

How Chapter 2 really works

Active reading: Purpose

In this chapter we shall have a somewhat different approach to the integrated reading of the type of reading. It is intended to help you develop a more active approach to the material in the text. The approach is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text.

There are three types of reading: reading and the way to a good reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The first type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The second type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The third type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text.

The second type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The third type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text.

The third type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The fourth type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The fifth type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The sixth type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The seventh type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The eighth type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text.

The ninth type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The tenth type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The eleventh type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The twelfth type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The thirteenth type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The fourteenth type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text.

The fifteenth type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The sixteenth type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The seventeenth type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text. The eighteenth type of reading is to read the text and then to write a summary of the text.
