifest that the discussion of an option for the poor is also a matter of intellectual integrity

Liquid Society and Its Law Jiří Příbáň, 2016-05-06 This collection of essays brings together Zygmunt Bauman and a number of internationally distinguished legal scholars who examine the influence of Bauman's recent works on social theory of law and socio legal studies Contributors focus on the concept of liquid society and its adoption by legal scholars The volume opens with Bauman's analysis of fears and policing in liquid society and continues by examining the social and legal theoretical context and implications of Bauman's theory

Restless Infections Jay Pather, 2025-06 Restless Infections is an innovative collection of critical essays exploring artistic interventions in urban spaces focusing on place making and the politics of space in post colonial South Africa The title refers to Cape Town's popular Infecting the City public art festival and the persistent state of restlessness of a city still grappling with the legacies of colonialism inequality and racial segregation The concept of restlessness provides a critical tool for understanding public space in a country desiring economic and political stability as expressed through transient art forms such as Santu Mofokeng's billboard photography The volume shifts the focus of public art discourse in South Africa from static forms like monuments and statues to dynamic temporary interventions offering fresh perspectives on public art as an interactive community engaged practice The interventions engage with protest public intimacy audience interaction and the disrupted topography of apartheid cities Through an examination of seminal artworks contributors address diverse forms of expression that range from site specific performances immersive installations film and photography to online performances They introduce new perspectives on public sphere performance such as Khanyisile Mbongwa's re imagining of township alleyways for public encounters and Mbongeni Mtshali's study of everyday performances that challenge colonial and neo colonial spatial organisation The book is divided into three sections The Restless City Public Art for Multiple Publics and Land Home Belonging It features both critical essays and visual documentation of the powerful often temporary public artworks providing readers with an opportunity to explore cutting edge artistic practices that tackle global issues like inequality segregation and public space reclamation Restless Infections reads public spheres through a multi and interdisciplinary lens and makes a strong contribution to our understanding of the complexities of public art in South Africa It will appeal to academics students and practitioners across the fields of art cultural studies and social justice

An Eclectic Bestiary Birgit Spengler, Babette B. Tischleder, 2019-06-04 The essays poetry and visual art collected here consider the more than human cultures of our multispecies world At a time when humanity's impact has put our planet's ecosystems into great jeopardy the book explores literary sonic and visual imaginaries that feature encounters between and across a variety of living creatures beetles and bisons people and pigeons trees and spiderwebs vegetables and violets orchards and octopi vampires and tricksters Offering a wide range of critical and creative contributions to Human Animal Studies Critical Plant Studies and the Nonhuman Turn the volume seeks to foster new ways of imagining a more response able coexistence on our shared Earth

Breaching Borders Juliet Steyn, 2014-06-25 As migration is described as a problem mobility is seen as a goal In a Europe without Borders a place that prides itself on multiculturalism while struggling with racism two opposing paradigms characterise contemporary discussions surrounding migrants Breaching Borders Art Migrants and the Metaphor of Waste aims to interrogate the familiar debates evolving new textual and interdisciplinary approaches to European cultural policies and unmasking the assumptions of the essentialist identity politics that go undeclared at the borders of cultural discourse Twelve leading figures in post colonial and translation studies political philosophy art radical aesthetics policy making and sociology reflect on the political and cultural meanings of migration their arguments framed by artworks that provide glimpses of cross cultural encounters Essays including a meditation on wasted lives by internationally renowned academic Zygmunt Bauman explore the challenges of migration history and integration and attempt to develop radical new figurations of migrant identity underlining the necessity of an imaginative reach towards The Other This book brings together the roles of translation and of art in the central metaphor of waste the trail of rubbish left behind by mechanisms of mobility the excised narratives of wasted identities and people

Blurring Boundaries: Human Security and Forced Migration Stefan Salomon, Lisa Heschl, Gerd Oberleitner, Wolfgang Benedek, 2017-06-12 In Blurring Boundaries Human Security and Forced Migration scholars from law and social sciences offer a fresh view on the major issues of forced migration through the lens of human security Although much scholarship engages with forced migration and human security independently they have hardly been weaved together in a comprehensive manner The contributions cover the issues of refugee law maritime migration human smuggling and trafficking and environmental migration Blurring Boundaries critically engages boundaries produced in the law with the main ideas of human security thus providing a much needed novel vocabulary for a critical discourse in forced migration studies

Structural Lie Charles C. Lemert, 2015-12-22 The Structural Lie tackles one of social science s most mysterious problems How is it possible to derive statements about the grand structures of social life from their effects in the small movements of everyday life Prominent sociologist Charles Lemert shows how Marx and Freud provide some answers to this question Marx derived from the commodity his picture of the capitalist system Freud diagnosed the character of psyches from the details of dreams slips and jokes This wonderfully readable and engaging book lays the foundation for a new social science in an age where a microchip can convey a world of information

Lonely Vectors Kenneth Tay, 2022-11-07 Lonely Vectors takes its cue from Singapore Art Museum s new space at the Tanjong Pagar Distripark as a site of the global economy and its choreography of movements However its interests in global flows extend beyond the circulation of goods and commodities to consider the bodies and histories unmoored and set adrift by this world in motion From the construction of special economic zones to patterns of migration from seed distribution to peasant solidarity against mega plantations from the uneven flow of land and water to the cosmologies and worlds lost to us over time Lonely Vectors points to the different ways we desire to connect with one another Postcolonial Europe in the Crucible of Cultures, 2007-01-01 Over the past forty years Europe has grown as a global presence and today it plays an important role in a variety of ways politically socially economically and culturally European theologians have no choice but to take cognizance of this fact and respond to the broad social challenges by clarifying their views on God and being a prophetic voice in cultural political and social decision making The authors in this volume take up four main contemporary global challenges i e globalization violence gender and the environment and the volume provides its readers with first rate theological reflections in Europe The articles offered here are the result of an intensive workshop held in Leuven in September 2004 and are sponsored by the European Commission and the VLIR as part of a three year study program on the understanding of God in Europe The Migrant's Paradox Suzanne M. Hall, 2021-03-16 Connects global migration with urban marginalization exploring how race maps onto place across the globe state and street In this richly observed account of migrant shopkeepers in five cities in the United Kingdom Suzanne Hall examines the brutal contradictions of sovereignty and capitalism in the formation of street livelihoods in the urban margins Hall locates The Migrant's Paradox on streets in the far flung parts of de industrialized peripheries where jobs are hard to come by and the impacts of historic state underinvestment are deeply felt Drawing on hundreds of in person interviews on streets in Birmingham Bristol Leicester London and Manchester Hall brings together histories of colonization with current forms of colonality Her six year project spans the combined impacts of the 2008 financial crisis austerity governance punitive immigration laws and the Brexit Referendum and processes of state sanctioned regeneration She incorporates the spaces of shops conference halls and planning offices to capture how official border talk overlaps with everyday formations of work and belonging on the street Original and ambitious Hall's work complicates understandings of migrants demonstrating how migrant journeys and claims to space illuminate the relations between global displacement and urban emplacement In articulating a citizenship of the edge as an adaptive and audacious mode of belonging she shows how sovereignty and inequality are maintained and refuted OC-Open City. The Contemporary Bauman Anthony Elliott, 2013-10-08 This text covers Bauman's contribution to sociology and social theory This ideal teaching text analyzes Bauman's shift from a sociology of postmodernity to liquid modernity and provides a critical assessment of the contemporary Bauman appraising his novel theory of liquid modernity in terms of its implications for self identity interpersonal relationships culture communications and the broad ranging institutional transformations associated with globalization In addition to various extracts from Bauman's work the book also contains a spirited reply from Zygmunt Bauman to both his sympathetic and unsympathetic critics Bauman concludes by providing a new perspectives on his theory of liquid modernity its differentiation from the modernity postmodernity debate and its relation to current developments in contemporary social theory Dead-End Lives Briggs, Daniel, Monge Gamero, Rubén, 2017-11-08 Using vivid testimonies and images Briggs and Monge document the stories and situations of the people who live in Valdeming mez placing them in a political economic and social context Trans-local Lives: Class, Gender and Rurality in post-2004 Migration between Ireland and Poland Natalia Mazurkiewicz, 2019-08-28 This book is concerned with the classed and gendered characteristics of post 2004 migration between two non city locales in Ireland Newcastle West Co Limerick and Poland Tczew pomorskie voivodeship It documents and analyses this contemporary migration wave as a sociocultural phenomenon and sheds light on the strategies developed by the participants through which they rationalise and negotiate their mobile lifestyles Content Introduction Chapter 1 Polish Capitalism and the Legacies of Communism and Catholicism Chapter 2 Post 2004 Polish Migration to Ireland Chapter 3 Theorising Contemporary Migration Chapter 4 Researching Contemporary Migration Methodological Considerations Chapter 5 The Trans local Habitus Reproducing Rurality in Migration Chapter 6 Ordinary People Living Normal Lives Formations of the Migrant Working Class Chapter 7 Making Migration Livable Negotiations between Mobility and Emplacement Chapter 8 Polish Masculinities and Femininities Constructions of Gender Identities in Migration Conclusion Spirit and the Obligation of Social Flesh Sharon V. Betcher, 2013-11-11 Drawing on philosophical reflection spiritual and religious values and somatic practice Spirit and the Obligation of Social Flesh offers guidance for moving amidst the affective dynamics that animate the streets of the global cities now amassing around our planet Here theology turns decidedly secular In urban medieval Europe seculars were uncloistered persons who carried their spiritual passion and sense of an obligated life into daily circumambulations of the city Seculars lived in the city on behalf of the city but contrary to the new profit economy of the time with a different locus of value spirit Betcher argues that for seculars today the possibility of a devoted life the practice of felicity in history still remains Spirit now names a necessary prosthesis a locus for regenerating the elemental commons of our interdependent flesh and thus for cultivating spacious and fearless empathy forbearance and generosity Her theological poetics though based in Christianity are frequently in conversation with other religions resident in our postcolonial cities
