Understanding the Roots of Intractability in Hindu-Muslim Conflicts in India Chirasree Mukherjee, 2025-07-17

Understanding the Roots of Intractability in Hindu Muslim Conflicts in India examines why some political conflicts especially those involving religion prove difficult to resolve utilizing the case study of religious conflicts between the Hindus and the Muslims in India Traditional conflict resolution techniques such as negotiation and mediation often fail to manage or resolve such conflicts and the existing literature often overlooks the nuances within religious conflicts This book deepens understanding of the roots of intractable conflicts analyzing five decades of conflicts between Hinduism and Islam in India paving the way for more successful peacebuilding and conflict management The author disaggregates religious conflicts into four types Conflicts over Sacred Sites Dietary Restrictions Religious Festivities and Other Using the Varshney Wilkinson Dataset on Hindu Muslim Violence in India 1950 1995 and Mitra and Ray s 2014 extension of the same dataset 1996 2000 this book argues that compared to the latter three types of conflicts and nonreligious conflicts any conflict involving sacred sites results in greater intensity and duration and hence will be the most intractable It further demonstrates the varied effects of each conflict type on conflict intractability This book will appeal to scholars and students of political science religious studies and conflict and security studies
