Forgotten Voices Ulrich Merten, 2017-07-05 The news agency Reuters reported in 2009 that a mass grave containing 1 800 bodies was found in Malbork Poland Polish authorities suspected that they were German civilians that were killed by advancing Soviet forces A Polish archeologist supervising the exhumation said We are dealing with a mass grave of civilians probably of German origin The presence of children suggests they were civilians During World War II the German Nazi regime committed great crimes against innocent civilian victims Jews Poles Russians Serbs and other people of Central and Eastern Europe At war s end however innocent German civilians in turn became victims of crimes against humanity Forgotten Voices lets these victims of ethnic cleansing tell their story in their own words so that they and what they endured are not forgotten This volume is an important supplement to the voices of victims of totalitarianism and has been written in order to keep the historical record clear The root cause of this tragedy was ultimately the Nazi German regime As a leading German historian Hans Ulrich Wehler has noted Germany should avoid creating a cult of victimization and thus forgetting Auschwitz and the mass killing of Russians Ulrich Merten argues that applying collective punishment to an entire people is a crime against humanity He concludes that this should also be recognized as a European catastrophe not only a German one because of its magnitude and the broad violation of human rights that occurred on European soil Supplementary maps and pictures are available online at <http://www.forgottenvoices.net>

Heldentod Paul Garson, 2021-01-29 Previously unpublished images dramatically illustrate the Third Reich s love affair with death From cradle to the grave the seductive indoctrination of a civilised nation The significant aid to Holocaust research and curriculum studies Shedding new light on the darkest of times Heldentod The Nazi Culture of Death graphically focuses on the Third Reich s conception and promotion of the Hero s Death as it fostered and then fuelled a cataclysm of apocalyptic carnage and destruction This underlying driving force ultimately self destructive is shown infusing both state sponsored propaganda and echoed by the personal battlefield images captured by its soldiers
