Here Goes Nothing Kendra Broekhuis, 2017-02-28 What happens when you ask God What do you want me to do today This is not a success story And it s not one of those stories that has a beginning a middle and then a perfectly tidy hind end either It s really just a beginning For thirty days Kendra Broekhuis prayed to maintain the joy of being wife and mommy amid the daily grind To see the world through God s eyes To live intentionally To build relationships and share Christ s love with our neighbors To learn what it really means to give To collide motherhood with mission This became her motto her credo her personal mission statement Some days it led to actions the Lord gently nudged her to take Other days it led to reflections the Lord gently whispered into her heart Every day it led to a single word one underlying theme that ties all thirty days all thirty chapters and their wide variety of topics together giving These thirty days found Kendra and her husband and daughter in a strange time of transition They had just moved back to the United States after teaching for three years in the beautiful country of Guatemala They were in a new city working a new job living in a new apartment building in search of a new church And they wanted to put it all together all of their experiences all of the things they had just seen and learned and read and discussed It wasn t a clean slate but rather a chance to live intentionally When Kendra and her husband sought advice about the transition from fellow missionary friends the advice was Get to know your neighbors It might sound like strange advice but it made sense Jesus tells us to Love God and love your neighbor Many times the word neighbor is meant to be vague but it shouldn t always be Part of being mission minded no matter where you live or work is being willing to love the people closest to you people we often overlook Kendra s neighbors as in the people who live in the other eleven apartments in her building are whom she often found the Lord s generosity overflowing to and from during these thirty days
