Tracing Archaeology's Past The Historiography Of Archaeology Publications In Archaeology Series:

Tracing Archaeology's Past Andrew L. Christenson, 1989 Critical Approaches to Fieldwork Gavin Lucas, 2002-01-04
This work takes as its starting point the role of fieldwork and how this has changed over the past 150 years The author argues against progressive accounts of fieldwork and instead places it in its broader intellectual context to critically examine the relationship between theoretical paradigms and everyday archaeological practice In providing a much needed historical and critical evaluation of current practice in archaeology this book opens up a topic of debate which affects all archaeologists whatever their particular interests The World of the Western Greeks Kathryn Lomas, 2025-07-18 This volume presents studies by international experts on aspects of the society economy religion culture and history of the Greek settlements of the ancient western Mediterranean one of the most innovative areas of the ancient Greek world Across 43 chapters this book synthesizes material evidence integrates this with ancient sources and introduces key methodological debates on the nature and study of Greek settlement in the west It provides an overview of the history of the region from earliest contact with the Greek world to the Roman period and examines the relationships between Greek and non Greek populations of the western Mediterranean and how they shaped each other's histories and cultures The volume also explores aspects of the economy society and culture of the region illustrating the contribution of the western Greeks to shaping wider Greek culture and identity By adopting a wide ranging approach integrating material evidence and ancient sources it illuminates the diversity and innovative nature of the western Greek world from its earliest development to the aftermath of the Roman conquest The World of the Western Greeks is an essential reference work for students and scholars of the Greek western Mediterranean and its history culture and society Women Writing Greece, 2008-01-01 Women Writing Greece explores images of modern Greece by women who experienced the country as travellers writers and scholars or who journeyed there through the imagination The essays assembled here consider women's travel narratives memoirs and novels ranging from the eighteenth to the late twentieth century focusing on the role of gender in travel and cross cultural mediation and challenging stereotypical views of the Greek journey traditionally seen as an antiquarian or Byronic pursuit This collection aims to cast new light on women's participation in the discourses of Hellenism and Orientalism examining their ideological rendering of Greece as at once a luminous land and a site crossed by contradictory cultural memories Arranged chronologically the essays discuss encounters with Greece by among others Lady Elizabeth Craven Lady Hester Stanhope Lady Montagu Lady Morgan Mary Shelley Felicia Skene Emily Pfeiffer Eva Palmer Jane Ellen Harrison Virginia Woolf Ethel Smyth Christa Wolf Penelope Storace and Gillian Bouras and analyse them through a variety of critical historical contextual and theoretical frames Art and the Early Greek State Michael Shanks, 2004-03-25 A contribution to recent debates on emerging Greek city states in the first millennium BC Modernist Melancholia Anne Enderwitz, 2015-07-02 Modernist Melancholia explores modernism's melancholic roots through the detailed discussion of writings by Freud Conrad and Ford Melancholia ties modernism to the 19th century obsession with loss and continuity and at the same time constitutes a formative moment in the history of 20th century literature modern subjectivity and critical theory Vision, Science and Literature, 1870-1920 Martin

Willis, 2015-07-22 This book explores the Victorian concept of vision across scientific and cultural forms Willis charts the characterization of vision through four organizing principles small large past and future to arrive at a Victorian conception of what vision was Willis then explores how this Victorian vision influenced twentieth century ways of seeing Human

Expeditions Stephen Chrisomalis, André Costopoulos, 2013-12-06 In its 2007 obituary of Bruce Trigger 1937 2006 the Times of London referred to the Canadian anthropologist and archaeologist as Canada's leading prehistorian and one of the most influential archaeologists of his time Trained at Yale University and a faculty member at McGill University for more than forty years he was best known for his History of Archaeological Thought which the Times called monumental Trigger inspired scholars all over the world through his questioning of assumptions and his engagement with social and political causes Human Expeditions pays tribute to Trigger's immense legacy by bringing together cutting edge work from internationally recognized and emerging researchers inspired by his example Covering the length and breadth of Trigger's wide ranging interests from Egyptology to the history of archaeological theory to North American aboriginal cultures this volume highlights the diversity of his academic work and the magnitude of his impact in many different areas of scholarship

Constructing Histories Asa R. Randall, 2015-08-25 This book provides a challenging interpretation of ancient hunter gatherer societies along the St Johns River in northeast Florida and reveals that these mounds were not just garbage dumps but rather intentionally constructed sacred mounds of immense significance to their creators The book presents a new theoretical framework for investigating shell mounds as places of history making through daily living ceremonies and burial ritual

An Asian Frontier Robert Oppenheim, 2016-06 In the nineteenth century the predominant focus of American anthropology centered on the native peoples of North America and most anthropologists would argue that Korea during this period was hardly a cultural area of great anthropological interest However this perspective underestimates Korea as a significant object of concern for American anthropology during the period from 1882 to 1945 otherwise a turbulent transitional period in Korea's history An Asian Frontier focuses on the dialogue between the American anthropological tradition and Korea from Korea's first treaty with the United States to the end of World War II with the goal of rereading anthropology's history and theoretical development through its Pacific frontier Drawing on notebooks and personal correspondence as well as the publications of anthropologists of the day Robert Oppenheim shows how and why Korea became an important object of study with for instance more published about Korea in the pages of American Anthropologist before 1900 than would be seen for decades after Oppenheim chronicles the actions of American collectors Korean mediators and metropolitan curators who first created Korean anthropological exhibitions for the public He moves on to examine anthropologists such as Ale Hrdlicka Walter Hough Stewart Culin Frederick Starr and Frank Hamilton Cushing who fit Korea into frameworks of evolution culture and race even as they engaged questions of imperialism that were raised by Japan's colonization of the country. In tracing the development of American anthropology's understanding of Korea, Oppenheim discloses the legacy present in our ongoing understanding of Korea and of anthropology's past.
