Chapman, 2012-09-28 Given the current zeitgeist the actualization of 21st Century ministry has increasingly become a daunting enterprise The confluence of the intellectual moral and cultural tenor of the times causes us to examine the assessment of ministry motives We must ask ourselves What is our priority Style or substance Conviction or compromise Have too many preachers augmented their authenticity gyped themselves of their genuineness and become maligned by misguided motives Such is the delineation and discourse so denoted and unearthed by the dynamism of Dr Aaron Chapman Pastor Preacher Professor Proclaimer Prognosticator Par Excellence His keen insight into the very heart and soul of the 21st Century preacher arrests our attention and mandates a new set of marching orders Dr Chapman is a bonafide scholar who didactically leads us into a new dimension of legitimacy Ethics are no longer situational Commitment is no longer in question The preacher is challenged not just in skill but in will not just in the art but in the heart Dr Chapman reminds us that mere theological technique and ontological expository without lifestyle application may sound sweet to the itching ear but woefully inadequate for the credence of the craft Simply put the preacher must have a transparent authenticity The preacher must have a spirit of sincerity It is that passion that zest that sense of purpose that must personify the 21st Century preacher Pulpit Ready yet personally grounded The hope of this comprehensive work is that the challenge to the called and chosen remains a high and spiritual standard This book will be a benchmark for this generation and the next Dr Aaron Chapman has set the bar Bishop Edgar L Vann II Second Ebenezer Church Presiding Prelate Kingdom Alliance Covenant Fellowship

The Postmodern Parish Jim

Kitchens, 2003-11-01 Many of us who are pastors of local mainline churches have long felt that something is amiss in the life of our congregations It's hard for us to name exactly what is wrong but occasionally we are aware of a nagging sense that something is just not working any more Our best efforts at ministry feel like they're about a half beat behind some new pulse beginning to course through the culture writes author Jim Kitchens Congregational leaders who recognize Kitchens' description of congregational life today will appreciate his pointed and realistic analysis of fundamental shifts in ministry that have taken place in our postmodern post Christian and postdenominational world Kitchens also demonstrates that we need to create a different sort of church if we are to be faithful to the gospel in this new cultural setting He addresses in detail how these contextual shifts invite us to change our ministry in four arenas of congregational life worship Christian formation mission and leadership Kitchens shows congregational leaders how to learn how to be the body of Christ in ways that will be both faithful to the Gospel and responsive to our newly emerging cultural context

Present in Every Place? Will

Foulger, 2023-04-30 Amidst a world of seemingly endless movement and change many of us feel a longing to be rooted It is this instinct that has led many to value the parish system and to question the place of new churches be they fresh expressions or church plants This book is about the instinct to form churches that are of and for a particular place and what this might mean in a world where place is contested interconnected and ever changing Above all it is an attempt to move the conversation beyond the binary choices of parish or non new or inherited It offers a powerful and persuasive vision for a Church that is national only by being local a vision that can only be realised as churches continually become present to their places

Garden of the Soul Mark Mah, 2014-03-13 The stories of Jesus placed in the context of the familiar and factual are filled with metaphors that audiences can understand and appreciate Metaphors not only inform and persuade but also fire up readers' imaginations and get them involved as participants Humans are primed to think and feel metaphorically and so Garden of the Soul aims to metaphorically explore five landscapes that feature prominently in the Bible Each metaphorical landscape throws light on an aspect of spiritual life The bountiful garden speaks of growth the flowing river calls for unceasing prayer the raging sea mirrors the turbulence of a journey of faith the barren desert transforms by emptying life's clutter and the high mountain challenges readers to scale its peak to glimpse a transcendent vision of God This book will inform enrich and challenge readers spiritual lives throughout their journey from garden to mountain Bonhoeffer Down Under Ian Packer, Gordon Preece, 2012-08-30 If Protestants had saints Dietrich Bonhoeffer martyred under Hitler on April 9 1945 just days before the Allies reached his concentration camp would be one of the first canonised Not just his unsought martyr's death but his life's movement from privilege to growing identification with the suffering his courageous return from the safety and beckoning success of the US to Germany his work with the Confessing Church and more controversially with the underground resistance in the plot to assassinate Hitler all argue his case for canonisation Bonhoeffer is among ten twentieth century martyrs above the Great West Door at Westminster Cathedral where their portraits of ten tell more about the artists and their age than the saint and theirs the movement of their lives and the movements they belonged to or founded This is certainly true of Bonhoeffer and the Church of his anguished age This collection of essays is from Down Under for with the exception of the paper by UK theologian Keith Clements are all the papers are by writers who live and work in the southern hemisphere They include former Australian Prime Minister Kevin Rudd South African theologian John de Gruchy and a number of Australian writers These include papers by historian John Moses and theologians Gordon Preece Brian Rosner Bruce Barber Max Chamption and Neil Holm Kevin Rudd writes in this volume that Bonhoeffer is without doubt the man I admire most in the history of the twentieth century He was a man of faith He was a man of reason He was never a nationalist always an internationalist For tormented twenty first century humanity Bonhoeffer is still one of our best guides to that new humanity being birthed by the Spirit of Christ in the midst of those seeing from and suffering below Christian Preaching Michael Pasquarello III, 2011-06-28 Michael Pasquarello has written a must read book articulating a Trinitarian vision for preaching His compelling argument is richly informed by traditional biblical hermeneutics creedal history understood as storied attestation of the witness of Scripture and liturgical theology and practice considered as embodied performance of the Bible's divine narrative Here is a clear summons to the church to abandon all lesser homiletic aims and to prayerfully and faithfully proclaim the holy gospel to the glory of God Charles L Bartow Princeton Theological Seminary Like all of Michael Pasquarello's work his newest book not only upholds the classical Christian tradition but also breathes new vitality into it In an era in which preaching is reduced to persuasive communication Pasquarello reminds us that the Christian message has a content that originates in and gives expression to the Father Son and Holy Spirit Richard Lischer Duke Divinity School One of the refreshing things about this fine book by Michael Pasquarello is that when he thinks about the ministry of preaching he is not afraid to measure the breadth historically or plumb the depths theologically Pasquarello has written this book like a good sermon faithfully thoughtfully prayerfully and with a profound word to speak We are in his debt Thomas G Long Candler School of Theology Boldly challenging homiletical accommodation to American culture Pasquarello seeks to change the subject of preaching from method and marketing to the Triune God who is the source and goal of our speech. A welcome theological vision of preaching. Charles L. Campbell, Columbia Theological Seminary. Christian Preaching brings together two disciplines that have sadly grown apart such that they almost developed irreconcilable differences: preaching and theology. Pasquarello offers a brilliant critique of theology as technique and draws on the theology and sermons of Irenaeus, Augustine, Luther, Wesley, and others, convincingly demonstrating that effective, pragmatic preaching requires substantive theological engagement and vice versa. This book accomplishes its purpose so well that it should be used not only in preaching courses but also in basic theology courses. No preacher should be let loose on a congregation without passing through Pasquarello's Christian Preaching. D. Stephen Long, Marquette University.

Navigating the Nonsense

Douglas J. Bixby, 2016-04-08. Navigating the Nonsense will change the way your church approaches conflict and communication. It will unlock the untapped potential that exists in your church. It is a book for clergy and lay leaders. It is for churches tired of getting a new pastor every four years. It is for pastors who are afraid conflict may derail the effectiveness of their ministry. It is for pastors who are afraid conflict with a small group of people may lead to an early departure from their pastorate. It is for church leaders who want to find ways to protect their pastors from disgruntled members. It is for leadership teams and boards that feel their ministries are frozen in place or in a permanent state of decline. It is for those who believe the church cannot focus on ministry if it is bound up by so much conflict. It is for anyone who is tired of feeling frustrated and wants their church to become more centrally focused on Jesus and his way of doing things.
