Azibuye emasisweni Zethu Cakata, Nompumelelo Z. Radebe, Mogobe B. Ramose, 2023-06-28 African knowledge is yet to fully contribute to spaces of learning because of the disciplinary boundaries founded on Western separatist logic From an African epistemology knowledge is interconnected because of the cosmological understanding that the universe is one entity Bringing African knowledge into the academy requires a concerted effort to bring it of its own accord There have been commendable efforts by scholars in South Africa to bring African knowledge to higher education in ways that do not alter or re shape this knowledge to suit the dominant Euro American script This book aims to showcase such efforts This book makes interconnections of themes across disciplines The content produced in this book will ensure that literature will anchor the noble efforts to build African universities that deliberately centre African ways of knowing This book will be among the few publications that focus on Africanisation and decolonisation of knowledges as praxis We anticipate that this book will be recommended in various disciplines of social sciences in South African universities

Chirau, Tebogo Fish, Candice Morkel, 2024-02-09 The World Health Organization WHO defines equity as the absence of preventable or remediable disparities among various groups of individuals regardless of how these groups are delineated whether by social economic demographic or geographic factors The goal of equity is to eliminate the unfair and avoidable circumstances that deprive people of their rights Therefore inequities generally arise when certain population groups are unfairly deprived of basic resources that are made available to other groups A disparity is unfair or unjust when its cause is due to the social context rather than biological factors Equitable evaluation contends that conducting evaluation practices with an equity approach is more powerful as evaluation is used as a tool for advancing equity It emphasises that context culture history and beliefs shape the nature of evaluations specifically in the diverse and often complex African reality Equitable evaluation can render power to the powerless offer a voice to the silenced and give presence to those treated as invisible Evidence from various sources shows that inequality is prevalent on the African continent hence the need to focus on evaluative solutions that address the structural issues that contribute to the different forms of inequality such as economic political and social inequality Despite a plethora of development interventions on the African continent a large proportion of the population on the continent is still lacking access to basic goods and services for survival The effectiveness of developmental programmes in sub Saharan Africa has been elusive to the extent that minimal inroads have been made in addressing key challenges such as poverty inequality and the effects of climate change This scholarly book aims to invigorate academic discussions surrounding developmental programmes with the goal of generating insights that can be utilised by evaluation commissioners and decision makers to help address inequality and promote a more equitable society in Africa through improved evaluation processes The Great Gatsby meets Alain Badiou Ursula Vooght, 2023-12-21 The subject of this book is a consideration of the usefulness of the concept of fidelity put forward by the philosopher Alain Badiou in the discussion of film adaptation Fidelity or faithfulness is primarily a consideration that emerges in relation to so called canonical texts in adaptation Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby occupies a position of global recognisability and within the United States cultural mythology that has triggered strong reactions to the four Hollywood adaptations The various adaptations allow for the differing approaches to the adaptation of this novel to be meaningfully explored The film adaptations paratextual elements will be discussed in order to show how these acted as limiting lenses The strategies of the films for handling elements of Fitzgerald's prose and themes will be compared across the adaptations This will culminate in an assertion of the worth of a larger application of a Badiouian fidelity within the field
