The odysseys had separation initiation and return as their theme They prompted her to picture her own wild place and its attractions and she saw how a dreamer has an inner wild she goes to at night In that place while her other mental powers sleep her imagination is awake later she returns This process initiates her into new ways of seeing her day life On the heels of a decade of dream sharing and odysseys to Greece in 2012 Bonna went to art school Encouraged to revive childlike imaginings as part of a process of making art she discovered more ways to see Shared dreams travels to Greece and art school are the main threads in her story but mothering is also woven in Feminine figures appeared in Bonna s dreams and she learnt about the gods of Greek mythology who are feminine or masculine but sometimes ambiguous Over time with plenty to reflect on she grew to see her own mother in a new softer light The Mother seen as mythical mother gave her a fresh way to see mother daughter relationships and released her into a new time

Frank Woggon, 2024-05-07 What if Jesus did not come to die for our sins What if instead Jesus's life and death was intended to provide a way out of our shame While traditional Christian teachings about the atonement emphasize sin as guilt and transgression against God's will and commandments Frank Woggon points out that clinical spiritual care reveals that the human condition is predominantly marked by shame rather than guilt In The Empathic God Woggon examines myopic readings of the Jesus event that in turn have embedded distortions into traditional paradigms of the atonement In contrast Woggon mines narratives of the human condition to engage in a critical examination of the Jesus story As a clinician and ordained Baptist minister Woggon presents the Jesus event as God's empathic initiative toward humanity and convincingly argues that salvation comes through empathy rather than forgiveness Woggon's work constructs a clinical theology of atonement from the perspective of clinical spiritual care The Empathic God calls for a practical response of caring participation in God's ongoing work of salvation through an empathic praxis of spiritual care Most importantly The Empathic God takes seriously that lived human experience is the starting point for theological exploration rather than doctrine This book will help practitioners and students of spiritual care in the Christian tradition to reflect more critically on the intersection of spiritual care practice and theology The book also will challenge pastors ministers of pastoral care chaplains pastoral counselors spiritually oriented therapists to interrogate and re-interpret traumatic shame filled Christian teachings about the atonement so that they too can join in God's ongoing and liberating work of salvation Mirrors of Self Jonathan P.
