Unbound A True Story Of War Love And Survival:

Unbound Dean King, 2010-03-03 In October 1934 the Chinese Communist Army found itself facing annihilation surrounded by hundreds of thousands of Nationalist soldiers Rather than surrender 86 000 Communists embarked on an epic flight to safety Only thirty were women Their trek would eventually cover 4 000 miles over 370 days Under enemy fire they crossed highland awamps climbed Tibetan peaks scrambled over chain bridges and trudged through the sands of the western deserts Fewer than 10 000 of them would survive but remarkably all of the women would live to tell the tale Unbound is an amazing story of love friendship and survival written by a new master of adventure narrative The Minjian Avant-Garde Chang Tan, 2024-02-15 The Minjian Avant Garde studies how experimental artists in China mixed with brought changes to and let themselves be transformed by minjian the volatile and diverse public of the post Mao era Departing from the usual emphasis on art institutions global markets or artists communities Chang Tan proposes a new analytical framework in the theories of socially engaged art that stresses the critical agency of participants the affective functions of objects and the versatility of the artists in diverse sociopolitical spheres Drawing from hitherto untapped archival materials and interviews with the artists Tan challenges the views of Chinese artists as either dissidents or conformists to the regime and sees them as navigators and negotiators among diverse political discourses and interests She questions the fetishization of marginalized communities among practitioners of progressive art and politics arguing that the members of minjian are often more complex defiant and savvy than the elites would assume The Minjian Avant Garde critically assesses the rise of populism in both art and politics and show that minjian could constitute either a democratizing or a coercive force This book was published with generous support from the George Dewey and Mary J Krumrine Endowment Book Lust to Go Nancy Pearl, 2010-06-01 Adventure is just a book away as bestselling author Nancy Pearl returns with recommended reading for more than 120 destinations both worldly and imagined around the globe From Las Vegas to the Land of Oz Naples to Nigeria Philadelphia to Provence Nancy Pearl guides readers to the very best fiction and nonfiction to read about each destination Even within one country she traverses decades to suggest titles that effortlessly capture the different eras that make up a region s unique history This enthusiastic literary globetrotting guide includes stops in Korea Sweden Afghanistan Albania Parma Patagonia Texas and Timbuktu Book Lust To Go connects the best fiction and nonfiction to particular destinations whether your bags are packed or your armchair is calling From fiction to memoir poetry to history Nancy Pearl s Book Lust to Go takes the reader on a globetrotting adventure no passport required One in a Billion Nancy Pine, 2020-12-09 This heart wrenching story immerses readers in the dramatic survival of one outspoken man who illuminates the souls of a billion ordinary Chinese citizens An Wei a stubborn hardworking peasant who has lived by his values and stood up for his convictions has succeeded against all odds in the authoritarian environment of China Despite grinding poverty hunger reeducation campaigns and attacks from jealous peers An Wei continues to inspire with his daring achievements such as launching a democratic congress in his own village His compelling life provides a vivid backdrop for understanding the development of modern China from the unique perspective of an outspoken citizen Through his audacious determination and survival skills forged in rural poverty An Wei's unstoppable drive to improve himself and rural China will captivate and enthrall readers Her website can be found at <https://nancypine.info>

Women and China's Revolutions Gail Hershatter, 2018-09-04 If we place women at the center of our account of China's last two centuries how does this change our understanding of what happened This deeply knowledgeable book illuminates the places where the Big History of recognizable events intersects with the daily lives of ordinary people using gender as its analytic lens Leading scholar Gail Hershatter asks how these events affected women in particular and how women affected the course of these events For instance did women have a 1911 revolution A socialist revolution If so what did those revolutions look like Which women had them Hershatter uses two key themes to frame her analysis The first is the importance of women's visible and invisible labor The labor of women in domestic and public spaces shaped China's move from empire to republic to socialist nation to rising capitalist power The second is the symbolic work performed by gender itself What women should do and be was a constant topic of debate during China's transformation from empire to weak state to partially occupied territory to nascent socialist republic to reform era powerhouse What sorts of concerns did people express through the language of gender How did that language work and why was it so powerful Drawing on decades of Hershatter's groundbreaking scholarship and mastery of a range of literatures this beautifully written book will be essential reading for all students of China's modern history

Richmond Noir Andrew Blossom, Brian Castleberry, Tom De Haven, 2010-03-01 The River City emerges as a hot spot for unseemly noir in this anthology with a foreword by New York Times bestselling author Tom Robbins A rich literary tradition sets the stage for this talented group of authors who take their inspiration from Virginia's capital city Edgar Allan Poe has left his mark on the atmospheric town giving its residents a taste for walking on the dark side It's no wonder that three local writers took it upon themselves to curate this moody and menacing collection featuring stories by Dean King Laura Browder Howard Owen Yazmina Beverly Tom De Haven X C Atkins Meagan J Saunders Anne Thomas Soffee Clint McCown Conrad Ashley Persons Clay McLeod Chapman Pir Rothenberg David L Robbins Hermine Pinson and Dennis Danvers Fifteen gritty and ominous tales The writing of Poe who grew up and forged a literary reputation in Richmond and is usually credited with inventing the detective story may have set the stage for the town's kiss me deadly tradition Richmond Times Dispatch

Experimental Beijing Sasha Su-Ling Welland, 2018-03-29 During the lead up to the 2008 Beijing Olympics the censorious attitude that characterized China's post 1989 official response to contemporary art gave way to a new market driven culture industry valuation of art Experimental artists who once struggled against state regulation of artistic expression found themselves being courted to advance China's international image In Experimental Beijing Sasha Su Ling Welland examines the interlocking power dynamics in this transformational moment and rapid rise of Chinese contemporary art into a global phenomenon Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork and experience as a videographer and curator Welland analyzes encounters between artists curators officials and urban planners as they negotiated the social role of art and built new cultural institutions Focusing on the contradictions and exclusions that emerged Welland traces the complex gender politics involved and shows that feminist forms of art practice hold the potential to reshape consciousness produce a nonnormative history of Chinese contemporary art and imagine other more just worlds

Dark Days D. Randall Blythe, 2015-07-14 Lamb of god vocalist D Randall Blythe finally tells the whole incredible story of his arrest incarceration trial and acquittal for manslaughter in the Czech Republic over the tragic and accidental death of a concertgoer in this riveting gripping biting bold and brave memoir On June 27 2012 the long running hard touring and world renowned metal band lamb of god landed in Prague for their first concert there in two years Vocalist D Randall Randy Blythe was looking forward to a few hours off a rare break from the touring grind in which to explore the elegant old city However a surreal scenario worthy of Kafka began to play out at the airport as Blythe was detained arrested for manslaughter and taken to Pankr Prison a notorious 123 year old institution where the Nazis torture units had set up camp during the German occupation of then Czechoslovakia and where today hundreds of prisoners are housed awaiting trial and serving sentences in claustrophobic sweltering nightmare inducing conditions Two years prior a 19 year old fan died of injuries suffered at a lamb of god show in Prague allegedly after being pushed off stage by Blythe who had no vivid recollection of the incident Stage crashing and diving being not uncommon occurrences as any veteran of hard rock metal and punk shows knows the concert that could have left him imprisoned for years was but a vague blur in Blythe s memory just one of the hundreds of shows his band had performed over their decades long career At the time of his arrest Blythe had been sober for nearly two years having finally gained the upper hand over the alcoholism that nearly killed him But here he faced a new kind of challenge jailed in a foreign land and facing a prison sentence of up to ten years Worst of all a young man was dead and Blythe was devastated for him and his family even as the reality of his own situation began to close in behind Pankr Prison s glowering walls of crumbling concrete and razor wire What transpired during Blythe s incarceration trial and eventual acquittal is a rock n roll road story unlike any other one that runs the gamut from tragedy to despair to hope and finally to redemption While never losing sight of the sad gravity of his situation Blythe relates the tale of his ordeal with one eye fixed firmly on the absurd and at times bizarrely hilarious circumstances he encountered along the way Blythe is a natural storyteller and his voice drips with cutting humor endearing empathy and soulful insight Much more than a tour diary or a prison memoir Dark Days is D Randall Blythe s own story about what went down before during and after told only as he can

New Books on Women and Feminism ,2010 Bibliography of Sources on the Region of Former Yugoslavia Volume III Rusko Matuli?,1998 War Pictures Kent Puckett,2017-05-01 In this original and engaging work author Kent Puckett looks at how British filmmakers imagined saw and sought to represent its war during wartime through film The Second World War posed unique representational challenges to Britain s filmmakers Because of its logistical enormity the unprecedented scope of its destruction its conceptual status as total and the way it affected everyday life through aerial bombing blackouts rationing and the demands of total mobilization World War II created new critical opportunities for cinematic representation Beginning with a close and critical analysis of Britain s cultural scene War Pictures examines where the historiography of war the philosophy of violence and aesthetics come together Focusing on three films made in Britain during the second half of the Second World War Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger s The Life and Death of Colonel Blimp 1943 Lawrence Olivier s Henry V 1944 and David Lean s Brief Encounter 1945 Puckett treats these movies as objects of considerable historical interest but also as works that exploit the full resources of cinematic technique to engage with the idea experience and political complexity of war By examining how cinema functioned as propaganda criticism and a form of self analysis War Pictures reveals how British filmmakers writers critics and politicians understood the nature and consequence of total war as it related to ideas about freedom and security national character and the daunting persistence of human violence While Powell and Pressburger Olivier and Lean developed deeply self conscious wartime films their specific and strategic use of cinematic eccentricity was an aesthetic response to broader contradictions that characterized the homefront in Britain between 1939 and 1945 This stylistic eccentricity shaped British thinking about war violence and commitment as well as both an answer to and an expression of a more general violence Although War Pictures focuses on a particularly intense moment in time Puckett uses that particularity to make a larger argument about the pressure that war puts on aesthetic representation past and present Through cinema Britain grappled with the paradoxical notion that in order to preserve its character it had not only to fight and to win but also to abandon exactly those old decencies those sporting club rules that it sought also to protect

From Vichy to the Sexual Revolution Sarah

Fishman,2017 In the decades after World War II French ideas about gender and family life underwent dramatic changes laying the groundwork for the sexual revolution of the 1960s This book offers a broad view of changing lives and ideas about love courtship marriage giving birth parenting childhood and adolescence in France from the Vichy regime to the sexual revolution of 1960s Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Encyclopedia of Islands Rosemary Gillespie,David Clague,2009-08-19 Islands have captured the imagination of scientists and the public for centuries unique and rare environments their isolation makes them natural laboratories for ecology and evolution This authoritative alphabetically arranged reference featuring more than 200 succinct articles by leading scientists from around the world provides broad coverage of all the island sciences But what exactly is an island The volume editors define it here as any discrete habitat isolated from other habitats by inhospitable surroundings The Encyclopedia of Islands examines many such insular settings oceanic and continental islands as well as places such as caves mountaintops and whale falls at the bottom of the ocean This essential one stop resource extensively illustrated with color photographs clear maps and graphics will introduce island science to a wide audience and spur further research on some of the planet s most fascinating habitats
