Traditional Baptist Ministers Ordination Manual

David Bebbington

Traditional Baptist Ministers Ordination Manual:

Interfaces Baptists and Others David Bebbington, 2014-07-08 The book is a collection of twenty one essays discussing how Baptists throughout the world have related to other Christians and to other institutions and movements over the centuries The theme of this collection of twenty one essays Baptists and Others includes relations with other Christians and with other institutions and movements What the authors ask has been the Baptist experience of engaging with different groups and developments The theme has been explored by means of case studies some of which are very specific in time and place while others cover long periods and more than one country In the first half the contents are arranged by period The first section examines early Baptists the second nineteenth century Baptists in Britain and America and the third Baptists in the twentieth century The second half turns to various parts of the world There is a section on Australia another on New Zealand and a third on Asia and Africa The overall picture is one of a complicated series of relationships as Baptists defined themselves as different from other bodies and yet especially in the twentieth century tried to co operate in mission and ecumenical endeavour Baptists are often regarded as enthusiastic separatists and unenthusiastic ecumenists These essays based on hard evidence rather than passing impressions are a necessary correction to superficial prejudices and show the reality to be much more complex and nuanced as well as varied over time and place The book is a smorgasbord of delights Yet readers should avoid the temptation to pick and choose from the menu ensuring rather that each offering is digested so they enjoy a balance and nutritious meal Derek Tidball

The People of God Paul Basden, David S. Dockery, 2009-08-01 The term Believers Church refers to those who regard the church as the fellowship of regenerate followers of Jesus Christ Membership in these churches is founded on a voluntary confession of Jesus as Lord Each member has access to God in worship and prayer and accepts responsibility for carrying the gospel to the world The Word of God serves as the final authority in all matters of faith and practice Written by capable thinkers in the Believers Church tradition The People of God addresses key issues in the area of ecclesiology The contributions represent a wide variety of mature theological reflection Exploring these ecclesiological concerns from a theological biblical historical and contemporary perspective these essays reflect the unity and diversity of the Believers Church heritage

The Minister's Manual, 1997 James W. Cox, 1996-09

Editor James W Cox has compiled a wealth of material from traditional and contemporary sources to help ministers of all denominations prepare sermons that will ignite the minds and spirits of parishoners

Pastoral Theology in the Baptist Tradition R. Robert Creech, 2021-10-26 A veteran Baptist pastor and ministry professor offers a distinctive free church

vision for pastoral leadership attending to voices from the past four centuries as they speak about the practice of ministry The book contains theological reflection on current ministry issues among Baptists based on biblical and historical foundations and reflects a diversity of Baptist life across time and around the world including many different voices Each chapter contains reflection questions to help readers consider the implications of Baptist thinking

Comparative

Religious Law Norman Doe, 2018-11-15 Comparative Religious Law provides for the first time a study of the regulatory instruments of Jewish Christian and Muslim religious organisations in Britain in light of their historical religious laws Norman Doe questions assumptions about the pervasiveness character and scope of religious laws from the view that they are not or should not be recognised by civil law to the idea that there may be a fundamental incompatibility between religious and civil law It proposes that religious laws pervade society are recognised by civil law have both a religious and temporal character and regulate wide areas of believers lives Subjects include sources of law faith leaders governance worship and education rites of passage divorce and children and religion State relations A Charter of the principles of religious law common to all three Abrahamic faiths is proposed to stimulate greater mutual understanding between religion and society and between the three faiths themselves

Brackney, 1994-05-30 A brief narrative survey of the Baptists in North America over the last three and a half centuries from their roots in Europe to their present manifestations in contemporary America and the world The six chapters are organized around five distinctives historically important to Baptists the Bible the Church the ordinances sacraments voluntarism and religious liberty Concluding with a Chronology and extensive Bibliographic Essay this is an ideal text for courses in Church History North American Religious History or American social and cultural history

The Reverend Jennie Johnson and African Canadian History, 1868-1967 Nina Reid-Maroney, 2013 This first scholarly treatment of a fascinating and understudied figure offers a unique and powerful view of nearly one hundred years of the struggle for freedom in North America After her conversion at a Baptist revival at sixteen Jennie Johnson followed the call to preach Raised in an African Canadian abolitionist community in Ontario she immigrated to the United States to attend the African Methodist Episcopal Seminary at Wilberforce University On an October evening in 1909 she stood before a group of Free Will Baptist preachers in the small town of Goblesville Michigan and was received into ordained ministry She was the first ordained woman to serve in Canada and spent her life building churches and working for racial justice on both sides of the national border In this first extended study of Jennie Johnson s fascinating life Nina Reid Maroney reconstructs Johnson s nearly one hundred year story from her upbringing in a black abolitionist settlement in nineteenth century Canada to her work as an activist and Christian minister in the modern civil rights movement This critical biography of a figure who outstripped the racial and religious barriers of her time offers a unique and powerful view of the struggle for freedom in North America Nina Reid Maroney is Associate Professor in the Department of History at Huron University College at Western London Ontario and a coeditor of The Promised Land History and Historiography of Black Experience in Chatham Kent s Settlements

An Unpredictable Gospel Jay Riley Case, 2012-01-02 The astonishing growth of Christianity in the global south over the course of the twentieth century has sparked an equally rapid growth in studies of World Christianity which have dismantled the notion that Christianity is a Western religion In Missionary Passages Jay Case examines the efforts of American evangelical missionaries in light of this
