Glen Joshua D. Hendrick, 2013-08-12 The Hizmet Service Movement of Fethullah Glen is Turkey's most influential Islamic identity community Widely praised throughout the early 2000s as a mild and moderate variation on Islamic political identity the Glen Movement has long been a topic of both adulation and conspiracy in Turkey and has become more controversial as it spreads across the world In Glen Joshua D Hendrick suggests that when analyzed in accordance with its political and economic impact the Glen Movement despite both praise and criticism should be given credit for playing a significant role in Turkey's rise to global prominence Drawing on 14 months of ethnographic fieldwork in Turkey and the U S Hendrick examines the Glen Movement's role in Turkey's recent rise as well as its strategic relationship with Turkey's Justice and Development Party led government He argues that the movement's growth and impact both inside and outside Turkey position both its leader and its followers as indicative of a post political turn in twenty first century Islamic political identity in general and as illustrative of Turkey's political economic and cultural transformation in particular Joshua D Hendrick is Assistant Professor of Sociology and Global Studies at Loyola University Maryland in Baltimore

The House of Service David Tittensor, 2014 David Tittensor offers a groundbreaking new perspective on the G len movement a Turkish Muslim educational activist network that emerged in the 1960s and has grown into a global empire with an estimated worth of 25 billion Named after its leader Fethullah G len the movement has established more than 1 000 secular educational institutions in over 140 countries aiming to provide holistic education that incorporates both spirituality and the secular sciences Despite the movement s success little is known about how its schools are run or how Islam is operationalized Drawing on thirteen months of ethnographic fieldwork in Turkey Tittensor explores the movement s ideo theology and how it is practiced in the schools His interviews with both teachers and graduates from Africa Indonesia Central Asia and Turkey show that the movement is a missionary organization but of a singular kind its goal is not simply widespread religious conversion but a quest to recoup those Muslims who have apparently lost their way and to show non Muslims that Muslims can embrace modernity and integrate into the wider community Tittensor also examines the movement s operational side and shows how the schools represent an example of Mohammad Yunus's social business model a business with a social cause at its heart The House of Service is an insightful exploration of one of the world's largest transnational Muslim associations and will be invaluable for those seeking to understand how Islam will be perceived and practiced in the future

Hizmet in Transitions Paul Weller, 2022-04-21 In this open access monograph Paul Weller explores how the movement known as Hizmet meaning service is undergoing a period of transitions in Europe Inspired by the teaching and practice of the Turkish Islamic scholar Fethullah Gülen Hizmet has been active in Europe and other continents for several decades It has always been subject to some degree of contestation which has intensified following the July 2016 coup attempt in Turkey for which the current Turkish government holds Fethullah Gülen and Hizmet as responsible a claim they strongly deny In Turkey thousands of people associated with Hizmet have been imprisoned In Europe pressures have been brought to bear on the movement and its activities In charting a way forward Hizmet finds itself in a significant transitional period the nature and possible future trajectories of which are explored in this volume The book is informed by a comprehensive literature review and a recent research project which includes primary research interviews with key Hizmet figures in Europe and beyond It contends that to properly understand Hizmet in Europe one has to situate it in its interactive engagement both with its diverse European national contexts and with Fethullah Gülen's teaching and practice
